Third Sunday of Advent

DECEMBER 17, 2023

Isaiah 61:1-2a,10-11;

1 Thessalonians 5:16-24; John 1:6-8,19-28

The Third Sunday of Advent is called “Gaudete” Sunday (pronounced “Gow-DAY-tay”); the word means “Rejoice!” It is taken from the first word of the Latin Entrance Antiphon (Introit) for this Sunday.

On this Sunday, the organ and other instruments may be used, and flowers may appear on the altar. The texts of Mass are filled with joy: In the Collect we pray that we may experience the joy of salvation.

In the first reading, “I rejoice heartily in the Lord...” The second reading tells us, “Rejoice always!” Christianity is Good News! Gloomy and doomy people who wallow in self-pity and never see anything good are not very Christian!

We are called to be a people of joy even though this world is imperfect. We rejoice because the Lord has come, and because he will come. We rejoice because even our crosses have meaning. We rejoice because nothing can separate us from God’s love and from the eternal joy which awaits us.

The Thessalonian people were worry-warts, afflicted with anxiety and depression. Paul urges them to rejoice always, to persevere in prayer, and not to “stifle” the Spirit.

By this he means, “Don’t have a negative attitude; be positive!” We may not live to see everything perfect, but we must be joyfully confident that the Lord will bring all things out all right.

Third Sunday of Advent, December 17, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend, the Church celebrates the 3rd Sunday in our season of Advent. The Third Sunday is traditionally called “Gaudete Sunday.” The reason for this particular designation is found in our Introit, or Entrance Antiphon, which proclaims “Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say rejoice. For indeed the Lord is near.” This proclamation sets the tone of joyful expectation for the Lord’s birth and Second coming. To help us enter into this joyful expectation, the Church invites us to wear rose-colored vestments (not pink, but rose).

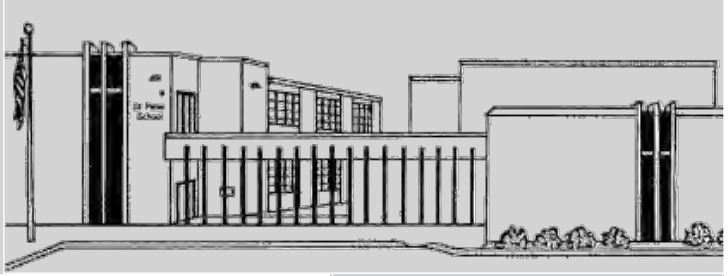

There are many differing symbols that we use at Christmas that often either go unnoticed or are not very apparent to us as we use them. So often we see Christmas trees with candy canes hanging on branches or we buy these same candy canes to fill stockings or given as gifts. The candy cane has an interesting significance. It is shaped like a shepherd’s crook, representing the Nativity’s first witnesses to the Bethlehem scene along with being symbolic of Christ the Good Shepherd being born. It’s alternating white and red stripes represent the Lord’s purity. It’s lively peppermint flavor stands for the royal gift of spice. Finally, like the Body of Christ itself, the candy cane is given to be broken and shared. As I read these fun-filled facts of the candy cane, I never realized the full significance of this piece of candy in Christian symbolism.

In our gospel for this Third Sunday of Advent, we hear a little more about John the Baptist. When he was confronted by Jewish leadership concerning what he was doing and why he was doing it, John acknowledged that He was not the Christ, the long expected Messiah. Then when asked if he were Elijah, he denied that reality. In answer to the question, then who are you, John would respond by quoting the prophet Isaiah, “I am a voice of one crying out in the desert, make straight the way of the Lord.” Thus John sets the stage as one who is preparing the way for someone far greater than he, “someone whose sandal strap he is not worthy to untie.” This is our Christ, this is our long awaited Savior who would save us from ourselves and the sinful condition in which we find ourselves. May each of us make room in our lives this Christmas for the long-awaited Savior, Jesus the Christ.

To help us make room in our lives, we all need to acknowledge our sins, and open our hearts to our Lord. To help us in this endeavor, we will be having a city wide penance service this Sunday, December 17, at 2:00 p.m. at St. Francis Church. There will be a number of priests in the area who will be present to provide individual Confession for those in attendance. Please make use of this sacrament as we prepare our hearts for the coming of Jesus.

One of the things for which I am so proud of this parish family is the giving wreath event held each year to help various community organizations help their clientele to have a nice Christmas. Our parishioners take various tags, buy the gifts, wrap the gifts, and then return them. It is so amazing to see all these gifts in the narthex, reflecting the spirit of Christmas and our generosity toward our brothers and sisters. To each of you who will bring smiles on faces, I thank you for being the stewards of God’s graces that you are. I am most proud of you!

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

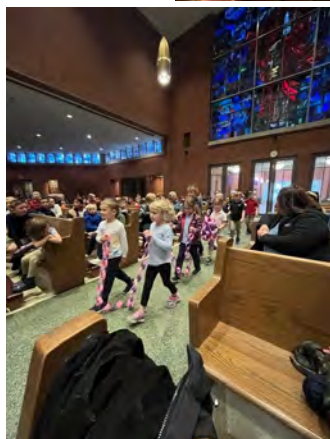

CELEBRATING ADVENT

One of our traditions at St. Peter School is to celebrate the coming of the Advent Season. We begin this special time each year with a prayer service. Each classroom created a chain of blessings that we linked together to brighten our Christmas tree in the gym lobby. Each link on this chain represents a blessing that our students and staff have been given in their lives. It is our hope that during this special season we all take time to thank God for these special blessings, especially our greatest gift of all, our Lord Jesus Christ. It is with great joy and deep gratitude that we look forward to the very special celebration of Jesus' birth and we ask that He come and rest in our hearts, not only during this Advent Season, but always.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE:

Funny Quotes:

1. Instead of cleaning my house, I just watch an episode of "Hoarders" and think, "wow, my house looks great."
2. So my neighbor knocked on my front door at 3 a.m. Luckily I was already up playing the bagpipes.
3. Never trust an electrician with no eyebrows.
4. A guy walks into a lumberyard and asks for 2 X 4's. The clerk asks, "how long do you need them?" The guy answers, "A long time. We're gonna build a house."
5. It only takes one slow-walking person in the grocery store to destroy the illusion that I'm a nice person.

December, 2023

Dear Friends in Christ,

The mission of the Catholic Children's Home (CCH) is to be a beacon of hope for thousands of children in need of safe harbor and a place to call home. For the past 144 years, the (CCH) has continued this mission by meeting the emotional, social, academic and basic material needs of all the children sent for residential care or special education services. This includes an innovative program designed to serve the needs of children with severe autistic challenges.

The children served by CCH have been chronically abused, designated "unmanageable" by their schools or simply have no place to call home. They are some of the most vulnerable in our society. In the words of Pope Francis, "We need to see each child as a gift to be welcomed, cherished and protected."

The holiday season is a particularly difficult time for these youths as many of them are without a family. Those who have a family often lack the special care they need. Please keep these children in your prayers throughout this holy season of Advent and Christmas. With your help, the Catholic Children's Home can continue to serve the special needs of these children in the name of Jesus Christ, as it has since 1879.

In the spirit of Christ's incredible love for all children, I ask that you continue to support the work of the Catholic Children's Home and generously contribute to the special Christmas collection. "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in Him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit." (Romans 15:13) May God fill your hearts with love, grace and a spirit of giving during these blessed days of Advent and Christmas.

With every best wish and gratitude, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ.

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois

As we continue to prepare to launch the Upon this Rock, the Campaign to Build in Faith at St. Peter Capital Campaign, we wanted to provide a calendar outline for the campaign.

- Campaign Kick-off → January, 2024
- Active Fundraising → January to March
- Follow up and celebration → April

If you are looking to support the campaign with a year-end gift for tax purposes, the campaign and the parish would be grateful for your support. Please note that to maximize the success of the campaign, we use the following strategies:

- Everyone will be asked to support the campaign.
- It's our intention to have personal, face-to-face visits with as many of our parishioners as possible.
- We will ask for specific gifts to the campaign.
- Our goal is to challenge everyone to consider a significant, proportional gift.

The campaign will be sending Upon this Rock, the Campaign to Build in Faith at St. Peter information and educational communications, and an appeal letter, to each household in January, 2024.
