Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord

JANUARY 7, 2024

Isaiah 60:1-6; Ephesians 3:2-3a,5-6;
Matthew 2:1-12

Among Germans and Latins, Epiphany celebrated primarily the coming of the “three kings” or the Magi. In the ancient Church, Epiphany was the second greatest feast in the Church Year (after Easter!) It celebrated the glorious manifestation of God-in-the-flesh especially in three mysteries: The Magi, the baptism of Jesus, and the wedding feast of Cana. Epiphany is actually older than Christmas as a festival.

Nowadays, Epiphany celebrates the universality of God’s love. The message of the Gospel is for all peoples of all times and all places. It is intended for Gentiles as well as Jews.

Each of the texts of Mass refers to the inclusion of Gentiles (non-Jews) in salvation: “You have revealed your glory to the nations.” (Opening Prayer) “Nations shall walk by your light.” (First Reading) “Lord every nation on earth will adore you.” (Responsorial Psalm) “In Christ Jesus, the Gentiles are now co-heirs with the Jews...” (Second Reading)

The Magi or Wise Men were Gentiles. The irony is that they came from afar to honor the King of kings, while those who were near were either indifferent or hostile. The Bible does not tell us how many Magi there were; it merely says that there were three gifts. The gifts are symbolic: gold for nobility; frankincense for divinity; and myrrh (an embalming spice) prophetic of the Lord’s saving death.

The star has many possible explanations. It may be a literary device. Perhaps it was a celestial phenomenon such as Halley’s Comet or a conjunction of planets. The message is clear: The star leads us to the Light of the World, the One who came to save all peoples of every nation. Wise men follow in faith!

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Blessed Epiphany to you all! Merry Christmas! We are just finishing the 12 days of Christmas and are still in the Season of Christmas! In this weekend's readings we talk about Jerusalem as the light to the nations and Christ as the light of the world witnessed by the Magi. The three kings come to see the prophecy fulfilled in Jesus Christ as the new Jerusalem that is a light for the whole world in the person of Jesus Christ. The wise men bring the good news of Jesus' birth to the whole world. This is truly amazing news as they are witnesses to the fact that Jesus came not just for the Israelites, but for all people and all nations to make them His own. Once you encounter Jesus, all in your life is different, and nothing can be the same! How truly amazing is the encounter of the Magi, and each one of us, with the little baby Jesus, who is our salvation.

Don't forget to take a sheet home, and a new piece of chalk to bless your homes. Don't forget to see the opportunity to consecrate your homes and families and lives to the Lord as we begin this new year! I wish you all a Happy New Year and many blessings to each of you and our parish. We have so much to be thankful for here at St. Francis, may God continue to bless and watch over each and every one of you this coming year! I am so grateful for you, and so excited for the opportunities ahead of us this year to continue our growth and our encounter with the living God in this wonderful parish community, so that we may be witnesses to the whole community around us to who Jesus truly is as King and God and Sacrifice. So excited for what is ahead for our parish!

Blessed Epiphany to you all! Merry Christmas to you all! Blessings and Happy New Year!

Rev. John Aiseman

Holy Name News: Our next Holy Name meeting will be Wednesday, January 10 at 6 p.m. Food and drinks will be served after the meeting. Time to plan for our Ash Wednesday Fish Dinner!

Knights of Columbus News

The Thursday Night Raffle is back with a jackpot over $11,500. Tickets are sold from 6-7:45 with the drawing at 8. We will have Friday Night Chicken Dinners every Friday until Lent when we will switch to Fish Dinners. Serving from 5-7 p.m. Eat in or drive through. $13 will get you more food than you can eat. Sunday morning buffet breakfast this Sunday, January 7. Buffet style, all you can eat for $12. Serving from 8:30-noon. Visit quincykofc.org for more information.

Collection for the Catholic Times — Our nationally honored publication has always been a key communication tool for our diocese. This past year, Catholic Times launched a new website, dio.org/catholic-times that features podcasts, videos, articles, Bishop Paprocki's column and a better search tool.

During the month of January please consider a donation through your second collection envelope or online at dio.org/give to help ensure Catholic Times remains an inexpensive source of Catholic information, education and inspiration.

Thank you!

New in the Parish Library!

Families with toddlers can now stop by our parish library located in the north entry area to pick out some wonderful Catholic board books to read with your children. You may borrow a book for use during Mass and return it after Mass. To take a book home, fill out the corresponding card in the box and return the book within the month. We hope these books will provide many spiritually enriching opportunities for you and your children or other young family members.

Ladies of St. Francis News:

The Ladies of St. Francis wish everyone a Happy New Year!

- Please be thinking about an opportunity to become an officer of the Ladies of St. Francis. In
- May the current officers will have served two years and it's time for some new ladies to take over and try some new and exciting ideas with this wonderful group of faith-filled women.
- Think about this opportunity to share your gifts and talents with this group, your parish and our community. We will organize a nominating committee at our next meeting Tuesday, March 19.
- Please be willing to volunteer! Thank you.
