JULY 23, 2023

Wisdom 12:13,16-19; Romans 8:26-27;
Matthew 13:24-43

At times, we are tempted to want God to destroy our enemies. Like the apostles, we want to call down fire from heaven to consume the evil doers. But that is not God's way!

No other religion in the world preaches compassion and mercy and forgiveness for the evil doer as does genuine Christianity. Among others, justice and retribution are swift and decisive.

Our God is not like that. He shows his power most perfectly in his mercy! He forgives the unforgivable in order to draw all people to himself. Our first reading, from Wisdom, describes this lovingkindness.

The Gospel is the parable of the wheat and the weeds. The word for "weeds" in the original language is for a specific weed, called darnel. Darnel looked very much like wheat in its early growth; it even headed out like wheat, but it was poison.

If we wanted to make an allegory out of the parable, we could say that often a religious spirit can be "faked." Evil often masquerades as good, so we must be cautious.

But a deeper message is that God permits evil to exist with a hope for the conversion of the evil doer. The existence of evil in the world should challenge the Christian to a stronger faith – and to greater mercy in order to be like God.

The second reading should give us confidence: The Holy Spirit is within us. Through him, we are empowered to withstand evil and to be strong in the face of weakness.

Dear Parishioners,

While Fr. Leo is away to enjoy some well-deserved R&R, he has asked that I share a few words with you in this weekend's bulletin column. So here goes!

Over the course of this next year, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops have encouraged us to engage in a year of Eucharistic Revival. Research polls tell us that not only are Catholics by and large not attending Mass regularly, they also do not believe in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. Sacred Scripture, the Catechism, the teachings of the Church, and the words of Jesus Himself make things quite clear. He left us His Body and Blood so that we might be able to experience His love and that we might be His hands and feet in our families, our neighborhoods, and our world.

In this year of Eucharistic Revival, I encourage each of us to grow closer to our Lord, especially as He is present in the Blessed Sacrament. First and foremost, I encourage each of us to redouble our efforts to be present at Mass each and every Sunday. Whether you are spending the weekend at home with your family or traveling to the four winds, Weekend Mass attendance must be our top priority. It is an obligation and it is a Commandment, but it is so much more than that. Viewing Mass attendance as solely an obligation or as a commandment doesn't really capture the fullness of what it is. It is time for us to come together as the Body of Christ, to worship Christ in our midst as a community of faith, and to, as Jesus says, "Do this in memory of me" as we receive His Body and Blood—as we receive His love. We gather to give thanks for our joys, to offer up our pains, and to grow deeper into His love.

Here at St. Peter, we have many opportunities to grow closer to Jesus and deepen our understanding and appreciation of the Eucharist. This coming Tuesday night from 6:30-7:30 p.m., Deacon Jayke will offer his final talk on the Eucharist. This will be done in the context of Adoration. Speaking of Adoration, our Adoration Chapel is looking to fill a few more spots. See the bulletin for the remaining openings, and call Mary Voorhis at 217-653-3127 or call/text Gina Wolf at 217-257-9966 to get signed up. Please also consider joining us at the BOS Center in Springfield on Saturday, October 28 for our Diocesan Eucharistic Congress. This event will feature speakers on the Eucharist, including Fr. Denis Robinson, OSB, who gave our Advent Parish Mission earlier this year. If you are interested in joining us, please contact the Parish Office by July 28.

Last weekend, our Parish welcomed Fr. Charles Niwagaba, a Priest of the Archdiocese of Mbarara, Uganda, as part of our annual Mission Co-Op Appeal. Fr. Charles shared with us that his Archdiocese is in need of additional space to house their many Seminarians...what a great problem to have...if only this were our problem as well! Certainly something to pray for! One of Fr. Charles's brother Priests serves as a Pastor here in our Diocese of Springfield in Illinois. On a personal note, I found Fr. Charles to be a caring and compassionate Priest. If you haven't yet, please do consider contributing to the needs of his Archdiocese.

Week of July 23, 2023

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

ST. PETER SCHOOL WELCOMES
MRS. DAWN VANCAMP and MRS. MICHELLE MEYER
for the 2023-2024 SCHOOL YEAR

Mrs. Dawn VanCamp is our new 7/8 Science teacher for the coming school year. In addition to teaching Science, she will also teach reading and religion to her seventh grade homeroom. Mrs. VanCamp is excited to rejoin the St. Peter teaching staff. She began her teaching career here at St. Peter School as a Junior High language arts teacher in 1991. Between then and now, she has had experiences in the Liberty and Payson school districts as an elementary teacher, RTI coordinator, curriculum coordinator, HS coach and HS Principal. She and her husband Jeff have three grown (and married) children who all attended St. Peter School. They have been blessed with a multitude of grandchildren. Mrs. VanCamp feels that returning to St. Peter feels like coming home, and she is thrilled to be a part of this educational family again.

We are certainly blessed to have her as part of our St. Peter School staff again! It is going to be a great year!

We are also very excited to have Mrs. Michelle Meyer join us for the coming school year as a para educator in our four year old preschool classroom.

Michelle's husband, Ted, is from Quincy, and they moved back to Quincy 24 years ago to start a family and work. They will be married 25 years this fall and have 4 children. Two are college-age, Madeline and Tate, Ty is a sophomore at QND, and Elle is in 5th grade at St. Francis School. The Meyer family is very much an outdoor family and they hike, kayak, and fish as often as they can. They have a dog, two cats, two horses, and chickens. Mrs. Meyer is very involved with the Scouting program and she is a leader for Ty and Elle with their troops here in Quincy as well as helping with events in the area. She worked at First Bankers Trust for several years before working for the Mississippi Valley Council, BSA office. Michelle is very excited to join the St. Peter School community and work in the classroom with the preschool students. Children are a wonderful gift from God and their enthusiasm at this age and curiosity to learn is inspiring. She cannot wait to meet everyone in August.

SUMMER OFFICE HOURS
Wednesdays from 9:00-3:00 p.m.

GREAT NEWS
Maddie Ippensen and Abbey Rhodes will be co-directors for our afternoon daycare this coming school year!

In thanksgiving for His many gifts,

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE:

A Jesuit, a Dominican, and a Franciscan were walking along an old road, debating the greatness of their orders. Suddenly, an apparition of the Holy Family appeared in front of them, with Jesus in a manger and Mary and Joseph praying over Him. The Franciscan fell on his face, overcome with awe at the sight of God born in such poverty. The Dominican fell to his knees, adoring the beautiful reflection of the Trinity and the Holy Family. The Jesuit walked up to Joseph, put his arm around his shoulder, and said, "So, have you thought about where to send Him to school?"

Fr. Zach's Pilgrimage to World Youth Day

Dear St. Peter's Parishioners,

Greetings to you! I hope this finds each of you well. On July 31, I will be leaving for Portugal to help lead a Pilgrimage to World Youth Day. I will be traveling with Fr. Arisman and a group of Pilgrims from the Quincy/Springfield areas. While at World Youth Day, we will have the opportunity to attend Masses with Pope Francis, meet with young adult Catholics from around the world, take part in Portugals rich history of Catholicism, visit Fatima, and much more. I am very much looking forward to this opportunity. Please pray for our group of Pilgrims that we might come to a deeper encounter with our Risen Lord, stay safe, and also have a good time.

If you have any prayer intentions that you would like for me to pray for while on this Pilgrimage, please write them down and drop them off at the Parish office or give them to me after Mass. I prefer them in writing and on paper so that I don't forget to bring them with me. May God continue to richly bless you and your families!

Peace, Fr. Zach Samples
