This Year's Sermon Outline, Continued.

Let's begin to take our long, strung-out presentation of the Church's foundational principles of the sexual moral life, by applying them to the teaching on Artificial Contraception. This will include the teaching on Abortion. Keep in mind the following stepping stones serving as our guide: the five dimensions of the human person, man and woman; the three dimensions of society; the natural law and the common good; and the subjective and objective standards of morality.

January 13/14: "Father Bernard Lee Got Somebody Awfully Mad." A story from the Trosley family that perfectly presents the many facets of artificial birth control.

January 20/21: "I Love You Totally...Except For...Well, Not Really...I Guess...But Come On!" Church teaching on artificial birth control from the dimensions of the human person, man and woman: their unity and their dignity.

January 27/28: Deacons' Turn: Aren't you Glad!!

With Gratitude for Your Generosity and Understanding. Your clergy - retired and active! - really felt the pinch of Advent being only three weeks long; the travel between the Fourth Sunday of Advent and Christmas Eve took just a few hours! And then, Fr. Tony caught the flu - still...again - through Christmas week. But all of us - Fr. Paul, Fr. James, Deacon Dan, Deacon Tony, and I - want to offer a humble "thank you" for your generosity shown to our churches and school, to our Christmas season, and to each of us, personally. Thank you, to our musicians who provided beautiful, prayerful music for our liturgies, and patience with their pastor who did quite a number on the Mass schedule! Thank you, to those who helped with the decorations for our churches. Thank you, for those who provided the liturgical ministries we need for our worship. Thank you, for your generous gifts of prayer, remembrance, and kindness. It won't be long before we enter into the season of Lent: February 14, St. Valentine's Day! (Let's take it easy on the cookies and the treats. We hate to stare at all the things we promised to sacrifice for Lent!) Fr. T.

Diocesan Vocations Director Visits SPPS. Our thanks to Father Chase Hilgenbrink, who spent the day with us at SPPS to encourage consideration of vocations to the priesthood, and give us an idea of what the future looks like for our Church and the Church's priesthood.

Fr. Tony's Retreat and Time Away Schedule, 2024. Hate to admit it, but I think I need it! Hope you understand! I will be on retreat, and at the same time, assisting as spiritual director for St. Louis Archdiocesan seminarians from the afternoon of January 7 through January 12, 2024. And I will be away for rest from February 5 through February 16 - with a brief return to be here for Ash Wednesday, February 14. These commitments will make it impossible for me to return quickly for any emergency needs which may arise. I thank Fr. James for his presence, his increasing assistance in the priestly ministry of our churches and school, and for his availability while I am gone. Fr. T.

A Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
