From the Pastor's desk....

I pray that your Christmas is going well. Much visiting with family and friends I know is taking place. May you always experience the love and peace of the Christ Child somewhere in your conversations and visits. We can truly rejoice!

This weekend we are celebrating the Holy Family. We have been told many times how important families are. It is where we are taught many things. We are loved, challenged and nurtured in different ways in our family unit. Today we see that Jesus is part of a family too. Mary and Joseph, and Mary's parents, Anne and Joachim, all play an important part in the life of Jesus—and in our own life as well. May we look to them for support in our vocation within our own family. May we always support one another in our personal family, and in the family of the church. May we also recognize we are all part of the human family here on earth.

Monday, January 1, brings us a brand new calendar year—2024! May God be with you as you start some new things; and as you thank God for the many blessings that have taken place in your life in 2023. May we always use our time well. Time is the “stuff” that life is made of.

January 1 is NOT a holy day this year. We will, however, celebrate mass at 9:00 on New Year's morning. This mass will be for The Solemnity of Mary the Mother of God.

Happy New Year.....Fr. Jeff

Consecration to the Holy Family

The Knights of Columbus invites you and your families to participate in a Consecration to the Holy Family Prayer after the 4 p.m. Mass on December 30 and after the 10 a.m. Mass on December 31. Holy family in the Narthex by the Statue of the Holy Family next to the elevator. Our Deacons will lead us in a short prayer through which families will come together to consecrate themselves under the protection of the Holy Family. When Jesus came to save mankind, He was born into a family. Even though He was truly God, He submitted Himself to the authority of His mother and His foster father, thus setting an example for all of us on how to be good children. We offer our family to Christ, and ask Him to help us to imitate the Holy Family so that, as a family, we can all enter Heaven. And we ask Mary and Joseph to pray for us. Visit our Facebook page Christ the King Parish | Lombard IL | Facebook and parish website ctklombard.org for more information.
