Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: "Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee." Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem! -The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

14th Sunday after Pentecost

FROM THE RECTOR

We must always trust in the Lord. These words are simple in proclamation, but profound in execution. We understand on an intellectual level the call contained in Sacred Scripture this Sunday to place our trust in the Lord in all things. Our Savior enjoins us to put aside anxiety and worry over the cares and concerns of the world. Of course, this exhortation does not mean we are indifferent to a diligence in worldly matters. We need to feed, clothe, and house ourselves and those entrusted to us. However, we also must guard against allowing these pursuits to overshadow our confidence in the Lord especially when we struggle to meet our needs and to care for ourselves and others. When we are confronted with difficulty and encounter resistance to legitimate efforts to care for our needs our response should be to turn to the Lord and rely upon Him. Moreover, these struggles provide a wonderful opportunity to suffer with Christ so as to live His new life. This trust in the Lord is not an easy task to live and the world in which we live with its emphasis on material possessions makes it even harder. However, as we celebrate the triumph and the glory of the Lord's Cross, we accept joyfully the sacrifices of this world which bring us closer to our Lord in the next world.
