July 23, 2023 Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

In our world, good and evil coexist, often in a scandalous way with one another. It leads us to question the motives of others, trying to discern the good and limit exposure to being betrayed by ulterior motives. Are funds collected for charity going to the end for which they were given? Is the good deed done for the poor taking care of their needs or is it being redirected to the purchase of cigarettes or booze or drugs?

When we do our civic duty and pay our taxes, what wasteful projects are leaders implementing to line their own pockets or take care of their own special interests? Perhaps one of the most difficult things to reconcile is how evil and good coexist even in the life of the Church of God. From the beginning, even the apostles would betray Christ unto his death, but Jesus never turned his back on their need for mercy, always provided the grace to be restored... while simultaneously assuring them that there would be a final judgement for which they would be held accountable. Our gospel ultimately speaks to our hearts about 'accountability'. We rightly expect our neighbor to be accountable for us for the goods that are owed in justice... that our politicians govern for the common good, that our priests and ministers act in a manner consistent with the call of the Gospel, that those we encounter in our daily lives do not take advantage of our good will or our vulnerabilities.

Jesus tells another parable about the fields and the harvest. When the farmer finds weeds growing in amongst the grain, a metaphor for the mix of good and evil in the world, what should he do? Should we not root out the weeds that we might have a holier society, a purer church, a safer place for the needy and vulnerable? Shouldn't we root out the weeds even though we might sacrifice some of the growing good grain?

Jesus would seem to answer 'no'. Of course God calls all to holiness, but in his mercy, the good and the evil grow together today under the patient eye of the harvest-master. There will come a day for separation, where the grain will be gathered and the weeds cast into the fire, but God's grace falls on the good and the evil alike. The time to separate them will take place when every opportunity for mercy has been exhausted at the end of time.

So how are we to react to evil in our midst? Be confident that the good work will not be slowed or thwarted by those who do evil, for the harvest-master has the final say. In the meantime, we take care of our own stalk of grain, protecting it from the corruption of evil— fighting evil in our midst at every turn that our own harvest may not be compromised. Is it fair? Not always as it seems in the worldly order of justice, but God will have his way, and the rains and snow will not come and go without achieving the purpose for which they have been sent! (cf Is. 55:10)

On the weekend of August 5-6, we will be celebrating the Anointing of the Sick at each of our Masses. On this weekend, we welcome those who wish to avail themselves to the sacrament of God's healing and mercy, made visible through the laying on of hands and anointing with holy oil. If you have family or friends who are typically unable to attend Mass, I ask that you make a special effort to help them to be able to attend for this blessing. Those to be anointed are asked to sit in the front rows, that they may come forward at the appointed time. We do this each year to invite the entire parish community into prayer, asking God's grace and mercy upon all who suffer from the infirmity of illness or age.

St. Dominic School Families Share Testimonials

“ Our youngest three daughters began attending St. Dominic School after Covid in the 2020-2021 school year. It has been a pandemic blessing! We are thankful for the small class sizes and the sweetness of a neighborhood school. Although we are not of Catholic faith, we wanted our girls to be able learn and talk about Jesus and attend a school that would uphold Biblical truths. We have felt welcomed and loved by the staff and students. ”

-Amy Beck
St. Dominic Parent

St. Dominic is a dedicated Catholic school community promoting spiritual growth and academic excellence, while challenging students to use their talents to lead and serve.

“ My family chose St. Dominic School because we wanted our children to have a Christian based education. We were nervous as we are not Catholic and belong to a Protestant church, but in true St. Dominic form we were welcomed with open arms. My husband and I could not be more pleased with the education and faith formation our children are receiving. ”

GriefShare Begins

August 10, 6:00 p.m.

GriefShare Starts the Next Series of Sessions: St. Anthony's GriefShare begins a new round of sessions August 10, at 6:00 p.m. in the Fr. Irenaeus Kimminau Parish Center. GriefShare is a Biblically based program that helps persons who have had a loved one pass away. GriefShare is a friendly, caring group of people who will walk alongside of you through one of life's most difficult experiences. You don't have to go through the grieving process alone. We will be offering the additional session "Surviving the Holidays" at the end of the sessions. Each meeting includes a video presentation with experts and folks who have had their own losses and share their experiences. There are small group discussion where you can share or just listen and a workbook that guides you and helps you track your progress. Non-parish members are also welcome. There is no cost as GriefShare is provided at St. Anthony's by parishioners through their We Care donations. To register or for questions call the parish office, Jim Liesen at (217) 577-6664 or Deacon Harry or Cindy Cramer at (217) 224-1160. Thank you.

Ministry Needs for our Parish

God has gifted us with time and talents. How we spend our time and talents can be an expression of our love and gratitude to our Heavenly Father. We show our gratitude to God by sharing our time and talents for his glory. Please pray about serving God through your parish in one of the following ministries:

Sacristans or Lead Ministers: Sacristans ready the sacristy as well as the materials and items needed for Sunday and daily Masses. After Mass, they help clean the sacred vessels and assist with securing the church building.

Lectors: Readers proclaim the readings of Sacred Scripture at Mass. Being present, punctual and prepared is important in this ministry. All lectors go through a training session before lecturing.

Altar Servers: Altar servers assist at the altar during the celebration of the Eucharist at Mass. Being present and punctual when assigned is important. Training is provided for all Altar Servers. Parents are welcome to serve with their children.

Money Counters: Those counting the weekend collection do so on Monday mornings with a team of 2 or 3 other persons.

Contact the parish office for more information 217-222-5996

Children's Liturgy: An adult leader guides the children (ages 3-7) as they hear and discuss the gospel message and guides them as they work on an activity sheet. Children's Liturgy is during the 8 and 10:30 a.m. Sunday Masses. Contact Carrie Potter 217-257-5278 for more information.

Rosary Ministry: The Rosary is said publicly before all Masses and we are in need of people to be leaders. Contact Rich & Alice Rakers if interested 217-222-4798.
