Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

JUNE 4, 2023

Exodus 34:4b-6,8-9; 2 Corinthians 13:11-13;
John 3:16-18

The first reading describes the awe experienced by Moses as he encountered the Lord on Mt. Sinai. The Lord is in the “cloud of glory.” No one was permitted to go with Moses. Moses confesses the unworthiness of his people, but asks the Lord to go with them. But, we may ask, how can we approach the awesome Lord? Even when he tells us that he is the God of love, who are we that we can come before him?

The answer is in the Gospel: We can approach the Father through the Son, for “God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son.” He did not send the Son to condemn, but that all might be saved through him. If we have seen the Son, we have seen the Father. We can approach the Father through the Son who became one of us – like us in all things except sin.

But the Son has returned to the Father’s glory. Still, we are not alone. He has sent the Holy Spirit into our hearts. The Holy Spirit makes present the Son; he unites us in the one Body of Christ, the Son.

The word translated “fellowship” in the second reading really means “union with.” United in the Holy Spirit, we are united with each other and made one in Christ, through whom we can approach the Father.

Our spiritual life must be rooted in the mystery of the Trinity. Our prayer and worship are offered to the Father through the Son in the Holy Spirit with Mary and all the saints. Give glory to the Father through the Son in the Holy Spirit!

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Dear St. Francis Solanus Parishioners:

You may be wondering this weekend, “Who is that man up there near Father?” Permit me to introduce myself to you. My name is Thomas Marten and I am a second-year seminarian studying for our Diocese while at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary in St. Louis. I am in the Pre-Theology program. This part of the seminary takes men who already have a degree in something unrelated to the seminary and provides them not only with philosophy courses but also with the healing and prayer life so many of us need.

As for my background, I grew up on my family’s farm near Raymond, Illinois, just two hours away from Quincy. It was on that farm that I was raised in our faith and attended the now-closed St. Isidore Catholic Grade School in Farmersville, Illinois. I went on to public high school at Lincolnwood (Raymond) High School where I was heavily involved in the FFA (Future Farmers of America) and found myself earning a degree from Southern Illinois University-Carbondale in agricultural systems. I have two older sisters and one niece (who is one of my Goddaughters). My father passed away ten years ago from Lou Gehrig’s Disease (ALS) and my mother remains on our farm where my uncle and cousin continue farming.

The man you see is obviously not fresh out of SIU. I spent the past decade working in various agricultural non-profit organizations including the Stark County Farm Bureau, the FarmHouse Foundation, and most recently the Angus Foundation.

God first called me in third grade to serve Him as a priest. Through a stubborn combination of my Irish and German ancestry, I held out for a couple of decades. Thankfully, I finally surrendered to His call and began listening to Him and not running away from this beautiful vocation. God continues to call men and women into His priesthood and as religious—too often we actively ignore the promptings He provides (at least I did).

Ultimately it was returning to regular confession and prayer, particularly a powerful encounter with our Eucharistic Lord in adoration, that caused me to quit a job I loved (and that had steak all the time) and pursue something even greater. As you see me throughout this summer, please stop me and say hello, but most of all, pray for me and in turn pray for the youth of St. Francis Solanus and across our diocese that they might listen to God’s call for them, be it as priests, sisters or husbands and wives.

Pax Tecum, Thomas L Marten, Seminarian

Summer hours for adoration— We would like to offer adoration on Wednesdays from 11 a.m. -5 p.m. starting this Wednesday, June 7. A sign-up sheet is in the gathering space. And Thank you! to everyone who participated in our Wednesday all-day adoration during the school year. You all made it possible for our school students to spend some time each week in the presence of Jesus.

Parish registration is now online!

Go to the parish website, www.stfrancissolanus.com, and follow the link near the top, "Join St. Francis Parish!"

You also are welcome to fill out a new parishioner form in the parish office or call the office, 222-2898, and we will sign you up.

Attention Ministry volunteers: Our next round of schedules will be for July 3-October 1. If you are no longer available to serve in your assigned ministry, please let Krista in the parish office know. Please take a few minutes to look at your schedules and enter any unavailable dates for this time period. Do this by June 14. If you are interested in joining a ministry, let Krista know. Thank you for your service to St. Francis Solanus!

Right to Life of Adams County is hosting Mark Lee Dickson from Sanctuary Cities for the Unborn this Friday, June 9 from 6-8 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus McGivney Hall in Quincy. This is a free event. Mr. Dickson serves as a Director with Right to Life of East Texas and is the founder of the Sanctuary Cities for the Unborn initiative. For more information about Mr. Dickson and his work go to sanctuarycitiesfortheunborn.org.

Holy Name News

Please sign up to work a couple of hours in the lunch stand at the St. Francis Picnic on June 10. Text or call 217-440-0875 if you can help out. Our next Holy Name meeting will be Wednesday, June 14 at 6 p.m.

Knights of Columbus News

The Thursday night Big Raffle Jackpot starts up again this Thursday, June 8 with a jackpot of $19,525 and 100 chances to win on the Big Board! Tickets are sold from 6-7:45 p.m. with the drawing at 8 p.m. Please go to our website, quincykofc.org, to get all of the details about happenings at the Quincy Knights of Columbus.

Make plans to join us for the Corpus Christi procession Sunday, June 11 after the 11 a .m. Mass. The procession will head north from the church for approximately five blocks on pavement, no stairs, before returning to St. Francis. All first communicants from 2023 are welcome to wear their First Communion outfits and process with us.

As we kick off Vacation Bible School and Totus Tuus , we're still in need of a few volunteers. Totus Tuus needs supper/dinner hosts, people to bring lunch for five team members, teen helpers, and adults to be on hand at lunch/recess/sign-up table. Totus Tuus also needs snack donation volunteers. To volunteer you may use the online registration form or call Liz Alonzo at 222-2898. Thank you!

Ladies of St. Francis News:

Recipe Reminder— Ladies and gentlemen, please share your favorite recipe with the Ladies of St. Francis. Please include your name and phone number. You may place your written recipe in the envelope in the gathering space, or you can drop it in the collection basket, or bring it by the parish office. You also may email it to Jan Zeidler at rzjz2010@hotmail.com. Deadline for submission is July 1. Don't forget to sign up to volunteer at the parish picnic! Look for the Ladies of St. Francis basket donation at the picnic.
