Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

JANUARY 14, 2024

1 Samuel 3:3b-10,19;

1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a,17-20; John 1:35-42

Every one of us has a call from God. It is not only a call “in general” to be holy. It is a specific and concrete call to serve the Lord in a special way. From all eternity, God called each of us to serve him in a way which is unique; no other person who will ever live can serve the Lord in precisely the same way as we do!

The problem is that we do not hear the voice of the Lord, as Samuel did. Jesus does not talk to us in the same way that he spoke to Peter and Andrew. We must pray, and ask the Lord to make known to us how he wants us to serve him.

The first reading is the call of Samuel. Samuel was a “child of promise.” His parents were childless in their old age. They promised that, if they had a child, they would dedicate him to the Lord. Samuel was reared in the temple. He did not recognize God’s call at first; but finally, he said “Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.”

Our bodies are members of the very Body of Christ; we are temples of the Holy Spirit. The motive for Christian purity and modesty is that we belong to Christ. We should not want to involve Christ in impurity. Our call from God includes a call to purity.

The Gospel is John’s story of the call of Peter and Andrew. (This is quite different from the call which Mark describes in next Sunday’s Gospel.) Peter and Andrew were disciples of John the Baptist. John points out Jesus as the Lamb; Andrew spent the day with Jesus, and then brought Peter to Jesus.

Let us seek to know our call from God. Let us pray especially that many of our young people will recognize that God is calling them to the priesthood and to the Religious life.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, January 14, 2024

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we return to “ordinary time.” This designation is used because this liturgical time does not have its own distinctive character, but rather the mystery of Christ is honored in its fullness. Therefore we begin this “ordinary time” celebrating the Second Sunday. Our color for ordinary time is green. Our first reading for our Mass is the call of Samuel. Samuel was the son of Hannah and Elkanah. This couple were unable to conceive and have a child and Hannah felt abandoned by God. In a spirit of grief, she finds herself in the temple praying before the Lord. Eli the priest confronted her, and told her to go in peace, that he prayed the God of Israel would grant whatever she requested. And he did. She conceived and bore a son, Samuel. Because of this gift, Hannah dedicated Samuel to the Lord and left him in the Temple with Eli. During the night as they were sleeping, God called Samuel. Although unable to realize it was God, Samuel was finally encouraged by Eli to say to God, “speak, Lord, your servant is listening.” Thus begins the vocation of Samuel to be a prophet of Israel. After listening to this reading, each of us is invited to reflect upon God’s call in our lives. Is the Lord speaking to us?” I firmly believe He does speak but we confuse His voice with so many other worldly voices that we fail to make the distinction. Samuel was able to hear the Lord because he was listening. Let us pray today that we will always listen and be able to say “here I am Lord, I come to do your will.”

I remind our parents of students preparing for Eucharist and Confirmation, that they are expected at a meeting at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, January 24, in the Church. Since our parents are the first teachers of their children in the ways of faith, I expect them to be present for this meeting as we prepare their families for these sacraments.

Just to keep before your attention that our campaign continues final preparations before launching the building plans and renderings, and officially kicking off the Upon this Rock, the Campaign to Build in Faith at St. Peter capital campaign. Kickoff has been delayed to review the building plans to assure we are exploring all possibilities to keep costs down. We’re doing our part as good stewards of your generosity, and we’re taking just a little extra time. We are excited to unveil the plans and start to share the vision of the new building and the renovations for the parish center. We WILL officially launch the campaign in early February.

One of the ministries that St. Peter Church provides is the ministry called evangelization. It is in this ministry that we assist parents in helping them in the formation of their children in the Catholic faith. And thus we continue to provide Catholic education in St. Peter School. We are like St. Andrew in our gospel for our Mass today, who introduces his brother Peter to Jesus. Our teachers, staff, and priests try to do the same for our young students. And we are very proud of the rich history that we have here in St. Peter School. I bring this to your attention as we will be celebrating Catholic School’s Week beginning on January 27. This week will be filled with many activities as our students take part in being a part of a Catholic school. We praise and thank God for this gift that we support.
