Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

NOVEMBER 12, 2023

Wisdom 6:12-16; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18;
Matthew 25:1-13

The theme of today's Mass is "wisdom." A foolish or flighty person never thinks about goals or consequences; he/she never thinks about responsibilities; the fun of the present moment seems to be his/her only interest.

The wise person enjoys life in terms of goals and responsibilities. He/she sees that true joy and happiness will only be found in the pursuit of the right goals.

The foolish maidens in the Gospel didn't think to bring oil for their lamps. Their one purpose was to light the way for the bridegroom as he took the bride to his home. And they failed miserably in that one purpose; their sin was a failure to think, to consider, to take responsibility.

The first reading personifies wisdom. Anyone can be wise. Wisdom means seeking the real goal of life, and ordering everything in life toward that goal. Our one, over-riding goal of life is to please God in order to be happy with him here and hereafter. We need to "thirst for the Lord" as we sing in the Responsorial Psalm.

Our second reading is from 1 Thessalonians. The epistle was written to give hope to those who were discouraged about the delay in the Second Coming of Christ.

We must never give up hope. Heaven is our goal; the Lord will give us every grace needed to attain that goal if only we take the responsibility for our lives in wisdom. Let us, then, "Keep our eyes open," and live responsibly in the light of our goal

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time, November 12, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend the Church celebrates the 32nd Sunday in this time called “Ordinary.” Just a reminder that the 34th Sunday in this Ordinary Time, the last Sunday in this liturgical year, is the Solemnity of Christ the King. We have therefore two weeks remaining in this year of the Lord. And as we bring this season to a close, the Church uses our Mass readings to encourage us to examine our priorities as we await the coming of the Lord. All of us have been invited to the wedding feast of Jesus, when His bride, the Church, will be united to Him forever. Of course we want to make sure that we are a part of that number and so we are challenged by the Church to look into our lives and make sure that we are awake and ready for the Lord whenever He comes to us. This coming could be in death or at the end of time—our lives must always be prepared for His arrival when the world as we know it comes to an end. This is not meant to be a time of fear but rather a time of readiness. St. Paul in his letter to the Thessalonians tells us the following: “For the Lord Himself, with the word of command, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God, will come down from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air.” There is new life that awaits us as we profess our faith in the resurrection of the dead and life eternal. May our hearts be ready for this coming.

The Church gives us the gospel this weekend about the ten virgins whose main function at a wedding was to light the way for the groom. Their main role was to make sure that they had enough oil for the lamps to be kept burning brightly for without it they could not function in the one role that they had. Well, we hear how five were foolish and five were wise. In other words five were not prepared and thus failed in their role while five were prepared and fulfilled their roles. Needless to say, the wise ones were invited into the wedding feast whereas the five foolish were not. In this gospel Jesus states: “stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hours.” Staying awake means looking at how we spend the gifts that God has given to us, His gifts of time, His gifts of talents, and His gifts of treasures. These gifts are like the oil in the flasks of the virgins. If we use them as God intended, our flasks will never run dry and we, like the wise virgins, will have fulfilled our purpose in life. Staying awake means looking at how we spend our time, talents, and treasures, and whether we are putting the Lord first in the use of these gifts given to us.

This weekend brings our Stewardship Renewal to a close. If you haven’t returned your Commitment card or completed one online at the parish website, www.cospq.org, it is NOT too late to do so. Returning your card is an important part of being an active member of St. Peter Church. Please take this opportunity to discern how God is calling you to grow closer to Him. We are a stewardship parish and hope that you, as a member, will take this role seriously and take part through prayer and thought, how you will use your time, talents, and treasures this year of the Lord. I ask your cooperation as we, like the virgins in our gospel, examine the flasks of time, talent, and treasure given to us by our Lord and with generous hearts return to Him what is proper to Him.

Watch the Talks from the Eucharistic Congress Speakers

Everyone loved the speakers at the diocesan Eucharistic Congress October 28 in Springfield! Now you can not watch their inspiring, funny, thought provoking, and uplifting talks. Go to dio.org/catholictimes and click on videos. While you're there, you can check out a recap video of the historic day and watch the Mass. Note, Dr. Scott Hahn's talk is not able to be published due to contract stipulations.

As we have been gradually introducing a special campaign to build onto our campus, we invite all parishioners and school families to join us for a campaign preview event next Thursday, November 16, from 6:30-7:15 p.m. in the Church, with refreshments served immediately after in the cafeteria. This campaign is entitled Upon this Rock and will include what we hope to be additions to the St. Peter school and campus.

Also, I want to remind you of our parish mission, which will be given once again by Fr. Kolbe Woniakowski, a Benedictine priest of St. Meinrad Archabbey in St. Meinrad, Indiana. The parish mission will begin on Sunday, December 3, where Fr. Kolbe will preach at all Sunday Masses. Then he will deliver two conferences on Monday and Tuesday, December 4-5, at 6:30 p.m. in the Church. The topic will be the Eucharist and how it relates to the Advent season.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: I was walking with my then 4 year old daughter when she picked up something off the ground and started to put it in her mouth. I asked her not to do that. "Why?" she asked. "Because it's been laying outside and it is dirty and probably has germs." At this point, she looked at me with total admiration and asked, "Wow! How do you know all this stuff?" "Uh," I was thinking quickly,... "all moms know this stuff. It's on the Mommy Test. You have to know it, or they don't let you be a Mommy." We walked along in silence for 2 or 3 minutes, but she was evidently pondering this new information. "Oh, I get it!" she beamed. "So if you flunk, you have to be the Daddy."

You are welcome to come even if not signed up in time. We just need a good estimate for planning purposes. If you would like to donate an item for our silent auction to help pro-life ministries, you may bring an item (of any value) that would be appealing to bid on. The women and children's socks, and soap and shampoo collection helps our local Ladies of Charity store provide for the needs of our communities. We plan our program for all ages of the catholic faith, and have a new Living Liturgically session for family life, so we encourage women of all ages to come, and any children of appropriate ages who can be attentive are also most welcome. (There is no registration fee for children). We look forward to seeing you, and feel free to bring someone not of the catholic faith-evangelize!

November 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With a population of over 1.1 million inhabitants, the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois has tens of thousands of people in our midst living in poverty. These men, women and children seldom make the headlines. However, their needs are real and deserve our prayer, action, and financial support.

Our annual Diocesan Collection for Justice and Hope (DCJH) will be taken the weekend of November 18-19, 2023. This collection gives Catholics an opportunity to reach out in solidarity to those who suffer and lack basic human necessities. All funds donated during the DCJH collection are granted to organizations that give realistic hope to the poor to break out of the cycle of poverty.

Like all Catholic ministries, the DCJH grant program reaches out to the broader community, without regard to race, ethnicity or religion. This campaign seeks to address the Gospel command to care for "the least of these" (Matthew 25), and also address the systemic injustices that contribute to poverty.

Please give generously to this DCJH collection and, when possible, reach out in service and solidarity to those organizations that help the poor among us,

May God bless you and reward you with peace, joy, and hope.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Thomas John Paprocki
