"Don't Put Your Hand Over the Burner!"

In teaching people about Catholic morality, I used the example of a little child burning his hand while innocently playing with the stove. Objectively - the act of endangering yourself by placing your hand on a burning stove - is wrong: always wrong. Subjectively - the mindset and knowledge of a little child who doesn't realize what he's doing - level of responsibility is lessened because the child doesn't know about fire, heat, and the way a stove works. But the objective standard remains the same; it's never right to place your hand on a burning stove, hopefully a self-evident insight.

The past two generations have witnessed a lessening of moral knowledge and moral responsibility. The Church herself is largely responsible for this state of affairs. Fornication; cohabitation; artificial birth control; same-sex simulation of marriage; ambiguity in sex and gender discernment; surrogate and in vitro methods of childbirth; abortion, physician assisted and self-inflicted suicide: these are but a small number of topics that have an objective standard built into them that make them sins, without exception; at the same time, people are so unaware of what the Church teaches, and why, that the level of responsibility before God every day and on Judgment Day is greatly diminished. This is why, beginning in August, my sermons will address these moral teachings, and many others, as well. And each sermon will be disseminated beyond the actual delivery of the sermon. By the end of the year, you could have a simple catechism, if you keep these sermons as a booklet, a collection. All I need from you is an open mind with an even-tempered disposition if you disagree with the Church's teaching, and a non-judgmental attitude if you do agree. Avoiding these teachings does not serve us well. Let's face them. Fr. T.

Eternal Rest Grant Unto Them, O Lord. This past week, we have offered ourselves in union with Jesus and loved ones who have entered into their destiny, the fullness of eternal life. Our prayers for Alice Dierker, Jan Jacobs, and Simon Bentzinger, and for the consolation and hope in Jesus Christ for their families and friends.

Registration for "Called and Gifted" Begins!

All of our Masses are now informed about "Called and Gifted," the discernment of gifts of the Holy Spirit infused into our souls at Baptism, and intended for sharing with others to advance the Church, the Body of Christ. The Called and Gifted Workshop takes place on Saturday, September 30, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. We intend to have a specific, limited window of time for registration: the closing date for registration is July 31. During the months of August and September, registered participants will view a video, and take the Called and Gifted Inventory, both online, thus preparing ourselves for the workshop.

And here's how you register:

1. Email Fr. Tony or Susan Knipe at the email addresses listed on the front page of our bulletin.
2. Give us your first name, your last name, and your email address.
3. We will forward this information to the St. Catherine of Siena Institute.

If you don't have an email address - that is, if you know as little about the world of technology as Fr. Tony does! - call or message him at the rectory or personal phone number listed on our bulletin. You know our slogan: "We'll find a way - even if there isn't one!"

Age is no factor here. The efforts we have begun over the past year cannot possibly be sustained by a few people only. And even beyond what we so desperately need here, there are things the Holy Spirit might have in store for you that won't involve you elsewhere. So, enter into this as a way of self-discovery. Let's see what the Holy Spirit has designed us to share, and to do! Fr. T.

Fr. Pallardy...He /s Coming, Isn't He? These plans are always subject to change. After July 4...no, July 17...and now, another change. Fr. Pallardy will be here on Sunday, July 23, for a day, to help Fr. Tony, who will be with the Youth Group that day. Then, his official time of arrival is August 1. And that's final...at least until it changes...but if it changes...that's it...until next time. Oh, well!!!

Father's Friends Now Officially Closed. It's official now; our outreach to the poor will have to be limited - not totally closed off - but much less ambitious. Unless Called and Gifted awakens more helpers: that would help change things. Letters of gratitude will be going out soon. To so many of you who so faithfully put your trust in this ministry and my supervision of your gifts, I thank you. Let's find other avenues of assistance, other structures by which to meet the needs of the least in God's Kingdom.

Thank you: I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone that attended my party on June 25. Your presence was greatly appreciated. Thanks for all the cards, gifts, food, lottery tickets, etc., and thanks for your prayers and words of encouragement. All of you mean a great deal to me. I could not do this without you. Thanks again to all. -Ruth Higgins

Planning has begun for CCD and we are in need of teachers - particularly in Nauvoo and Warsaw. Please contact Trisha if this is something you can help with or have any questions. religioused@hancockcountycatholic.org or 217-430-8117.

Save the Date!!! Immaculate Conception in Carthage will be hosting an outdoor Mass (weather permitting) and dedication of the Our Lady of Guadalupe Shrine on the Vigil of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary at 5:30 p.m. on Monday, August 14. All Hancock County Catholics are invited to worship together and enjoy a meal. Watch the bulletin for more details!

Healing Service, St. Mary Church, Hamilton, Saturday Evening, July 22. During the last participation in the Called and Gifted Charismatic Gifts effort under Fr. Szydluk's leadership, a Raritan parishioner, Roger Shaner, heard Fr. Szydluk's sermon about sharing our spiritual gifts. He had known that he had a gift for healing: spiritual, emotional, and physical. Both Fr. Szydluk and I can testify as personal witnesses to Mr. Shaner's spiritual gift: we've seen healings - yes, even physical healings, both partial and complete. For this reason, after the Saturday evening Mass in Hamilton on July 22, at around 6:30 p.m., we will begin a monthly Healing Service which will include the healing ministry of Roger Shaner, intercessory prayer to Father Augustus Tolton and Bishop Fulton Sheen (in the event of a physical healing that would advance their causes for canonization), and the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. You are invited to benefit from Mr. Shaner's ministry; but you are certainly encouraged to come and be present in intercessory prayer for the work of the Holy Spirit to cover the movement of the entire evening. Once again: Saturday evening, July 22, St. Mary Church, Hamilton, immediately after the 5:30 p.m. Mass. (This is a legitimate feature of the prayer and worship life of the Catholic Church.)

Birthright of Keokuk Fundraiser – Birthright volunteers will be selling vouchers from STAN'S BAKERY following weekend Masses through 7/23/23. The vouchers are redeemable until 12/31/23 for Stan's famous Crème Horns, Crescent Rolls, Glazed Twists, and Glazed Donuts. You select when you would like to pick up your order...perfect for a special occasion or holiday gathering! Birthright's mission is to offer non-judgmental, compassionate support that encourages women to continue their pregnancies. Birthright believes that it is the right of every woman to give birth to her child in dignity and that every child has the right to be born. Please consider supporting this non-profit and non-political emergency pregnancy service.
