A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

Dante offers consolation to souls condemned for envy, Hippolyte Flandrin (1809-1864)

Envy is one of those sins that we all know, but perhaps can't really explain well. Most will say that envy has to deal with wanting and desiring a good that belongs to another. "I want to drive a car like that." "I wish I had a job that paid that kind of salary." But envy is not limited to worldly goods— one can be envious of talents, of relationships, of wealth, of virtue... of any human quality of excellence. Ultimately envy is different than jealousy. Jealousy is the raw desire for the goods belonging to another. Envy takes it one step further. Envy takes sadness in the lack of that good and the holding of that good by another. This is truly demonic, as when one is envious, one chooses not to 'count their blessings' but to 'count someone else's blessings' and make a judgement against God's generosity and mercy.

In Dante's Inferno, those who were in hell due to the sin of envy were punished by having their eyes sewn shut with iron wire. It is through the eyes that we glance at the goods belonging to others. Cain looked upon Abel and his blessings with an 'evil eye'.

St. Gregory the Great says that from the "inward plague" of envy "comes hatred, gossip, detraction, gloating over our neighbor's hard luck and being sore at his success. "The contemporary term schadenfreude comes to us from German and was made famous in an interview of the author Joshua Halberstam on Oprah in the mid-90's following the release of his book, Everyday Ethics. "Schadenfreude" describes the secret joy one has in seeing someone else fail. Jesus was handed over for crucifixion out of envy from the chief priests and the elders. Louis of Grenada writes that the crime of Satan is not impurity or theft, but the envious desire to snare humanity in an imitation of his own rebellion against the goodness of God. Envy corrodes the heart, weakens understanding, destroys peace in the soul and condemns us to melancholy and an intolerable existence. Fr. John Hardon, SJ remarked that envy is the only vice that does not bring pleasure to the sinner.

When we envy, we doubt how much we are loved by God and how generous his blessings are. Like so many other sins, the only thing that can heal envy is love. Only with love can our hearts be turned into greater trust in God's will for our lives.

adventure of becoming Catholic!

It is time to identify candidates who would be interested in becoming Catholic by way of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. How do we get new Catholics to join the Church? We must personally welcome them and mentor them in the faith! Is this the year for your spouse? Your son/daughter-in-law? Your parent(s)? Your neighbor or colleague at work? We would like to get to know them and help them to get to know the Church. Please contact Fr. Tom at the parish office for more information and to get started on the

Each year in October, the diocese also initiates its annual "October Count" program. Every weekend in October, each parish is asked to count the attendance at all of its weekend Masses. The October Counts help the diocese recognize and respond to demographic trends, especially when making annual priest assignment decisions and in its long-term planning processes. We look forward to seeing you each and every weekend for Mass, of course... but it really "counts" during the month of October!

Fourth Grade Leaders Provide Baptism Lessons

Our St. Dominic fourth-grade leaders are teaching our school about one of the Sacraments of Initiation to our Catholic Church – Baptism. In these sacraments, we meet Christ in profound ways and are initiated to the Christian life. Baptism offers forgiveness of original sin and gives graces to begin a new life with Christ and the Church. It is the first sacrament we receive as Catholic Christians. As children of God, we care for others as God cares for us. Our fourth-grade service project is to celebrate the birth of children and invite them to be baptized. Fourth grade will be at Holy Moments Mass on Saturday, September 29.

YOU CAN HELP MAKE QUINCY A SAFE HAVEN FOR THE UNBORN

A new grassroots effort is underway to limit abortion at the local level. The federal "Comstock Act" prohibits mailing and receiving abortion-inducing drugs and paraphernalia. A proposed ordinance would call for the lawful enforcement of the Comstock Act in Quincy, thus making our city a safe haven for the unborn. Because of Quincy's location on the Missouri border, our community is vulnerable to possible efforts on part of the abortion industry to establish clinics or even deploy a mobile abortion van. Let's tell them "not in our town!"

Right to Life of Adams County's website has more information about this ordinance, contact information for your public officials, and a link to an online petition: <https://rtlac.org>

Petition signers do not have to be residents of Quincy to support a safe haven for unborn babies. Petitions will also be available at Church this week and next. Spread the word and thank you for your support!

 Thank you to everyone who advertises on our bulletin. Please support these businesses when you can.
