Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

FROM THE RECTOR

When St. John Paul II promulgated Dominus Jesus on the universality of the mystery of Jesus Christ there was some resistance to the force with which the document reiterates the centrality and necessity of Christ for the world. While this resistance made sense from non-Christians, the fact that certain Christian ecclesial communities, and some in the Church Herself, resisted this declaration manifested their lack of understanding of who Christ is and what He has accomplished for us. The incarnation, the Word Made Flesh, allows us to have a relationship with the Father and the Spirit. We must become unto Christ in all that we are and allow Him to make His dwelling within us. St. Paul exhorts the Ephesians to allow Christ to dwell in their hearts and to come to the knowledge of His great charity. Apart from Christ we are nothing, but with Him we are able to become saints. This is not hyperbole, but the truth of our faith. This life unto Christ makes it possible for us to be instruments of grace for the world, to live peaceably with and to foster unity among men. Having the opportunity for weekly Eucharistic Adoration provides us with the experience needed to deepen our relationship with the Lord. We must use all the graces God bestows upon us. As St. Paul concludes today: to Him be glory in the Church, and in Christ Jesus, unto all generations, world without end. Amen!
