Monday-Friday

8:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.

Bulletin Deadline: Monday, Noon

Next week we host the St. Anthony Picnic! Setup will take place on Wednesday at 5:00 p.m. The celebration will be on Saturday evening, starting with Mass at 4:00 p.m. and ending at midnight. If you have not been contacted to volunteer with one or more of our booths or offerings, we are still needing help! Please contact the parish office (217) 222-5996 and we will connect you!

As usual, there will be no 6:30 p.m. Mass on Saturday night during the picnic. We will have a Sunday 6:30 p.m. Mass. All are welcome, but especially we wish to welcome those who are working so hard on Saturday night and Sunday morning!

Special thanks go out to the team who poured the concrete pad in front of the playground behind the parish hall. The playground has been a cooperative project of the St. Dominic PTO and the Men's and Ladies' societies. Particular thanks go out to RJ Boone, Junior Dreyer, George Dreyer, Mike Wellman, Daniel Boone and Austin Huber for completing the concrete work back in June, and Reicherts Trucking for donating the gravel.

sacrifice, which had fallen silent for more than a generation.

But the people knew from scripture that when that project was completed and all was back to normal, their greatest dream would be fulfilled: the arrival of the Messiah, bringing all nations into peace through his dominion. Indeed, the Jewish people today also hold the same aspiration that one day they will be able, against all odds, to rebuild the Temple in Jerusalem and resume the ritual sacrifices in anticipation of the coming of Messiah. In our Christian era, we Christians identify this prophecy with the Second Coming of our Lord. Given the tensions of that region and the occupancy of the Temple Mount this day, we know that such an operation would inflame military rivalries in such a way as perhaps to anticipate a great age-ending conflagration of war.

But in reference to this week's readings, from Zechariah we turn to the Gospel where Jesus takes to himself the identity of the one who was prophesized to enter the temple to announce the Kingdom. But Jesus announces that he prizes meekness and humility, signaling not a war to end all wars, but a plan to usher in a new age. The wise and the learned will be set aside. The powerful upon war-horses and wielding weapons of battle will stand down. The Lord comes to offer enduring rest and we will learn to take up his gentle yoke, rather than grow strong through conquest, self-sufficiency, and control.

Our age honors those who struggle and fight to get ahead. We honor the strong who persevere in the light of life-threatening illness. We spend beyond our means to provide for college, a comfortable home, vehicles, and retirement investments. We speed down the roads to get to our destination before others, we speak up to gain attention in the midst of the crowds. Our Lord has another plan. Be at peace and rest in him. The world will take care of itself. This is not to say that we should not work and strive and use the graces that are sent to us, but I think the distinction is that ultimately, we need to be able to take greater comfort when asked to rest in the fact that "God is in control!"

GriefShare Starts the Next Series of Sessions: St. Anthony's GriefShare begins a new round of sessions August 10, at 6:00 p.m. in the Fr. Irenaeus Kimminau Parish Center. GriefShare is a Biblically based program that helps persons who have had a loved one pass away. Each meeting includes a video presentation with experts and folks who have had their own losses and share their experiences. There are small group discussion where you can share or just listen and a workbook that guides you and helps you track your progress. Non-parish members are also welcome. There is no cost as GriefShare is provided at St. Anthony's by parishioners through their We Care donations.
