"Kind of Late for White Christmas, But...." It finally came, didn't it? What a snow and cold storm! Extended vacation for SPPS and all of our area schools! We're going to be juggling bulletin space for a few weeks, gradually getting things back on track. As far as the long-awaited startup of the sermon outline is concerned: by the time you're reading this, there's a good chance you already heard the first in the new series. Still, here's how things look...for now!!

January 20/21: "Father Bernard Lee Got Somebody Awfully Mad." A story from the Trosley family that perfectly presents the many facets of artificial birth control.

January 27/28: Deacons' Turn: Aren't You Glad!!

February 3/4: I Love You Totally...Except For...Well, Not Really...I Guess...But Come On!" Church teaching on artificial birth control from the dimensions of the human person, man and woman: their unity and dignity.

Catholic Schools Week Begins, January 28. We will begin with our Kick-Off Breakfast at 9:00 a.m. at Sts. Peter and Paul School. This is not just an important part of our Catholic faith anymore: now, our Catholic Schools are at the heart of holding to account the entire education system of our nation. We can say that we prepare young people for the future...that we try to assist families in the growth of virtue in their children...that we form souls to be leaders for Jesus Christ...and that we do our part to direct these souls toward everlasting life in heaven. Thank you for your support for Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic School, the school of the Catholic Churches of Hancock County.
