Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 3, 2023

Jeremiah 20:7-9; Romans 12:1-2;
Matthew 16:21-27

When the disciples first began to follow Jesus, they probably thought of him as a spell-binding teacher, a very holy man, and a wonder-worker. Last Sunday, we saw that (by divine revelation) Peter proclaimed Jesus as the Messiah.

The disciples thought that the Messiah would be God's instrument in bringing about a perfect world. He would vanquish all their enemies; he would establish perfect peace and justice; he would put an end to all disease and suffering; there would be no more death, and the dead would rise to share in his glorious kingdom of joy.

But Jesus said that he was going to suffer and die. The disciples simply could not understand how the Messiah (or Christ) could possibly suffer defeat. Peter argues with Jesus. Jesus calls him a "satan." "Satan" means "tempter." It certainly would be a temptation, even for Jesus, to be the kind of Messiah everyone wanted – a Christ without the cross!

The first reading parallels the Gospel. Jeremiah says that God "duped" him. To follow God, he thought, should be joy. To be the Lord's prophet should mean happiness. But Jeremiah suffered rejection by his own people.

Why do we follow Jesus Christ? Is it for "what we get out of it?" When things don't go our way, do we quit or cop out? When we suffer, do we think that God doesn't care or that religion is worthless?

The Lord calls us to share the cross before the crown. To follow Jesus means that we must deny our very selves. We are not masochists; we do not enjoy suffering. But we joyfully accept our share in the cross of Christ in order that we may "offer our bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God."

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time, September 3, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

Well, the month of August has come to an end as we usher in this new month of September. Even though school has been in session for almost two weeks, the reality of summer coming to an end now hits home especially for all of us who grew up in the time that school never started until after Labor Day. Whatever the cases, summer is over and the school year is off to another year of learning.

When I met with the co-chairs of our annual picnic, the one thing I remember the people saying to me is that I was in charge of the weather. After our experience at the picnic with two/three inches of rain in a short span of time, I might suggest that you never ask me to pray for good weather. In spite of the rain right after our Mass on Saturday evening, one impressive sight was the fact that our people still came to the picnic. We didn't have the crowds of previous years, but our workers showed up, food was being prepared, and people were being served. Then after a brief shower, other people arrived bringing our numbers up a little. Then we had a heavy downpour of rain which dampened our attendance, but people and parishioners still showed up to support our efforts. I was truly amazed at the support of our parishioners and community for our picnic. The weather affected our overall financial support, but for those who attended a great time was had by all. I want to thank all those who supported our efforts. I only hope and pray that this picnic continues but right now it's looking for new leaders to make this happen next year. If interested please see one of the past co-chairs and they would be happy to assist you.

Speaking of co-chairs, I want to personally thank the following for being the co-chairs for our picnic, 2023: Teresa and Brian Baker, Randy and Amanda Martin, Jeremy and Sarah Stegeman, and James Weisenberger. Anytime that you see them around, please extend a thank you to all of them for their hard work in making our picnic a success. And the reason I say it was a success is because our picnic reflects a parish working together, as we pray together, and having much "fun" in the process. This year our weather reminded us that we are not in charge and we need always to learn to adjust and adapt to the realities of life that are given to us. And we did and still had fun.

I remind you that this Monday is "Labor Day" and a national holiday. We are blessed with the gift of labor, to build up our world, to take pride in what we do, and to make a difference in our lives and the lives of others. Labor Day recognizes the honor and dignity of work and thanks God for the freedoms that we have to do that. Our Mass offering thanks to God will be at 8:00 a.m.

Our first RCIA class will be on Tuesday, September 12, from 7:00-8:30 in the Martha Jane Room off of the cafeteria (below the Church). If you are interested in knowing more about the Catholic faith, or if you know of someone who has shown this same interest, please contact the parish office with his/her name. Again there is no commitment to be made, nor is there any type of force exhibited, but we are interested in people who have questions, seek answers, and are open to God's grace working in their lives.

The School of St. Peter

Week of September 3, 2023

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

FIRST WEEKS OF SCHOOL

During the first weeks of the school year we were happy to welcome 483 preschool through eighth grade students as a part of our St. Peter School & Parish family. It was awesome to see all of your smiling faces again and we welcome all of our new students and their families to St. Peter School! We are all very blessed to be together again and we look forward to an exciting school year. Thank you for choosing Catholic education for your child(ren). Thank you to all of you who are so generous to support St. Peter Church and School.

CURRICULUM NIGHT

Our curriculum night included a special session led by Fr. Zach. This was a great opportunity to remind our families as to why we exist as a Catholic School and the importance of fulfilling the obligation to attend Mass every single weekend. Catholic schools exist to help parents fulfill the promise they made at their children's Baptism to raise their children according to the law of Christ and His Church.

Reporting Allegations of Child Sexual Abuse

To report allegations of sexual abuse of a minor by clergy or other church personnel -- even if it is in the past -- individuals are encouraged to call the Diocese's Child Abuse Reporting and Investigation number at (217) 321-1155. Individuals may also contact Illinois Department of Children and Family Services Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.25.ABUSE.

Eucharistic Congress October 28 - BOS Center In Springfield

You are invited to a historical diocesan-wide celebration at the BOS Center in Springfield -- To celebrate the Diocesan Year of the Eucharist and the 100th anniversary of the transfer of the See city from Alton to Springfield, the Eucharistic Congress is taking place Saturday, October 28 at the BOS Center in Springfield. This dynamic experience will include nationally recognized Catholic speakers, adoration, confession, and Mass. The arena will be packed with thousands of Catholics from across the diocese. Our deadline has changed and we still have tickets left. To attend, contact our parish office by September 13, at church@cospq.org or 217-222-3155, as we are given a specific number of available seats. For more information, volunteering, or financially supporting/sponsoring the event, visit dio.org.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

I want to remind our parents who send their young people to the public schools, that they still have the responsibility of being the teachers of their children in matters of faith and morals. To assist you in this responsibility, we have what is called PSR on Wednesday nights from 6:30-7:30 in St. Peter Grade School. Our opening Mass for this instruction will be this Wednesday, September 6, at 6:30 p.m. in the Church.

As we look ahead, I remind you that the Springfield diocese will be sponsoring what is called a "Eucharistic Congress" on Saturday, October 28. That particular Saturday we have been mandated to eliminate all Saturday evening Masses as we encourage parishioners to attend this day of the Eucharist. During this day, they will have nationally known speakers, as well as adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, and concluding with a Eucharistic celebration. We hope to fill the BOS center in Springfield with parishioners throughout the diocese. But tickets are needed. If interested, please call the parish office. Every parish is allotted a certain amount of tickets to be distributed.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE:

Advice from an old Farmer:

1. Words that soak into our ears are whispered, not yelled.
2. Do not corner something that you know is meaner than you.
3. It don't take a very big person to carry a grudge.
4. Every path has a few puddles.
5. When you wallow with pigs, expect to get dirty.
6. You can't unsay a cruel word.

Learn About Quincy Becoming a Safe Haven/Sanctuary for the Unborn

Many care about the sanctity of life, but don't know how to turn concern into action. There is an exciting new grassroots effort to end abortion on a local level. A city ordinance enforcing the federal Comstock Act will establish Quincy as a safe haven for the unborn. To learn more about how you can help go to the Right to Life website <https://rtlac.org/>, or stop by the Pro Life tables in the narthex or cafeteria after Masses on September 9-10. You can also scan the QR code.

Social Concerns Collection

Social Concerns is collecting peanut butter & jelly, canned chicken, tuna, mac & cheese, canned fruit this weekend, September 2-3 for the 1st Sunday collection for the Ladies of Charity. Containers will be located in the Narthex. Thank you!

Coffee & Donuts and Blood Pressures on Sunday 9/10

Please join us in next Sunday, on September 10, after all Masses in the cafeteria for Coffee & Donuts and blood pressure screenings. We will skip this Sunday because of Labor Day.

Parents Of New PSR Students and Returning Students

Our PSR classes will begin on Wednesday, September 6 at 6:30 p.m. with an opening Mass for the students, parents, families, and friends. ALL ARE WELCOME. Students will meet their teachers (so come a bit early as the teachers will be in the Narthex at 6:00 p.m.) The children will have a short visit in their classrooms after mass and I will have a short talk with the parents in church.

The first regular class will be September 13 from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. in the school.
