About the Proposed New Visitor's Center in Nauvoo

For all the other churches in the county, please excuse the focus on SPPN; then again, if the unity of our churches has come to mean anything at all, perhaps everyone could read this as if SPPN belongs to everybody.

I have met with the competent authority of the LDS community of faith twice over the issue of the proposed Visitor Center. Each meeting was restricted in scope of presentation and invitation to react. (By the way: if you hear anything about me with regard to this, make sure you check things out with me. Nothing deliberate, I'm sure: but misunderstandings do occur. And I can straighten those out, when it comes to me.) I am aware of developments at meetings. I am all too aware of concerns from our Church and School, and the greater Nauvoo community.

For twenty years, I've seen this county as a national center for interreligious dialogue, on the basis of the importance being placed on Nauvoo and Carthage by the LDS community of faith. This vision has been the formal object of keeping all of our institutions operative. I have my motivation for engagement in the community; I realize I'm in a minority - probably of one! - on this one. But the fact is that we all have our motivations for engagement in which we all share - which is why I offer the following suggestion and encouragement.

If you haven't already: write our mayor. Make known your concerns: traffic, visibility, location, whatever. I myself have to handle concerns frequently. Because of my own experience with fielding the mail, may I say this? When you write, be direct, but polite. "Bottle the acid:" no threats, sarcasm, insults. The strength of your complaint is in the clarity of the issue you present: you want the issue to be the issue, and not the way you make your point.

Go ahead: write our mayor. Let your concerns be known. You never know how far your position might go. But you'll never find out, unless you act. Fr. T.

Welcome, Fr. Pallardy! Father James "Jim" Pallardy has been a priest of the Peoria diocese for thirty years. Because of a medical condition, he has accepted "Senior Status," and has responded positively to my invitation to live here, with us! This means he will be in residence at the Villa Marie, with all expenses taken care of by the diocese except for room and board. He'll spend this summer getting to know us and the area; in the fall, we'll determine the time he spends in priestly service here, and that which he could spend helping out in other areas of the diocese. He is an excellent pastor, administrator, preacher, and teacher. And: he's an outdoorsman! Hunting, fishing, boating: he's into all of it. Let's give him a Hancock County welcome!

Youth Group Meets Sunday, June 25, 7-8 p.m. Schedules are probably packed; but we're trying to bridge from one successful school year to another, hopefully even more successful. We'll start in the kitchen: bring something you can put together fast! Then, to the Church for Adoration and opportunity for Confession, the way we did things last March. We're in the process of planning a trip in July - more about that one, later. For now, see you Sunday evening: maybe...hopefully...we'll see!

It Would Be Nice To Know. Fr. Tony's pastoral care visitation is nothing for any priest to be proud of. And there are a good number of anointings and confessions waiting out there. But, still....Please allow me to stress the need to take nothing for granted when it comes to what I know about what's going on. Now if you want your privacy, that's another thing. Other than that, if you're going into the hospital, please tell me. If someone has died that I ought to know about because of family connections of which I am unaware, please let me know. I'd rather have people inform me, than for me to give the impression that I'm in the gossip chain, or that I'm doing my homework on other people's lives through technology/social media.

The Act of Contrition: Really! You will find both the old and the new forms of the Act of Contrition in our Reconciliation Rooms for Confession, as well as for your own personal prayer. Take a look at the bulletin insert presenting these prayers; also, take note that there is a version of the Act of Contrition in Spanish. We want you to get an advance look - so that you don't have to feel like you're kneeling or sitting at a fast-food place endlessly staring at the menu of prayers before you finally select one! That line behind you can get pretty upset!

CONTACT INFORMATION UPDATE – Phone numbers and addresses change so please help us keep your contact information up to date! Look for Barb Drozd before or after most weekend Masses in July to confirm or make any corrections. Thank you!

Called and Gifted: Charismatic Gifts Survey. The past year - school year, fiscal year, pastoral year - has been more than we could have hoped for. (Except for my own pastoral care efforts: really need to work on that one.) You have either read or heard about what we will do this coming year. This includes a re-introduction to the Called and Gifted method of discovering gifts of the Holy Spirit that are given to each of us for the building up of the Church. What I've just said about this past year has to be followed up with the following: we can't keep up, we can't progress, without more people involved in helping our efforts. I need you to be open to this. I will be consulting all of our Finance Councils and our Pastoral Council to see whether each church will pay an equal share in the expense of this program, or whether something pro-rated according to parish population is called for. Would like to know what you think. More about this, later: just wanted to give you a "head's up!" for now. Fr. T.

Ruthie's Party! Let's get together and celebrate Ruthie! Ruth Higgins has been a very special part of Dallas City and our community for years and we would like to thank her for all she has done. As many of you may know, Ruthie had a health scare and has finished chemo and radiation. It is time for a celebration with Ruthie. Celebration will be held on Sunday, June 25 from 2:00-5:00 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 1275 Mulholland Street, Nauvoo IL. We would like to invite all of Ruth's friends to come and share a story, a memorable moment, or a favorite time of your life with Ruth. Hope to see you there!

St. Mary's will be having an "Indoor Picnic" following the 5:30 Mass Saturday, July 1. Hamburgers, Hot Dogs, Buns, and Condiments will be furnished. Parishioners are asked to bring a side dish to share and your own beverage. Hope to see you there!

Warsaw Sacred Heart Ladies, We will be passing out our Bakeless Bake Sale envelopes at church following Sunday Mass. Please return by June 30 in the collection baskets. Thank you~ Gayle Roskamp and Linda Anderson.

Catholic Charities St. Nicholas Van is changing the Hancock County distribution day to the 2nd Friday of the month beginning on June 16. The time and location remain the same at 1:00 p.m. at Immaculate Conception Parish Hall in Carthage. The Catholic Charities St. Nicholas Van distributes bags of toiletries, cleaning supplies, etc. to people that meet them at the van. Please share this information with anyone who currently utilizes or could benefit from their services. Thank you!
