Second Sunday of Advent

DECEMBER 10, 2023

Isaiah 40:1-5,9-11; 2 Peter 3:8-14;

Mark 1:1-8

Jewish tradition expected that everything would be instantly perfect when the Messiah came. There would be justice, peace, an end to all suffering and death, plenty of food and of the good things of earth for every faithful person. It didn't happen that way.

The primitive Church saw the problem: Jesus IS the Messiah; why then aren't things perfect? The Church proclaimed that all would be perfect when Jesus the Messiah returned in his glory. And that would be very soon. But it didn't happen.

Our second reading is a sort of rationalization at the delay in the glorious Coming of Christ (the Parousia.) It tells us that a day is as a thousand years, and vice versa, in God's eyes. According to his time frame, it has only been a couple of days since Jesus ascended to heaven. What happens when our expectations are not fulfilled? Do we lose hope? Are we embittered?

Our first reading is from the second part of Isaiah; it was written toward the end of the Babylonian Captivity. The Jews in exile expected liberation; they expected that the Messiah would come immediately and that all would be perfect.

The reading begins the section of Isaiah called "The Book of Consolation." The captivity (service) of the Jews is at an end, but they must make ready for the Coming of the Lord.

Jewish tradition taught that the Messiah would come instantly IF everyone repented at exactly the same time! It's not bad theology! If we all repented and prepared, surely the Lord would come in glory.

The Gospel is the beginning of Mark's Gospel: John the Baptist calls on us to "turn our lives around," to make straight a way for the Lord. If all of us do, then surely we would see the glory of the Lord.

Second Sunday of Advent, December 10, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

In my younger days as a priest, I met one of my classmates in St. Louis and we would attend the St. Louis Symphony in their presentation of Handel's classic work called the Messiah. In one of the movements in this classic musical, we find Handel giving comfort and good tidings to the people of Israel. I bring this to your attention because the initial vocal parts of this composition draw heavily upon the verses we find from our first reading from Isaiah. Listen to the words which state: "Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.' Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill made low, the crooked straight, and the rough places plain. And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it." Of course after several more movements, it would lead to the climax of the night with the beautiful "Alleluia chorus." Even though I am not a music buff, I always enjoyed that evening as it led to the chorus in which every one seemed to sing, "Alleluia." That one word seems to capture the mystery of Christmas, God dwelling among us with our only response being, "Alleluia!"

Our gospel for this second Sunday of Advent introduces us to a man who prepared the people for the coming of the Messiah, namely, John the Baptist. His distinct role was to proclaim a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. In other words, people were challenged by John to rethink one's life and to recognize the need for forgiveness for all the bad decisions that we have made. Now no one likes to have their wrongdoings pointed out but it is only through such an act of humility that we will change our ways and return to the Lord. And that is what Advent is all about. So an essential part of our Advent season is to do some introspection, to see where we have missed the mark as our Scripture describes sin and somehow through the mercy and forgiveness of Christ and His Church, make straight His paths in our lives. As part of our Advent experience, we will be celebrating a city wide Penance Service next Sunday, December 17, at 2:00 p.m. in St. Francis Solanus Church. There will be a number of priests from the community who will be present to celebrate individual confessions. So please mark your schedules and be in attendance to receive God's forgiveness and get your lives ready for the mystery of Christmas. If you cannot make it then, of course we always hear confessions each Saturday, from 7:30-7:50 a.m. and again from 3:30-4:30 p.m. each Saturday afternoon. We will also be having special times for individual confessions on Friday and Saturday, December 22-23. But please don't wait for the last times but make Confessions an essential part of your Advent practice.

Also, I want to invite you to the Quincy Notre Dame & PMO Choir Concert. These students will be sharing their musical talents with the community this Monday, December 11, at 6:30 p.m. in St. Peter Church. This is always one of those concerts that make us so proud of the talents of our young people who will help us make ready our lives for Christmas. Come and join us.

The School of St. Peter

Week of December 10, 2023

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

ANNUAL GINGERBREAD HOUSE CONSTRUCTION

Did you know that we have a tradition at St. Peter School? For the last 37 years our Kindergarten students have constructed a gingerbread house with their parents or chosen loved one. Many of the St. Peter School alumni still talk about the time when they made their gingerbread houses when they were in Kindergarten. In fact, some have reported that they still have their creation and they bring it out every year as they decorate for Christmas!

MENU

Monday: Grilled chicken on bun, Emoji fries, corn, fruit.

Tuesday: Meatballs, bosco stick, romaine salad, fruit.

Wednesday: Tenderloin, hash brown, green beans, fruit.

Thursday: Hot dog, curly fries, baked beans, fruit.

Friday: Ravioli, marinara, mixed vegetables, fruit.

Parish in Action

As many are aware, St. Peter is in the planning stages of a major capital campaign to build a new school cafeteria, renovate the cafeteria to create a parish center, and add new classrooms. To conduct a successful effort, we must assemble a strong volunteer team to reach out to parish families.

We are thankful that several members of the St. Peter community have agreed to help provide campaign leadership. The following parishioners said "yes" to an invitation to serve on our Campaign Committee:

Campaign General Chairpersons

John and Kimberly Johannes
 Lydia Miller
 David and Theresa Oakley
 Thomas and Kimberly Strieker

Campaign Committee

Matthew and Casie Bainbridge
 Jim and Kathy Citro
 Jack and Lauren Cornell
 Andrew and Nicole Genenbacher
 Justin and Michelle Haubrich
 Jason and Rebecca Knuffman
 John and Carrie Lavery
 Bill and Sharon Mays
 Chris and Monica Scholz
 Charles and Jamie Scholz
 Kyle and Kimberly Venvertloh
 Stephen and Linda Wavering

In their role, the Committee will oversee the effort and assist Fr. Leo in implementing a successful campaign. One of their first responsibilities is to recruit additional volunteers.

If you would like to help, please contact Sean McDonough, Steier Group campaign manager, at 312/771-2070 or smcdonough@steiergroup.com to join the team!

You can help make a difference for St. Peter Catholic Church and School and its future. Please consider lending your talent to this important cause!

Fellowship Tuesdays

Join us for Fellowship Tuesdays after 8:00 a.m. Mass this week (12/12) in the cafeteria. Come for Mass, fellowship, coffee and treats!

2023 Giving Wreaths

Can you believe we are fast approaching Christmas. Where does the time go? Again this year, St. Peters will sponsor the Giving Wreath. This is a program that allows us at St. Peters a way to help those in our community who are less fortunate. Several local organizations send the needs of their people. Each need is put on a tag and we put those tags out on tables in the Narthex.

The gifts are to be wrapped and returned to Church with the gift tag securely taped during this weekend of December 9 and 10. The local organizations will pick up their gifts on December 11, so NO gifts delivered after December 10. This will replace the Social Concerns 1st Sunday collection for December. Thank you in advance for your generosity!

2024 Calendars

We now have the new 2024 calendars in the Narthex. Please take one. If you know someone in a nursing home, or that is staying at home right now, please take one for them.

We Want Your Input!

Quincy Catholic Schools are embarking on a comprehensive strategic planning process that will set the future direction for the next three-five years. Your feedback is important to us! We are asking all parents, faculty, staff, and friends to share their insights on our schools. The survey can be accessed at <https://bit.ly/QCSsurvey> and will be available until December 12, 2023.

St. Anthony Pancake & Sausage Breakfast

St. Anthony Church Pancake & Sausage Breakfast is on Sunday, December 10, 7:00 a.m.- Noon, dine in or carry out.
