Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

FROM THE RECTOR

The words and wisdom of the prophet Isaiah are prominent throughout the whole of the Advent Season, but particularly this Second Sunday of Advent. The voice of the prophet is present throughout the Holy Mass especially in the words of St. Paul to the Romans and the figure of St. John the Baptist spoken of by Our Lord in the Gospel. The prophet Isaiah speaks of the fruit of the root of Jesse, preparing us for the work of Our Lady and the birth of Our Lord. As we hear again the words of the prophet let us realize again that God has fulfilled all the promises He has made and as such is worthy of our fidelity and trust. The journey of Advent is sustained through the realization that God only and always speaks truth to us. Never allow doubt or fear to keep us from accepting the graces of God into our hearts.
