From the Pastor's desk....

Thank you for coming to mass. Your presence is very important to a parish's celebration of weekend liturgy. We are all baptized, and we follow the teachings of the Church. We are so blessed because of who we are; we are people of faith. Coming to mass, actively participating, receiving the Eucharist, and going forth to proclaim the Good News with our life, is essential. Thank you for coming and being part of all of this. One person cannot do it alone. You are valuable in spreading the message of Christ.

If you are coming to mass here at Christ the King, I ask that you please register. We have noticed recently that we are suspecting many people who come here to worship are not registered. Please see someone at the Information Desk in the narthex (back of church) or call the Parish Office. By registering and giving us information, helps both you and us. We know who you are if we need to look something up, and you receive information from time to time from the parish and also from the Diocese of Joliet.

Also, if you are coming to mass, please think about participating in one of the ministries that you see taking place here. Think about helping with distribution of the Eucharist, Cantor, joining the Choir, Ministry of Reader.

Men and women; if you are here early enough, please make yourself available to carry up our Processional Cross.

Peace.....Fr. Jeff
