Third Sunday of Advent

DECEMBER 17, 2023

Isaiah 61:1-2a,10-11;

1 Thessalonians 5:16-24; John 1:6-8,19-28

The Third Sunday of Advent is called “Gaudete” Sunday (pronounced “Gow-DAY-tay”); the word means “Rejoice!” It is taken from the first word of the Latin Entrance Antiphon (Introit) for this Sunday.

On this Sunday, the organ and other instruments may be used, and flowers may appear on the altar. The texts of Mass are filled with joy: In the Collect we pray that we may experience the joy of salvation.

In the first reading, “I rejoice heartily in the Lord...” The second reading tells us, “Rejoice always!” Christianity is Good News! Gloomy and doomy people who wallow in self-pity and never see anything good are not very Christian!

We are called to be a people of joy even though this world is imperfect. We rejoice because the Lord has come, and because he will come. We rejoice because even our crosses have meaning. We rejoice because nothing can separate us from God’s love and from the eternal joy which awaits us.

The Thessalonian people were worry-warts, afflicted with anxiety and depression. Paul urges them to rejoice always, to persevere in prayer, and not to “stifle” the Spirit.

By this he means, “Don’t have a negative attitude; be positive!” We may not live to see everything perfect, but we must be joyfully confident that the Lord will bring all things out all right.

3RD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Gaudete Sunday

This weekend's reading from Isaiah is the announcement of the coming of the Messiah. In fact, this is the reading from which Jesus proclaims in the synagogue the Gospel's capture, where He sits down and teaches them with a new authority stating that this passage is fulfilled in your hearing. Jesus is the one to come to make all things new as Isaiah prophesies.

John has come to announce the coming of the Messiah. To prepare the way of the Lord as Isaiah spoke. He speaks of what the Christ will do, but clearly makes it known he is not the Christ, he is not the messiah. John prepares the coming of the Messiah Jesus Christ, with his announcement of the baptism of repentance, but remember this baptism is not exactly the same as what Jesus commands us to do. Jesus fulfills and transforms ritual washing, baptism, into something that is effective and changing. It's no longer ceremonial or just a cleansing to remind, but it is effective and soul changing, because it is no longer just water, but the Holy Spirit. Jesus has come to make all things new, including you and me. So, heed the warning of John the Baptist and prepare for the coming of the Lord. He is near, and he longs to make you new.

Please do not forget that next weekend you need to attend mass for the fourth Sunday in Advent and for Christmas. Yes, they are back-to-back, but do not put yourselves or your children in mortal sin for not fulfilling the Sunday obligation, as well as the Christmas obligation. We don't just skip things in the faith because it's hard, we see the challenge of faith that brings us holiness and grace. Make sure you prepare your heart and soul through confession. We have a penance service here at St. Francis for the whole city this weekend Sunday, December 17 at 2 p.m., and we have the normal opportunities for confession as well throughout the week. Prepare the way of the Lord in your souls for the birth of Christ.

Fr. Rafal and I are immensely grateful for the cards and gifts we have received. The cash you give helps more than you know for both of us, especially making it possible for him to travel home for vacation/seeing his family. We are extremely thankful. If you are traveling for Christmas, please be safe and know of my prayers.

Lastly, please remember if you need donations for end of the year giving, please know that they are greatly appreciated and can go towards your future pledges for the capital campaign that we are launching this spring.

Living a Christ-centered life means we can face suffering and death without fear. I pray that this talk will enlighten our perspective on this topic and how our relationship with God can truly help us approach the end of our earthly life. Ray Wheeler will accompany us that evening with music and songs.

Holy Name News: A big thank you to everyone who purchased a Holiday Fruit Basket. We may still have a few left for sale. If you would still like one, call or text John Benz, 217-440-0875. Cost is $20. Merry Christmas to all and a Happy New Year from the Holy Name Men!

Knights of Columbus News

We are taking a few weeks off for the holidays from The Thursday Night Raffle and Friday Night Chicken Dinners. We will start those back up the first week of the new year. Our next Sunday morning buffet breakfast is January 7 from 8:30-Noon. Visit quincykofc.org for more information.

Are you looking for stocking stuffers?

The Knights of Columbus raffle calendars make great Christmas gifts with chances to win cash every day in 2024 for only $25 per calendar. Buy them at the bar or call John Veith at 653-0258 or Mike Schlipmann, 653-9318 for more details or to buy a calendar. Your purchase will help support Knights charities, including our catholic schools, Ladies of Charity, Birthright and many others.

Thank you for your support!

Help Our Food Pantry this Advent

If you are looking for a good way to prepare for Christmas this Advent Season, we would like to suggest this idea to you. Each day add a grocery item to a bag or box and on Christmas Eve donate the items to our Food Pantry. Bags with this list can be found at the entrances to church. Below are some ideas for items that are most needed:

- | | |
|---------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| December 1 - box of cereal | December 13 - pancake mix |
| December 2 - peanut butter | December 14 - can of spaghetti sauce |
| December 3 - mac and cheese | December 15 - spaghetti |
| December 4 - canned tuna | December 16 - pork & beans |
| December 5 - simple crackers | December 17 - canned soup |
| December 6 - can of mixed fruit | December 18—applesauce |
| December 7 - can of corn | December 19—syrup |
| December 8 - can of green beans | December 20—jelly |
| December 9 - hamburger helper | December 21—dish soap |
| December 10 - instant potatoes | December 22—toothpaste |
| December 11 - canned chicken | December 23—bar soap |
| December 12 - tuna helper | December 24—toilet paper |

Thank you!

Ladies of St. Francis News:

The Ladies of St. Francis wish everyone a blessed Advent!

Please be thinking about an opportunity to become an officer of the Ladies of St. Francis. In May the current officers will have served two years and it's time for some new ladies to take over and try some new and exciting ideas with this wonderful group of faith-filled ladies.

Think about this opportunity to share your gifts and talents with this group, your parish and our community. We will organize a nominating committee at our next meeting Tuesday, March 19. Please be willing to volunteer! Thank you.

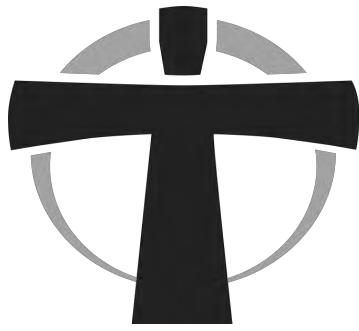

Socks and Underwear Collection

From now until Christmas our parish will once again be collecting new socks and underwear for those in need. Totes will be at the West main door and North doors of church for drop-off. All sizes are needed for men, women, boys, and girls. All donations will stay local and support our parish, school and Ladies of Charity.

You may call Deacon Dennis Holbrook with any questions at 217-257-4384. Thank you!
