Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

NOVEMBER 19, 2023

Proverbs 31:10-13,19-20,30-31;
1 Thessalonians 5:1-6; Matthew 25:14-30

This is the last Sunday for which we shall use green vestments until the third Sunday in January. For all practical purposes, it is the end of the Season of “Ordinary Time.” Next Sunday, the last Sunday of the Church Year, is the Solemnity of Christ the King. The following Sunday is the First Sunday of Advent.

Our Gospel continues Jesus’ last great sermon, the “Eschatological Sermon” or Sermon on the Last Things. Last Sunday, Jesus told us to watch and to pray, to keep our lamps burning brightly. Today he tells us to use wisely the talents given us by the Lord.

It doesn’t make any difference whether we receive many talents or few; the important thing is that we use our gifts and talents for God’s glory. When we use our gifts in the service of others and for the glory of God, we show a “profit,” and he will bless us.

The first reading today seems to be a bit of male chauvinism. It speaks of a worthy wife who does everything to please her husband. But the Church does not use this reading as a commentary on women. Rather, the Church sees herself as the “worthy wife” of Christ.

We, the Church, are to strive to reflect the glory of Christ in all things. We are called to bring him good all the days of our lives. (The reading is from the last chapter of Proverbs.)

Our second reading is from the last chapter of 1 Thessalonians. Paul has stated that the end will come, and that we must always be ready. But we don’t know when the end is coming.

All of the signs of the end took place a long time ago; we await no new “signs.” It only remains for us to watch and to be prepared as children of light. Let us suppose that today is the last day of our life. How would we live it? Live each day that way!

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time, November 19, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

The Church celebrates the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time. The higher the number in this season called “ordinary,” indicates that the liturgical year is coming to a close. In fact, next weekend is the Solemnity of Christ the King, the 34th and final Sunday in this season of the Church. Following the celebration next Sunday, the Church begins the season of Advent. Hard to believe that Christmas is within four weeks after that.

Our gospel for this weekend is Jesus telling us of the parable of the person who was going on a journey and entrusted his possessions to his servants. In this parable his possessions were in terms of talents, commensurate with the servant’s abilities. He then goes off and we learn what those servants do with the talents they have been given. The first two prove to be good and faithful servants—they immediately put the talents to use doubling what had been entrusted to them. The third servant reacted to this responsibility with fear. He did not make an effort to use the talent entrusted to him. In fact, he did the opposite—he buried it in the ground. He took the easy way out and played it safe. What a tragic response! This last servant did not understand his master at all. He failed to see what a privilege he had been given, what an opportunity he had squandered. The master had wanted to give all his servants the joy and satisfaction of helping him grow his kingdom. This parable indicates what our heavenly Father wants for us too—the incredible privilege of helping to advance the coming of the Kingdom of God. And we do that when we use God’s gift of His talents given to us, not for ourselves, but for the sake of the kingdom of God.

Let us embrace the stewardship way of life, using all the gifts God has entrusted to us—Time, Talents, and Treasures—in such a way that at the end of our life on this earth, we will hear the words of Jesus, the giver of these gifts, who will say to us as the man in the gospel said to his servants, “well done, my good and faithful servant. Come, share your master’s joy.” If you have not filled out your stewardship renewal forms for this year, there is still time to do so. Please make our parish a stewardship parish by filling out these forms and bringing them back in the collection, by mail, or online.

Next Thursday, November 23, is Thanksgiving Day. For those who practice stewardship, this day has special meaning. For when we look at what God has given to all of us, including our country, we should always be filled with gratitude and thankful hearts. We will gather on this day for a Mass on Thanksgiving Day at 9:30 a.m. Our Mass is at that hour to accommodate our neighbors, the YMCA, who holds their annual Tukey Run with the streets closed off. But I do invite you to join us as we thank God for all His gifts as we recognize them and owe a debt of gratitude for each of them.

Our parish mission for Advent will be December 3-5. Fr. Kolbe Woniakowski, a Benedictine monk, will speak at all of our Sunday Masses and then two conferences on Monday and Tuesday nights at 6:30 p.m. in the Church. His topics will offer a series of presentations of the Eucharist and how it related to the Advent season. Please mark your calendars and be present.

To report allegations of sexual abuse of a minor by clergy or other church personnel – even if it is in the past – individuals are encouraged to call the Diocese's Child Abuse Reporting and Investigation number at (217) 321-1155. Individuals may also contact Illinois Department of Children and Family Services Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.25.ABUSE.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

On Monday night, November 27, the Quincy deanery will be hosting what is called the Andrew Dinner. The bishop will be present as well as many priests from our deanery. Just as St. Andrew brought his brother Peter to Jesus, we hope to encourage young men who might be thinking of the priesthood to join us for the evening to hear personal stories of priests and God's call to the priesthood. If any of our high school or college age students have thought of God's call in their lives, we invite you to join us for a meal at St. Anthony Church basement. Please call me if you are interested. There is no commitment and no request to sign your life away. But if you have thought about the priesthood and want to hear personal discernment from priests of the area, please join us. Promise to be done by 8:00 p.m. Just give me a call and leave your names.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A new Sunday school teacher wanted to find out how much her second-grade students knew about God. "Can anyone tell me something about God?" she asked. "He's all wise and all-knowing, so He's really smart" one student said. "He can see the future," another said. Then little Johnny said, "I know something no one else knows," "Really? Please tell us," the teacher said. "God is left-handed," Johnny said. "Really? How do you know that?" the teacher asked. "Easy... cause Jesus sits on God's right hand!" Johnny replied. Johnny got an "A" for the most original idea.

"Feeling gratitude and not expressing it is like wrapping a present and not giving it."

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

Mary. Leo J. Embury

2023 Giving Wreaths

Can you believe we are fast approaching Christmas. Where does the time go? Again this year, St. Peters will sponsor the Giving Wreath. This is a program that allows us at St. Peters a way to help those in our community who are less fortunate. Several local organizations send the needs of their people. Each need is put on a tag and we put those tags out on tables in the Narthex.

This is happening November 23 through December 3. You can choose a tag(s) before or after church. The gifts are to be wrapped and returned to Church with the gift tag securely taped during the weekend of December 9 and 10. The local organizations will pick up their gifts on December 11, so NO gifts delivered after December 10. This will replace the Social Concerns 1st Sunday collection for December. Thank you in advance for your generosity!

Christmas Decorations (Please print legibly)

To make a donation ($10.00) for Christmas poinsettias & decorations in memory of a loved one, please put money in a plain envelope labeled "Christmas Decorations" by Sunday, December 10, or email church@cospq.org.
