Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

NOVEMBER 19, 2023

Proverbs 31:10-13,19-20,30-31;
1 Thessalonians 5:1-6; Matthew 25:14-30

This is the last Sunday for which we shall use green vestments until the third Sunday in January. For all practical purposes, it is the end of the Season of "Ordinary Time." Next Sunday, the last Sunday of the Church Year, is the Solemnity of Christ the King. The following Sunday is the First Sunday of Advent.

Our Gospel continues Jesus' last great sermon, the "Eschatological Sermon" or Sermon on the Last Things. Last Sunday, Jesus told us to watch and to pray, to keep our lamps burning brightly. Today he tells us to use wisely the talents given us by the Lord.

It doesn't make any difference whether we receive many talents or few; the important thing is that we use our gifts and talents for God's glory. When we use our gifts in the service of others and for the glory of God, we show a "profit," and he will bless us.

The first reading today seems to be a bit of male chauvinism. It speaks of a worthy wife who does everything to please her husband. But the Church does not use this reading as a commentary on women. Rather, the Church sees herself as the "worthy wife" of Christ.

We, the Church, are to strive to reflect the glory of Christ in all things. We are called to bring him good all the days of our lives. (The reading is from the last chapter of Proverbs.)

Our second reading is from the last chapter of 1 Thessalonians. Paul has stated that the end will come, and that we must always be ready. But we don't know when the end is coming.

All of the signs of the end took place a long time ago; we await no new "signs." It only remains for us to watch and to be prepared as children of light. Let us suppose that today is the last day of our life. How would we live it? Live each day that way!

33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This weekend's readings call us to use the abundance God gives to us for growing His kingdom. He will make a reckoning for what we have done to grow the kingdom. Not just how we have lived, but how have we grown in grace and faith, and even more so, how have we helped others to come to know Jesus Christ. If we are lazy and do nothing with the abundance God gives us, most especially in our lack of going to mass and confession, then there are dire consequences for us. Heed the warnings of this weekend's readings. Sloth is an egregious sin. Don't allow yourself to become lax in faith, practicing our faith, and living that life of faith as we should with the Lord, His Church, and with others. If we have lived well for Him, grown what He has given us, and offered Him not only our selves grown, but others that know Christ from us, then may we long to hear those words..."Well done my good and faithful servant. Come share your master's joy!"

We had the most amazing event last weekend! Thank you to the BEAR youth group for hosting us and leading us in prayer at St. Boniface cemetery! We had such a great group of young and not so young! There were parishioners of all ages and I loved seeing us all come together to pray for our beloved dead, especially the "12 little angels" of our parish! How powerful of an experience this was! Thank you to Jane Ann Petty for her great work! Thank you to all who attended and know we will do this again! AND everyone remember a flashlight and a chair!

Just want to say thanks for this wonderful parish. Thank you to the Lord and thank you to each and every one of you that is making this parish just bear so much fruit! Keep it up! Several lately have told me how welcoming people have been when they are new or visiting! This is who we need to be as a people and a parish! Thank you! This makes my heart happy!

School is gifted cafeteria tables

Our school was given 10 folding, double cafeteria tables by Holy Family School in Decatur. Our folding cafeteria tables were about 50 years old, very worn and it wasn't possible to refurbish them.

Tim Beard, a parishioner and driver for Kohl Wholesale volunteered to drive his truck to Decatur to pick up the tables. We thank Tim, Aaron Kerkhoff and Kohl Wholesale for volunteering to help our school. We appreciate Holy Family School for giving us the tables.

Our school will be purchasing a few new tables to match the donated ones.

Thank you to Father Arisman for helping us contact Principal Bryan Kenney at Holy Family. We appreciate Tim Beard and Mark and Cy Kovachevich for helping unload the tables.

The Mississippi Valley Council Scouts BSA will take the old cafeteria tables.
