OCTOBER 22, 2023

Isaiah 45:1,4-6; 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b;
Matthew 22:15-21

The Pharisees and Herodians were mortal enemies. The Pharisees thought that Roman rule over the Jewish people was blasphemy; the Herodians supported Roman rule. Both groups unite to pose a dilemma to Jesus: Should a person pay taxes to Rome?

If Jesus answers “yes,” he alienates all observing Jews. If he answers “no,” he would be arrested by the Romans. He gets off the horns of the dilemma by using a coin, and telling people to give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, but to God what belongs to God.

But he doesn’t solve the problem. What belongs to the secular sphere? What belongs to God? Can religion impose on the natural order those principles which can only be known if one accepts faith?

Some things are obviously secular: for example, protection of rights and of the public order, roads and transportation. Some things are obviously religious. But many things are mixed, such as education, public morality, and the means of communication. The problem will probably never be solved, but reasonable people must always strive to cooperate while avoiding extreme positions.

The first reading is praise of a pagan secular ruler. Cyrus of Persia is even called “the Lord’s anointed.” The word used is “messiah!” The reading points out that Cyrus is great because of God, even though he doesn’t know God!

The second reading is the beginning of the very first book of the New Testament to be written. Paul wrote to the Thessalonians around 51 A.D. to solve problems about the “Second Coming.” Paul had preached that Jesus would return in glory very soon. When he didn’t, some of the Thessalonians were discouraged. Paul urges them to faith, hope, and constancy in spite of difficulties.

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 22, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

We have been asked by the bishops of the state of Illinois to bring this information to your attention and to ask your help in speaking to the state reps and asking them to support this “Invest in Kids scholarship program.” A number of our students have taken advantage of this scholarship program and are able to attend St. Peter School and Quincy Notre Dame because of it. I ask you to please read over this letter from all of our bishops and contact our state representatives and ask for their support. It is so important that our bishops are requesting that we read this letter this week or publish it for you to read before this program expires.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We, the Catholic bishops of Illinois, write with a sense of urgency. Unless the General Assembly acts to renew the Invest in Kids scholarship program, more than 9,000 children currently relying on this program to attend a non-public school may have their educational path disrupted. Without an extension of the program in Illinois law now, no scholarships will be awarded for the school year that will begin in September 2024. Most of these children will have to leave the school their families determined was their best chance to receive a high-quality education in a safe and wholesome learning environment. This is an injustice that should and can be avoided, but only if the General Assembly acts when it reconvenes on October 24, 2023.

Invest in Kids has proven to be a beacon of hope for thousands of Illinois students and their families. Children receiving Invest in Kids scholarships come from lower-income families who could not otherwise afford tuition at the Catholic or another non-public school that is the best fit for their child. Childhood is a limited time in the life of a human being and primary and secondary education is not something that can be put off to some future date when it is convenient for adults. This is our one chance to offer these Illinois children a good start. Please help keep education options available and a brighter future possible by contacting your state senator and state representative and telling them to continue the Invest in Kids Program.

Since its inception six years ago, Invest in Kids has generated overwhelmingly positive results. Nearly 40,000 scholarships have been awarded to students attending non-public schools across Illinois. Demand for scholarships is very high - for every scholarship granted, three students are turned down due to lack of funds. Contrary to what you may have heard, this is not a voucher program, nor does it take state funds away from the public schools. These scholarships are funded through contributions from donors who receive a tax credit for their donation on their Illinois state income tax.

What can you do to help? Please contact your state senator and state representative to let them know of your support for extending the Invest in Kids tax credit scholarship program in Illinois. We also encourage you to urge your fellow parishioners to do the same. Our collective voice is vital to the continued help for Illinois families. Please visit the Catholic Conference of Illinois website at www.ilcatholic.org or call the Springfield office at (217) 528-9200 for further information on how to locate your elected officials, request sample wording for a message to your legislator, or for information about how to donate to this program.

Signed by the six bishops of the dioceses of Illinois.

Reporting Allegations of Child Sexual Abuse

To report allegations of sexual abuse of a minor by clergy or other church personnel – even if it is in the past – individuals are encouraged to call the Diocese's Child Abuse Reporting and Investigation number at (217) 321-1155. Individuals may also contact Illinois Department of Children and Family Services Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.25.ABUSE.

Eucharistic Congress Tickets

Any remaining tickets are open to the public. If you would like to reserve a seat, please go to dio.org/revival-bos/ to register.

Parishioners who have signed up through the parish office will be receiving information directly from the Diocese regarding the Congress to your smart phone number or email address. Please look for emails from the Diocese that will contain your ticket and information about the day.

A final reminder that there will be no Masses next Saturday, October 28, nor will there be Confessions in the morning or afternoon. All the priests are expected to be present at the Eucharistic Congress to be held in Springfield that day and many of our parishioners will also be in attendance. Please pray for the safety of all involved.

In light of our Eucharistic Congress next Saturday, and in light of our Eucharistic renewal in our parish and diocese, I would like to present to our parish families a book entitled, "This is My Body," by Bishop Robert Barron. Please take a book located in the narthex, one per family. My hope and prayer is that through reading this book, your devotion to the Eucharist will be made manifest each and every weekend. The Eucharist defines who we are as Catholics and is my gift to you for your personal revival in making the Eucharist central to your lives.

I want to welcome Fr. Delix Michel, the pastor of our sister parishes in Haiti who will be with us this weekend. He will be giving me an accounting of our donations to his parishes and be present to thank us for our continual support. I am so proud of what we have been able to do to assist the poorest of the poor in our world with our gift of treasure. Remembering the words of Jesus, "whatever you do to the least of my brothers and sisters, you do for me." Thank you again for your continual support for our brothers and sisters in Haiti, With your generosity, we have been able to support them with a quarterly gift of $15,000.

Msgr. Leo J. Embury

St. Peter Social Concerns Update

St Peter Social Concerns Committee, through the donations of our parishioners, donate to Birthright of Quincy on a monthly basis. Birthright is non-denominational, non-political and funded solely by private donations. They provide caring, non-judgmental support to girls and women distressed by an unplanned pregnancy. In addition to providing friendship and emotional support, Birthright also provides free pregnancy testing, maternity and baby clothes, information and referrals to help clients meet legal, medical, financial and housing needs. Each person is treated with kindness and respect and these services are available to any woman regardless of age, race, creed, economic or marital status. Every case is absolutely confidential, and all services are provided for free.

Thank you, as always, for your continued donations to St. Peter Social Concerns Committee. Your dollars are being invested into our community and helping so many in need.

Social Concerns 5th Sunday Collection

October 28 & 29 is the Fifth Sunday collection for the Social Concerns Committee. Please consider making a donation to help support our community. Thank you for your generosity!
