Thursday Septemberfest Planning Mtg.-LL RCIA-GS	August 31, 2023 5:30 p.m. 6:30 p.m.

Today the Church celebrates the 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time. The 1st Reading is from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah. The focus of this reading is on the Royal Steward whose name is Shebna. He is the #2 in authority just under the king. His sign of authority is the "key of the House of David" which is worn on the shoulder. Because Shebna has been abusing his authority, the Lord says to him, "I will thrust you from your office." Instead, the Lord has chosen a more righteous steward, Eliakim.

"I will clothe him with your robe...
And give over to him your authority.
I will place the key of the House of David on Eliakim's shoulder;
when he opens, no one shall shut,
when he shuts, no one shall open.

Thus, in the Davidic kingdom, the role of the Royal Steward was extremely important, second only to the King. And the Steward's authority was symbolized by the "Key."

In the Gospel, Jesus asks His disciples "Who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter, through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, answers correctly, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." In response, Jesus proclaims Peter to be the "rock" upon which He will build His Church. And then we see Isaiah's symbol of the "Keys." Jesus says, "I will give you (Peter) the keys to the kingdom of heaven." This is not simply a symbol of Peter's role welcoming us into the Pearly Gates. Rather, Jesus is equating Peter with the Royal Steward of the Davidic Kingdom. Peter is now the #2, whose keys represent the authority given him by the King, who is Christ himself. Peter is the Royal Steward shepherding the Church here on earth until the return of Christ the King.

The Church believes this to be a pivotal Scriptural passage underlying our belief in the Pope, as Peter's successor, to be the supreme shepherd of the universal Catholic Church. We pray that the Holy Spirit may inspire each of us to proclaim boldly our own faith in Jesus Christ, after the example of Saint Peter. And we pray for each of the successors of Saint Peter, today our own Pope Francis, that he may continue to shepherd our Church with grace, fidelity, and perseverance.

Finally, please mark your calendars for our upcoming Septemberfest which is scheduled for Saturday, September 9. Please consider volunteer opportunities to help with this year's Septemberfest. Sign-up forms are available online or in the Gathering Space for you to sign up.

May the Peace of Christ be with you all,
Fr. Tom

GIFT Information Meeting– September 14 @ 630 p.m. Gathering Space
First GIFT meeting October 9 @ 6 p.m. Blessed Sacrament School

'The parish, in considering its catechetical programs, should give particular attention to its families. ...the family itself is the first and most appropriate place for teaching the truths of the faith, the practice of Christian virtues and the essential values of human life.'
- Pope St. John Paul II

August 27, 2023
21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

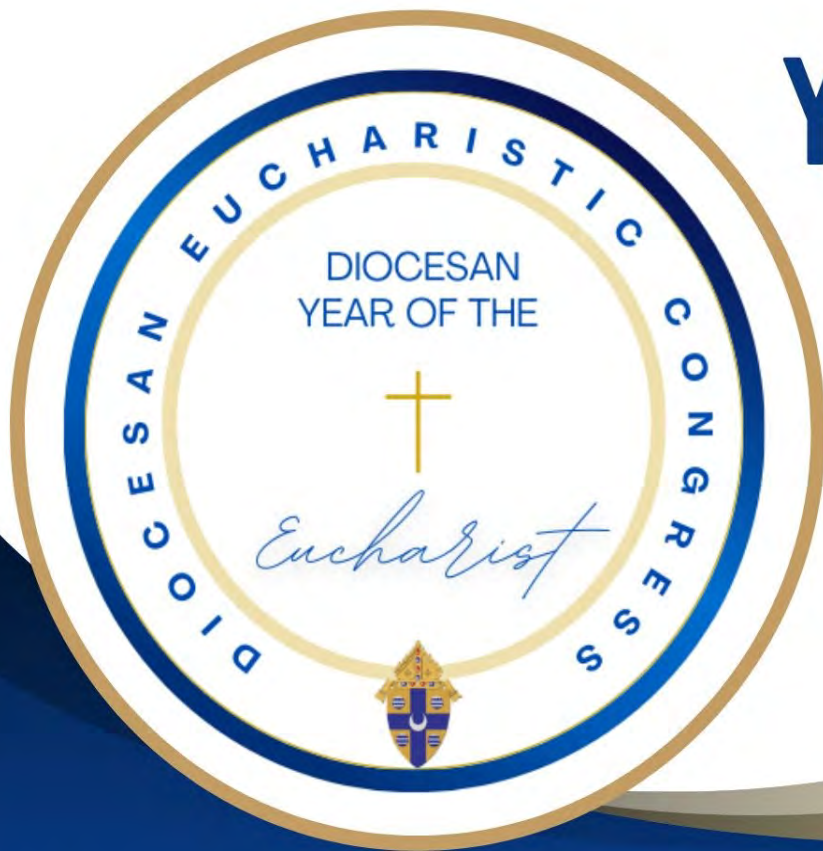

"Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid?" – Romans 11:35

St. Paul reminds us of a central fact of stewardship. We cannot give God anything – He already owns it all. God made everything, including us. Since we are made in His image, we too, are called to be generous. How we use our God-given gifts becomes our gift back to Him. Gratitude for all we have been given opens our hearts to joyful generosity! And, through our generosity, we just may be the answer to someone else's prayer.

YOU WON'T WANT TO MISS THIS EXTRAORDINARY EVENT!

August is National Immunization Awareness Month

August is National Immunization Awareness Month (NIAM). NIAM raises the awareness about why vaccines are important for people of all ages and how they can help prevent serious, sometimes deadly, diseases and illnesses. NIAM is now more important than ever with the emergence of diseases such as COVID-19.

Immunizations play an important role in keeping your family and your community healthy. Vaccinations are important because they not only protect the person who is receiving the vaccine, but they also help to keep diseases from spreading to others such as your family, neighbors, classmates, coworkers, and other members of the community. Immunization helps protect those who are the most vulnerable to illness, such as infants, elders, and those with weakened immune systems.

Vaccines are among the most successful and cost-effective public health tools available for preventing disease and death. In the United States, vaccines have greatly reduced infectious diseases that once routinely caused severe illness and death. According to the CDC, prior to the COVID-19 pandemic approximately 50,000 adults died every year from vaccine-preventable illnesses. During NIAM, we encourage you to talk to your doctor, nurse, or healthcare professional to ensure that you and your family are protected against serious diseases by getting caught up on routine vaccinations.

Although no vaccine is 100% effective, it is the first step in protecting yourself, your family, and others from serious illness.

Our requirements have recently changed and a Covid vaccination is no longer required for volunteers at Blessing Hospital.

If you are interested in learning more, please contact your pastor or call Prudence Bickhaus Martin at Blessing Volunteer Services, 223-8400, ext. 6825.
