Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

AUGUST 20, 2023

Isaiah 56:1,6-7; Romans 11:13-15,29-32;
Matthew 15:21-28

The readings of today's Mass should stir us to concern for the salvation of our neighborhood, our community, and our world. God chose a people through whom he would reveal himself to the world. The Hebrew people are his first choice. He gave them his Holy Torah or Law; he sent them prophets; he called them to be a priestly nation, a royal people. Unfortunately, they often became smug and self-satisfied; they thought that the rest of the world was damned, and that they were the only righteous people in the world.

The last part of the book of Isaiah (chapters 56-66) give a different outlook. God reminds the Hebrews that he calls all people to salvation. He intends all peoples to come and worship him, the one true God. Today's first reading is taken from this section.

In the second reading (from Romans) Paul laments the fact that his people, the Jews, have not recognized Jesus as Messiah. But he says that this is for a purpose: in order that God may show mercy to the Gentiles (the pagans, the non-Jews, that is to us!)

The Gospel tells the story of a pagan woman who asks Jesus to cure her daughter. Jesus ignores her. He says that his mission is only to save Israel. He tells her that it is not right to take children's food and give it to dogs. (Jews called Gentiles "dogs.") She matches wits with Jesus and says, "Yes, but even the dogs get the scraps which the children sneak to them under the table."

Jesus has not really been as brutal as our translation makes it seem. The Greek word used for "dog" here really means something like "puppy" or "house pets." It is an affectionate term. In doing this, the woman is given an opportunity for faith; and she expresses it!

Putting all the readings together, we see that we must have a concern for our neighbor's salvation. We would surely take food to our neighbor if he is hungry. We must provide the bread of truth for our neighbor who is starving for the Lord. The Responsorial Psalm sums up the message: "O God, let all the nations praise you!" But the nations cannot praise God unless you and I reach out to bring them to faith!

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 20, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

This past week the realization hit me that summer is over. With the start of the school year this past week this only furthered this realization. The things I wanted to accomplish in this slower time of the year, I didn't. I guess I can put it on hold until next summer—yeah, if that will happen.

The end of July, we received the planning study executive summary prepared by Steier group based upon personal interviews and mail, online, and in-pew summaries. We had a 32% participation rate of parishioners, which this fund-raising group was pleased with. Some of their comments that I would like to share with you are the following: They are a summary of this report. "St. Peter is a vibrant parish and school filled with engaging parishioners who deeply care for one another and take their faith seriously. Church and school leadership is fabulous. It is true that parishioners are requesting more details regarding proposed projects. But there is a general consensus that the projects should be addressed somehow. Catholic education is the 'best ministry' that church offers. Limited information about the Quincy Catholic Elementary School system's plans for school consolidation is causing some parishioners to question the timing of the campaign and whether all the proposed projects, namely, the gym, should be included in the campaign. Project estimates seem to be higher than some parishioners expected, and there is some concern that the sheer expense of these projects will dampen enthusiasm for a campaign." After this summary, which is nothing that I had not thought in my own head, the Steier group concluded:

88% of respondents personally favor a capital campaign, including 93% of those interviewed. 90% of respondents will make a personal gift to the campaign, including 93% of those interviewed. 72 respondents indicated that they would serve in a leadership position for any campaign.

The Steier Group projects that St. Peter Church will raise $5.5 million to $6.5 million over a three year campaign. Based upon the positive results of this planning study, the Steier Group recommends that St. Peter Catholic Church and School immediately moves forward into the preparation phase of the 39 week campaign. From this feasibility study it looks like we are able to build a new school cafeteria but the other projects are beyond our means. It took me several years when I first got here to get us out of debt and I will not put us in debt again. We are a stewardship parish and I can't thank you enough for being good stewards. But as pastor, I also have to be a good steward and I don't think debt is a good idea. But my desire is to have that new parish center, and our basement of the Church is very appealing space for that to happen. That means the new cafeteria needs to be our dominate focus. Classrooms above it, although expensive, are also needs that we have now and in the future. The reason for building on top of the cafeteria is to save some green space for students and parish. This is my dilemma. I need to make a decision soon. I've been turning to God in prayer but I just don't know what to do at this point. I ask for your prayers because this campaign and this construction will belong to us for the next three years. Please pray for me. The other tiered projects in priority 2 will be only dreams.

The School of St. Peter

Week of August 20, 2023

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

WELCOME TO THE FAMILY

We welcome Paige Houston as the new para educator that will be working with Mrs. Gallaher and the students in room Kindergarten South!

We are so excited that she is joining our school family. Outside of work, her favorite things to do include spending time with her almost 3-year-old son, reading, and doing anything art related.

She comes to us with experience after working at the Blessing Early Learning Center and teaching in a 3 year-old classroom. She feels that children are her passion and she is excited to get to know everyone and to be able to help children learn and grow!

WELCOME BACK TO SCHOOL CELEBRATION

On August 13 we celebrated the start of the school year by inviting families to meet the teacher, drop off school supplies, celebrate the Eucharist and enjoy refreshments and special activities. The activities that took place for the evening were inspired by Becky Bliefnick based on plans she had previously made for a Mother/Son Night that was to take place in the Spring of 2023. We are so appreciative to a generous and supportive community that supported the Back to School Bash. We wish to thank Niemann Foods, DOT Foods, Made New Creative Designs, Pumped Up Balloons, Infiniti, and numerous volunteers. I especially want to thank Megan Lovelace and her team of amazing people for all of their planning for this event. They did an amazing job and I am so proud of their time and efforts.

Eucharistic Congress October 28 - BOS Center In Springfield

You are invited to a historical diocesan-wide celebration at the BOS Center in Springfield - To celebrate the Diocesan Year of the Eucharist and the 100th anniversary of the transfer of the See city from Alton to Springfield, the Eucharistic Congress is taking place Saturday, October 28 at the BOS Center in Springfield. This dynamic experience will include nationally recognized Catholic speakers, adoration, confession, and Mass. The arena will be packed with thousands of Catholics from across the diocese. Our deadline has changed and we still have tickets left. To attend, contact our parish office by September 13, at church@cospq.org or 217-222-3155, as we are given a specific number of available seats. For more information, volunteering or financially supporting/sponsoring the event, visit dio.org.

I want to remind you once again that our annual parish picnic will be next Saturday, August 26 beginning at 5:00 p.m. and going until Midnight. There will be a lot of great food, if I do say so myself, including brats, along with a variety of other foods and drinks. We will also have games for all ages, rides for little ones, a variety of raffles, and a silent auction. There will be music provided, Brushville, from 8:00-11:30 p.m. Please come and join us for the evening. We are still looking for workers. We do need our parishioners to sign up to assist. Consult the bulletin on how to do that. Finally, many of the leaders on the picnic committee have been serving on that capacity for several years. We are looking for new faces to learn this year so that next year they could be a part of the leadership team. We don't want anyone getting burnt out but in order for us not to do that, we need others to step forward and assist this year. Please consider this request. Also for those unable to attend the picnic, I ask for your prayers for a safe and enjoyable picnic for everyone. And for those working, put a smile on your face.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A man pulls up to a Mexican restaurant as it looked like a good place to eat. Only one problem—it wasn't open. So the man jotted down the name on the door for another day. Just then, a man came out of the restaurant and took a peek at what the man had written and with a smile on his face he said, "That's not the name of the restaurant" pointing to the sign over the door. "That's Spanish for 'Closed on Mondays'."

To All Catholic Women

Please find the flyer and signup sheet in your church lobby for the Quincy Deanery CCW summer gathering on August 30. We encourage all women to join us as we further the work of Christ on earth. We learn, pray, gather new info and ideas to take to our parishes and families, and have fun-making new connections in the faith. Grab a friend and come - all ages welcome! This is Holy Family's first hosting and we want to have a great turnout for their efforts. The signup sheet is to give us an idea for food amounts, but if you find you can come at the last minute, please do so - we look forward to having you with us! This is the month of the Immaculate Heart and we have some great ideas to pass along for family spirituality and for kids! We will also have information on the upcoming Convention in Springfield. Our Lady is the Spiritual Director of this group and she always leads us in what she wants accomplished at each of our gatherings. We hope you will come and answer her calling! Blessing Hospital Communion Ministry

Lay Eucharistic Ministers are asked to consider expanding their ministry by providing Holy Eucharist to Catholic patients at Blessing Hospital. Eucharistic Ministers usually volunteer monthly for at least two shifts (about 2 hours each). They visit patients, pray with them, distribute communion and make priest referrals for those in need. Our requirements have recently changed and a Covid vaccination is no longer required for volunteers at Blessing Hospital. If you are interested in learning more, please call Prudence Bickhaus Martin at Blessing Volunteer Services, 223-8400, ext. 6825.
