Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

FROM THE RECTOR

The exhortation of St. Paul to the Galatians reminds us of the need to walk with and live with the Spirit. While this is a simple statement, the requirement for those who hear it is a reliance upon the virtue of courage. The Holy Spirit holds and binds us together, safeguards the Church from enemies without and within, and enlivens our minds, hearts, and souls to be responsive to the Incarnate Word. What is required from us is trust and confidence in the Holy Spirit. We ask for inspiration and guidance and the Lord hears our prayers; however, the answer may often come in ways we least expect or fail to recognize at all. To become attune to the workings of God requires trust and confidence and these on a daily basis. What St. Paul recommends is the practice of humility, distrusting ourselves, and placing all our trust in the Lord. Be open to those realities that will humble you and rely not upon yourself but trust only in the Lord.
