Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

AUGUST 27, 2023

Isaiah 22:19-23; Romans 11:33-36;

Matthew 16:13-20

Catholics believe that the lawfully elected Bishop of Rome is the successor of Peter and visible head of the Church. If we have the same Church which Jesus established, we must have the office of Peter. What is this office?

It is described in today's Gospel. After Simon Bar-Jona professes that Jesus is Messiah, Jesus tells him that he did not come to this on his own ability, but that God had revealed it to him.

Jesus then changes his name from Simon to Peter (which means "Rock.") He gives him the keys of the kingdom of heaven. "Kingdom of heaven" is the Church. He tells him that whatever he binds on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever he looses will be loosed.

"Binding and loosing" was a rabbinical expression for the authority to impose or to release from legal obligations. The meaning of the "keys" is found in the first reading: The "master of the palace" had complete authority over the king's household, second only to the king. He wore a key on a sash over his shoulder as a sign of his authority. To have the "keys of the kingdom of heaven," therefore, means to have authority second to that of Jesus Christ.

Peter is always first in the Gospel lists of apostles. Peter is the spokesman of the Church in Acts of Apostles. The Church acknowledged him as leader. It is historically certain that Peter went to Rome and was martyred there in the arena of Nero on Vatican Hill. His grave is under the high altar of St. Peter's Basilica.

The Church has always recognized, then, that the successor of Peter is the lawful bishop of Rome. The Pope does not tell us everything to do or not to do. But he is the center of Church unity. We cannot have the Church of Jesus Christ without him.

21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This weekend's readings are the beautiful theology behind the steward of the kingdom, the vicar of Christ, the Holy Father...the Pope!

We hear about the steward of the kingdom and his role in the Kingdom of the House of David. Eliakim is the steward who is given the keys and the ability to open or shut the kingdom. In the Gospel we hear about the same role, and the giving of the keys to Simon with the new name Peter. He is the keeper of the keys and is given this role of steward of the kingdom in the kingdom of God.

Jesus is the king and is giving Peter the role of steward of the House of David, like Eliakim was in the kingdom of old. This position is one of authority and standing in place of the king and ruling in line with the king. May we pray for the Holy Father always to be a faithful and prudent steward of the House of David.

Being a good steward means using the gifts, talents, and authority we are given well, and in the mind of the king. May we be good stewards of what God has given us and always seek to use His gifts well for the sake of the kingdom.

As we start another school year...

Thank you to Mrs. Radel and all of our school staff for their wonderful job in making sure we are ready for a new school year and continue to be good stewards of the gifts we have been given in the school of St. Francis Solanus parish and especially with the gifts of each and every one of the students! What an exciting year ahead!

The 3rd annual Allison Holbrook Memorial Car Show last Sunday was a huge success! We had 15 cars and trucks and one motorcycle displayed.

Thank you to all of the parishioners who displayed their vehicles, and thank you to everyone who donated to the memorial scholarship.

Also thanks to Deacon Dennis and Pat Holbrook for their continued support, and to Father Arisman for blessing the vehicles.

Please encourage other parishioners to enter and attend next year!

St. Francis Solanus School

INSPIRING FAITH, KNOWLEDGE & SERVICE

Annual Statement of Non-Discrimination

In accordance with the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois St. Francis Solanus School admits students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. It does not discriminate based on race, color, national and ethnic origin in the administration of its educational policies, admission policies, scholarships and loan programs, and athletic and school administered programs.

Appropriateness of educational programs, students in good standing, and/or the availability of space may be legitimate factors affecting admissions. A student's enrollment status may be changed or discontinued at any time during the year, as determined by the Principal and the Pastor. It is a privilege, not a right, to attend St. Francis Solanus School. Transfer students must be in good standing as indicated on our records transfer form to continue enrollment.

Furthermore, we do not discriminate against immigrant children lacking in legal status.

PSR Returns Monday, September 11

Beginning at 6 p.m. with Holy Mass followed by our Meet-the-Teacher evening.

Registration packets are available at the entrances to church.

This is our 3-year-old preschool class on their first day. There is room for more students! Please call the school for more information.

This is our 4-year-old preschool class. Most of the students are there all day. This is the first time a Quincy Catholic school has offered a full-day, daily preschool, and we had more applicants than space!
