Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

FROM THE RECTOR

Love and humility: perfect companions for excellence in the spiritual life. In the Epistle to the Ephesians, Paul exhorts them to utilize the virtue of humility in their walk of life. Whatever vocation you possess, live it fully through the virtue of humility which will assist you in living out the other virtues commensurate with your call. Moreover, the virtue of humility assists us in remaining one in Christ forging the bonds of authentic unity and harmony. A fair question to ask is how does humility do this? The answer is actually simpler than we think. The virtue of humility tempers our passions, and fosters in us a distrust of self, of our minds and intellects. As a consequence of this intellectual humility, we are more inclined to be receptive of the words of others, to realize that we do not know everything and to be deferential before the wisdom of the ages. What should always prompt swift humility is a deep and abiding love of the Triune God and the things of God. As the Gospel relates, love is the greatest commandment: we love God above all things and joyfully enter into relationship with Him because He is worthy of our love. In this way we learn to love our neighbors as God loves us which requires humility to follow the Lord and fosters true and lasting peace.
