Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

DECEMBER 31, 2023

Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14; Colossians 3:12-21;

Luke 2:22-40 or Luke 2:22, 39-40

[There are alternate Biblical texts that may be used for the first and second readings.]

We desperately need fathers who sacrifice themselves for their families. We need fathers and mothers who are firm in discipline with their children, but in whose hearts Christ's peace and love always reigns.

Children will grow to be like their models, their parents: If parents are undisciplined, children will likewise be undisciplined. If parents are indifferent in their faith, we can't expect children to be any different. Today we pray that our families will model themselves after the Holy Family of Joseph, Mary, and Jesus.

Our first reading is from Sirach. In older Bibles, this book is called Ecclesiasticus, a word which means "Church Book." It was called that because it was the most frequently used Old Testament book in the liturgy. The book is Hebrew poetry, in couplets.

Today's reading is plain common sense: Each member of the family needs to respect every other member. Each member of the family must realize his/her distinct role.

The second reading expands on this theme: Husbands are not wives, nor are wives husbands: each has a distinct role. Children are not parents; they must not usurp the parental role; nor can parents abdicate their responsibility to guide their children.

The Gospel scene is forty days after Jesus' birth. The Savior of the world, born in obscurity, is presented in the Temple. Two old people come and bear witness that he is the promised one. The Gospel was probably selected because of the last two sentences: The family returned to Nazareth, and Jesus grew, filled with wisdom and grace. And he was obedient to Mary and Joseph.

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph Feast, December 31, 2023

Dear Parishioners,

We gather on this weekend after Christmas to celebrate the Solemnity of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. In our gospel for our celebration, we find Mary and Joseph taking Jesus, as was the custom, to the Temple for His purification rites. They were following the directives that stated: “Every male that opens the womb shall be consecrated to the Lord,” and to offer the sacrifice of “a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons,” in accordance to the dictate in the law of the Lord. What a beautiful image of parents bringing their child to the Temple to present their child to the Lord. They were well aware that life was a gift from God to parents and this gift did not belong to them but was given back to God from whom the child came.

During their presentation, they met two elderly people, Simeon and Anna, who said some interesting things about this child, things that neither Joseph nor Mary would understand. And all the gospel states is that after hearing what they said, “the child’s father and mother were amazed at what was said about Him.” They knew that Jesus was special but hearing from such a prayerful, holy man with words of awe and reverence left them amazed and perhaps speechless. Jesus was still a mystery to them and they would continue to be amazed and astonished as to what lie ahead in His life. May the mystery of Christmas continue to unfold in all of our lives and may we, like Mary and Joseph, be amazed and astonished as to what the mystery of Christmas will unfold in all of our lives.

As we gather to continue to celebrate this mystery of Christmas, I willingly admit that I am so thankful to each of you for making this mystery alive and active in my life. When I think of God’s Son becoming incarnate in human history, I recognize that mystery of the Incarnation in our parish, in the way we celebrate our Eucharist, the way we reach out to others, the way that we are so generous toward our Church and community. I am always amazed as to our “giving tree” and the way we respond to bring Christ’s love to others in our community. Each Christmas you make me so proud to be your pastor and I just want to say once again, “thank you” to each of you.

On this Solemnity of the Holy Family, I extend the following blessings upon our parish families. “We bless your name, O Lord, for sending your own incarnate Son to become part of a family, so that, as He lived its life, He would experience its worries and its joys. We ask you, Lord, to protect and watch over our families, so that in the strength of your grace its members may enjoy prosperity, possess the priceless gift of your peace, and as the Church alive in the home, bear witness in this world to your glory. We ask this through Christ the Lord.”

As we end another year, I ask you to make sure that you have filled out your stewardship cards and have returned them to the rectory. We need your assistance and help to bring this process to completion for this year.

The School of St. Peter

Week of December 31, 2023

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

ADVENT BLESSINGS

The students have been busy during this Advent season. During this season of waiting our focus has been on serving others as well as learning about the reason for the Christmas season.

Each morning the students eagerly listened to hear what the BINGO symbol for the day was during the morning announcements and prayer. Each symbol represented a sign of Christmas. An explanation was given for why the symbol was chosen.

Preschool 3's collected personal hygiene items for Quincy Catholic Charities. The preschool 4 year old students had a birthday party for Jesus and they used an Advent calendar to count down. Each day they received a sweet surprise. Additionally, they recognized each week of advent by adding the light to their candle on a wreath that hung on their door.

Grades K-3 held a Baby Shower for Jesus. The baby items were delivered to Care Net. Mrs. Gallaher's car was packed full of all the donated items. (See picture below!) Our families were extremely generous!

Additionally, the 3rd grade had an Advent calendar that they opened each day encouraging them to do a random act of kindness for the day. They also created a Jesse Tree. Each student was responsible for a particular person in Jesus' family and students shared what they learned about the chosen person.

The fourth grade students purchased a gift from the Giving Wreath and sent Christmas letters to homebound parishioners.

The fifth grade chose an Advent Wreath gift tag from the church vestibule and purchased a Christmas present for a child that is 10-11 years old. They also sent Christmas cards to homebound parishioners.

The sixth, seventh and eighth grade students took part in a service project that will benefit one of our school families who are in need. They collected monetary donations to purchase gift cards from the Gene Grawe Fund to help out the family with expenses.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

This Monday, January 1 is the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God. This day is usually a holyday of obligation but since it falls on a Monday the obligation is abrogated and is not an obligation. But we will still have Mass and encourage you to celebrate with us as we usher in another year of God's grace. So our Mass schedule for January 1 is as follows:

Sunday, December 31: Mass at 5:00 p.m.

Monday, January 1: Masses will be at 8:00 and 10:00 a.m.

As we bring in this new year, 2024, I pray that God will continue to bless all of you; will strengthen your faith through the hardships and struggles of life; will give you hope when darkness fills your life; and that each of you will find the incarnate love of Jesus especially in the Church in which we worship. Happy and a Grace filled New Year. My prayer for you is found in our first reading for this Mass of the New Year:

May the Lord bless and keep you!

May the Lord let His face shine upon you and be gracious to you!

May the Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace!

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: It was the end of the day when I parked my police van in front of the station. As I gathered my equipment, my K9 partner, Jake, was barking, and I saw a little boy staring in at me. "Is that a dog you got back there?" he asked.

"It sure is," I replied.

Puzzled, the boy looked at me and then towards the back of the van. Finally he said,

"What'd he do?"

- Active Fundraising → January to March
- Follow up and celebration → April

If you are looking to support the campaign with a year-end gift for tax purposes, the campaign and the parish would be grateful for your support. Please note that to maximize the success of the campaign, we use the following strategies:

- Everyone will be asked to support the campaign.
- It's our intention to have personal, face-to-face visits with as many of our parishioners as possible.
- We will ask for specific gifts to the campaign.
- Our goal is to challenge everyone to consider a significant, proportional gift.

The campaign will be sending Upon this Rock, the Campaign to Build in Faith at St. Peter information and educational communications, and an appeal letter, to each household in January, 2024.
