October 29, 2023 Thirtieth Week of Ordinary Time

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.” This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law (Torah) and the prophets depend on these two commandments.” (Mt. 22: 37-40)

Jewish Law contains 613 items, or mitzvot, which are derived from the first five books of our bible, which the Jewish people recognize, simply, as Torah. Of these, some 248 are considered “positive” law—laws that command the faithful to do something, such as, “Honor your Father and your Mother.” The other 365 are “negative” laws, commanding things such as, “you shall not kill.” Of the 613 laws, 342 mitzvot are observed only in Temple worship, leaving ‘only’ 271 laws active. Was Jesus right in criticizing the Jewish Law for its legalistic perspective on... everything? Certainly this was not the intention of the Torah, or even the correct way to observe Torah.

The Jewish people to this day understand that when the law is properly observed, it increases the spirituality of a person’s life. Even the most trivial action and mundane acts, such as getting dressed and eating are transformed into acts of religious significance. When Jews eat Kosher, or light Shabbat candles, or pray after meals, they are reminded of their relationship with the Divine, inviting God into one’s everyday activities. Law is not meant to simply contain and restrain, but to be a constant companion to individuals and societies who wish to live as God’s children.

Jesus deepens our understanding of the Divine Law and the Decalogue (Ten Commandments) in particular, by simplifying it to its most basic terms: right-relationship with God and right-relationship with one another. On these two poles, the entire Law is based. It’s not simply a clever response on part of Jesus to keep from being ‘pinned down’ on the selection of one most important law, as the scholar asks, but it is meant to orient us to the priorities of the Life of Grace. All honor goes first to God alone, but from that flows the order and the concern we must have for living in harmony and justice with our neighbors. On these two priorities, the whole Law depends.

This week we celebrate All Saint’s Day, a Holy Day of Obligation. Mass will be on Tuesday, October 31 at 4:00 p.m. at St. Anthony’s. Mass on Wednesday will be at 7:30 a.m., 9:00 a.m., and 6:30 p.m. at St. Anthony’s. The St. Dominic’s school community will join us at St. Anthony’s for the 9 a.m. Mass. On this day we commemorate all of the Holy Men and Women who have gone before us, participated in God’s grace in an extraordinary way, and who now witness to us as saints in the glory of God’s Kingdom.

Thursday, November 2 is All Soul’s Day, when we commemorate all who have been made in the image and likeness of God, and especially those in need of our prayers as they endure the purification and await the glory of heaven. This is a day that reminds us of the certainty of death in this world and the mercy of God which awaits us. We will have our regular Mass at 7:30 a.m. at St. Anthony Church, followed by a visit and blessing of the cemetery afterwards... weather permitting. We also have Mass at 10:00 a.m. at Good Samaritan Home on All Soul’s Day.

On Saturday, November 4, we will renew the tradition of remembering the deceased members of our parish from the last year at our 6:30 p.m. Saturday evening Mass.

Also, there will be a Mass of Remembrance for the departed members of the Knights of Columbus on Monday, October 30 at 6:00 p.m. at Blessed Sacrament Church.

“Don’t think of burying my body in magnificent style and of embalming me and where you will bury me. Only think of one thing, I beg of you. Remember me at the Altar of the Lord and offer up the Most Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for the benefit of my soul.” -St. Monica

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

St. Dominic School Celebrates Grandparents' Day

On Wednesday, October 18, we celebrated Grandparents' Day by recognizing how our grandparents strengthen us with prayer, bless us with love, and encourage us with hope. Thanks to all of the grandparents and special people who celebrated Mass with us, enjoyed lunch in the cafeteria, listened to stories in classrooms, and watched or played with grandchildren at recess outside on a beautiful day. We are sincerely grateful to share this precious time with the grandparents in our St. Dominic School family.

Holy Moment of the Week

During Mass, our St. Dominic students sat with their grandparents and sang a song for them after Communion. One of the verses was, "Grandparents, Grandparents, you are such a blessing. We take some time on this special day, to say this prayer for you. God give you laughter and health and peace, and may you always feel loved. Grandparents, Grandparents, we thank God that we have you!" When students use their gifts to share God's love with their grandparents, our entire school family notices and we experience many Holy Moments. When our students see ordinary moments as an opportunity to collaborate with God, Holy Moments of sharing God's LOVE happen every day at St. Dominic School. Thanks be to God for our grandparents and special people in our school family!
