Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

AUGUST 27, 2023

Isaiah 22:19-23; Romans 11:33-36;
Matthew 16:13-20

Catholics believe that the lawfully elected Bishop of Rome is the successor of Peter and visible head of the Church. If we have the same Church which Jesus established, we must have the office of Peter. What is this office?

It is described in today's Gospel. After Simon Bar-Jona professes that Jesus is Messiah, Jesus tells him that he did not come to this on his own ability, but that God had revealed it to him.

Jesus then changes his name from Simon to Peter (which means "Rock.") He gives him the keys of the kingdom of heaven. "Kingdom of heaven" is the Church. He tells him that whatever he binds on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever he looses will be loosed.

"Binding and loosing" was a rabbinical expression for the authority to impose or to release from legal obligations. The meaning of the "keys" is found in the first reading: The "master of the palace" had complete authority over the king's household, second only to the king. He wore a key on a sash over his shoulder as a sign of his authority. To have the "keys of the kingdom of heaven," therefore, means to have authority second to that of Jesus Christ.

Peter is always first in the Gospel lists of apostles. Peter is the spokesman of the Church in Acts of Apostles. The Church acknowledged him as leader. It is historically certain that Peter went to Rome and was martyred there in the arena of Nero on Vatican Hill. His grave is under the high altar of St. Peter's Basilica.

The Church has always recognized, then, that the successor of Peter is the lawful bishop of Rome. The Pope does not tell us everything to do or not to do. But he is the center of Church unity. We cannot have the Church of Jesus Christ without him.

Dear Parishioners,

First, if you are present at the Saturday night Mass, I want to invite you over to the parish grounds to help us celebrate our annual parish picnic. I can guarantee a great time, as there is a variety of foods (brats are outstanding), drinks, and all differing kinds of games, music, and raffles. The only other thing I can guarantee, I hope, are smiles on faces and people having a good time together. We have been preparing for this day for a long time, and now that it has arrived, we hope to enjoy the evening with you.

In order for us to have our annual picnic, there are some couples and individuals to whom we owe a debt of gratitude. These are the chair-people and they include: Teresa and Brian Baker, Randy and Amanda Martin, Jeremy and Sarah Stegeman, and James Weisenberger. On behalf of our parish family, I want to thank them for their commitment to make our picnic the success that it is. Besides these chair-people, there are many others who chair events and/or stands, along with many volunteers setting up, and tearing down, as well as working throughout the day who make our picnic possible. To all of you we thank you. Now this is where we need your help. These people have chaired and coordinated this event for a number of years. And they would like to step down and allow others to come forward and continue this annual experience. I'm sure they would be willing to work with any individual who would volunteer to be the chair people for this picnic but would like to turn over the realms to new people. If interested, I ask you to give your names to these chair-people or myself so that we can begin some planning for next year's picnic. If we don't get the volunteers, I sometimes wonder whether our picnic has run its course. We cannot do it without chair-people so I'm hoping and praying that some will step forward and continue this enjoyable day for the parish and community.

We are also in the preparation period for the RCIA process. This process introduces interested persons to the Catholic faith, providing classes to help individuals discern the call of God in their lives. If you are interested, or you know of someone who is, please call the rectory (217-222-3155) and give us your name or their names. The classes are on Tuesday evenings, from 7:00-8:30 p.m. in the Martha Jane Room beneath the Church. It looks like classes will begin on Tuesday, September 12. Again, as people who are called to be evangelists, one of the best ways is to invite others in our family and/or in relationship with us, to attend these classes. There is no commitment made and one is able to stop attending at whatever time that they would like. No pressure—no arm twisting—just allowing God to speak in the depths of our hearts.

A reminder to our PSR families the opening Mass for our PSR program will be Wednesday, September 6, in the Church at 6:30 p.m. This program is offered to all of our students who are enrolled in the public school system. You are a part of our parish family and we are committed to continue to instruct you in the Catholic faith. But we also expect on your part that you will make sure that your young people are present at class each Wednesday as well as present as a family at our Sunday Mass. We never stop growing in our Catholic faith.

This year has been designated as the Year of the Eucharist. In an effort to highlight the Sacrament of the Eucharist, the Springfield diocese is sponsoring what is called a "Eucharistic Congress," on Saturday, October 28, in Springfield, Illinois. This event celebrates who we are as a people of the Eucharist. Thus there will be nationally known Catholic speakers, adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Sacrament of Reconciliation, and the Celebration of the Eucharist. This Congress will take place in what is called BOS Center in Springfield. Parishes throughout the diocese will have parishioners present and it will be a diocesan celebration. In order to highlight its importance, THERE WILL BE NO MASSES ON THAT SATURDAY IN ANY PARISH IN OUR DIOCESE. Each parish has been allotted tickets. If you would like to attend, please call us and reserve your tickets.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE:

Wife texts husband on a cold winter's morning: "Windows frozen, won't open."
 Husband texts back: "Gently pour some lukewarm water over it."
 Wife texts husband: "Computer really screwed up now."

A little girl had just finished her first week of school. "I'm wasting my time," she said to her mother. "I can't read, I can't write—and they won't let me talk!"
