Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

FROM THE RECTOR

This year, this Sunday in the Octave of Christmas is at the end of what has been a beautiful celebration of feasts and saints reminding us of the fullness of the Paschal Mystery revealed in its inception with the Incarnation. These octave days are given to us precisely because the profundity of this great mystery is not sufficiently experienced in just one day or one celebration. Instead, the Church gives us eight days to ponder the glories of the Christ Child and His willingness to become one with His creation. So too, we are never alone in our contemplation but continue to be aided by our Blessed Mother who reveals the necessity of trust and confidence in the Lord even when experiences are beyond our understanding. Moreover, we have the witness of the Holy Innocents and the martyr, Stephen who shed their blood for Christ, one at the beginning of the Incarnation and the other at the beginning of the glorious Resurrection of the Lord. The blood of the martyrs is not in conflict with Christmas joy but rightly situates the power of the Cross and its Triumph over sin and death. This power and triumph have already been made manifest in the baby in the arms of His Mother. The words of St. John the Evangelist in his Prologue give us even further opportunity for meditation as we sit in joy before the Word Made Flesh and rejoice in the generosity, love, and mercy of Our Heavenly Father who gives us the gift of His Son. As we rejoice in Christ our King present among us, let us rededicate ourselves to His service; let us join Our Lady, Simeon, and the prophetess Anna in recognizing that our salvation is now at hand!
