November 5, 2023 Thirty-First Week of Ordinary Time

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

In the last few weeks of this Church year, we hear St. Paul's letter to the Thessalonians. The ministry of Paul as an able and invested pastor stands in contrast to Jesus' critique of the Pharisees in today's Gospel. Christian leadership is always tied to service—worship of God and ministry to his people. Paul was a firm believer that the sincerity of his mission and his spiritual legacy at the Church in Thessalonica would be sufficient proof to demonstrate his love and concern for the flock of God, against so many critics and detractors. We will see and hear Paul in a modestly defensive posture as he preaches in the coming weeks, asking his little Church to be focused and attentive to the authentic Word of God, and not to be swayed by naysayers.

Save the dates: We are looking towards having another "Forty Hours" of Eucharistic Adoration weekend on December 17-18-19, in anticipation of Christmas! Sign-ups for hours will take place in early December.

Other events coming up in the next couple of months:

- Thanksgiving Day (Thursday, November 23): Mass at 9:00 a.m. at St. Anthony
- Immaculate Conception, (Friday, December 8) Mass at 4:00 p.m. Thursday 12/7, and at 7:30 a.m., 8:30 a.m., and 6:30 p.m. on Friday, December 8, all at St. Anthony's.
- Pancake and Sausage Breakfast—Sunday, December 10. Butchering on Friday, December 8 in the evening. Sausage sales will be launching soon (and are limited!)
- Christmas— Regular Sunday Masses for the 4th Sunday of Advent (December 23-24), and then Mass at 4:00 p.m. & 6:30 p.m. on Christmas Eve, Sunday, December 24. Mass of Christmas Day at Midnight and 9:00 a.m. Any Mass on Saturday December 23 or 24 (including Christmas Eve Masses) will satisfy the Sunday obligation. Any Mass after 4 p.m. on Christmas Eve (still on Sunday) will satisfy the Christmas Holy Day obligation. (There are two separate obligations, but a bit of flexibility on how they can be fulfilled!)
- New Year's Day: Mary, Mother of God. Again, there will be the full schedule of weekend Masses on Saturday, December 30 & Sunday, December 31. The New Year's Day celebration of Mary, the Mother of God is not a Holy Day of Obligation this year. Mass will be offered at 9 a.m. on Monday, January 1 in honor of Mary, the Mother of God.

Bulletin Deadline: Monday, Noon

We are getting into that time of year, so a friendly reminder: Please remember: when winter weather is bad, the Sunday obligation can be considered lifted when one reasonably believes that travel presents a significant hazard to them. This decision should be made conscientiously, but without scruple. A good standard would be to ask yourself if you would leave the house for any other non-emergency reason during the day, such as to go to the grocery store or a restaurant, to meet family or friends, or to attend a sports practice or game. We will make every effort here at the church to keep our grounds cleared for

Saturday night and Sunday Mass, but cannot guarantee the safety of all of the grounds and sidewalks all of the time. Short of personal injury/illness to me or catastrophic physical plant problems, Sunday Mass will not be cancelled for weather emergencies, but please use better-than-normal discretion during ice, snow, and dangerous cold!

Parishioners are urged to use good judgment with respect to seasonal illnesses. Stay home if you are sick! COVID is still a lingering presence and concern, perhaps not for otherwise healthy individuals, but certainly as an exposure hazard for the elderly and the immune-compromised. This needs to be a consideration for the sake of all in our community..

Those who find themselves unable to go to Mass due to weather, health, or any other reason are encouraged to spend time in prayer at home. We are blessed to have a televised Mass here in Quincy, thanks to the Knights of Columbus, who sponsor and produce the broadcast each week on KHQA. This is a worthy and pious means to join the Church in prayer and to stir the desire for the intimate Spiritual Communion experienced at Mass. But remember that television 'attendance' does not substitute for actual Mass attendance to fulfil the Sunday obligation. Rather, when God does not provide the means to attend Mass as usual due to legitimate health or safety concerns, the obligation is simply considered 'lifted'.

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Sixth Grade Leaders Teach About Confirmation

During the month of October, our sixth-grade class along with their teacher, Mr. Shevlin, led our Morning Meetings for grades K-8. The sixth-grade class taught us about the second Catholic Sacrament of Initiation – Confirmation. The student leaders shared about each of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit that we receive at Confirmation, and how they apply to our lives. The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are wisdom, understanding, knowledge, counsel, fortitude, piety, and fear of the Lord. This school year, we will learn about all seven Catholic Sacraments, including Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist/Holy Communion, Reconciliation/Confession, Matrimony, Holy Orders, and Anointing of the Sick, to build our faith community.
