Part II: The Moral Vision of Jesus Christ in His Body, the Catholic Church, in the Face of Contemporary Trends in Sexual Morality.

Thank you for your patience and your willingness to follow along with the sermons between August and this past weekend in November. Their purpose was to explain the foundation for living the Life of Christ in our lives. Now it's time to apply the foundation we presented, step by step, and demonstrate the what, how and why, of the teaching of Christ as set forth by the Catholic Church. We don't rashly judge the current condition of our Church: if the Body of Christ on earth is split down the middle on the major moral issues of the day, then chances are that the Body of Christ, present in the Catholic Churches of Hancock County, reflects that split. All the more reason to understand the what, how and why of our sacred teaching. Immediately below are the next two sermon topics that serve as an introduction to this second installment of sermons: Conscience and Consciousness. There will be two additional sermons addressing: how to listen to a priest in personal settings and in the public setting of the pulpit; and how to be with family members whose lives do not reflect the teaching of the Catholic faith. And then....well, you'll see the topics, soon enough. Fr. T.

All sermons from August 5/6 to November 4/5 are available at the doors of our churches and school as a first unit of the year's presentations - at the author's expense.)

November 11/12: "Searching and Finding Inside Your Soul What Was There All Along: The Mystery of the Human Conscience."

November 18/19: "When Something Happens To You So Deeply That It's A Part of You: The Mystery of Human Consciousness."

I Saw the Faces! I selected one Mass last week to tell the annual story of my birth, November 6, 1951, 11:27 a.m., as passed on to me by my Mom ever since I left home at the age of 17. And as I looked out at the crowd at that Mass, I saw the faces - that look that said beyond words, "Oh my God, are we going to have to listen to this again?!" Lesson learned: we'll save it for the kids from now on! But realize the only reason I do it is to keep a family remembrance alive: no other reason. Thank you for your phone messages, emails, and cards: don't want to keep any of you waiting to hear a "thank you," like I did with you, last time! Fr. T.

You can do this online, or can use the forms at the entrances of our churches to offer your thoughtful considerations and any ideas you have to share. We have until November 22. Please continue in prayer and thoughtfulness at this stage of the Growing Disciples Discernment.

Catholic Campaign for Human Development. Our second collection next weekend is for the cause of the poor in our own country, through the Campaign for Human Development. 25% of this collection in our diocese returns to us - returns to our diocese! - for the purpose of various efforts to assist the poor in various programs and outreach initiatives. Most especially for those among us who respond strongly to the need for addressing issues of justice and peace for the disadvantaged, this is a wonderful way to help our Church in rising to the challenge of placing the least in God's Kingdom, first. Be ready next weekend to give generously!

Warsaw local churches are planning a Live Nativity for the "Christmas on Main Street", December 9, next to Jennifer's restaurant. We are hoping to get five people from each church to provide 3 dozen cookies. If baking is not an option for you, a monetary donation would be very helpful and we would purchase the cookies from Eby's here in Warsaw. Any extra cookies will be donated to the Warsaw Friendship Baskets the following week. Please notify Stephanie Froman at 309-221-6488 if you would like to donate. Thank you!

Sacred Heart Warsaw ladies will be serving Coffee and Donuts following the 8:00 a.m. Sunday Mass this Sunday, November 12.
