Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord

JANUARY 7, 2024

Isaiah 60:1-6; Ephesians 3:2-3a,5-6;
Matthew 2:1-12

Among Germans and Latins, Epiphany celebrated primarily the coming of the “three kings” or the Magi. In the ancient Church, Epiphany was the second greatest feast in the Church Year (after Easter!) It celebrated the glorious manifestation of God-in-the-flesh especially in three mysteries: The Magi, the baptism of Jesus, and the wedding feast of Cana. Epiphany is actually older than Christmas as a festival.

Nowadays, Epiphany celebrates the universality of God’s love. The message of the Gospel is for all peoples of all times and all places. It is intended for Gentiles as well as Jews.

Each of the texts of Mass refers to the inclusion of Gentiles (non-Jews) in salvation: “You have revealed your glory to the nations.” (Opening Prayer) “Nations shall walk by your light.” (First Reading) “Lord every nation on earth will adore you.” (Responsorial Psalm) “In Christ Jesus, the Gentiles are now co-heirs with the Jews...” (Second Reading)

The Magi or Wise Men were Gentiles. The irony is that they came from afar to honor the King of kings, while those who were near were either indifferent or hostile. The Bible does not tell us how many Magi there were; it merely says that there were three gifts. The gifts are symbolic: gold for nobility; frankincense for divinity; and myrrh (an embalming spice) prophetic of the Lord’s saving death.

The star has many possible explanations. It may be a literary device. Perhaps it was a celestial phenomenon such as Halley’s Comet or a conjunction of planets. The message is clear: The star leads us to the Light of the World, the One who came to save all peoples of every nation. Wise men follow in faith!

The Epiphany of the Lord Solemnity, January 7, 2024

Dear Parishioners,

Today, we gather to celebrate the Solemnity of the Epiphany. This celebration brings our Christmas season to a close. A general theme for this Solemnity is found in the word light, and the phrase all generations will come to worship and bring gifts. To highlight these themes, the words of Isaiah the prophet are used in our first reading. “Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, and the glory of the Lord shines upon you. Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance. Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you. Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the Lord.” With these words, our magi, or sometimes known as the Kings, now take their place as people from afar to give this newborn King praise and glory. They offer this child gold, to indicate His kingship; they offer Him frankincense, to proclaim His divinity; and they offer Him myrrh, to indicate His sacrificial death. This celebration is truly our Christmas, as the figurines that represent the non-Gentile world are placed in the crib scene as a reflection of each of us. We might ask ourselves, what is it that we offer this newborn king to proclaim our faith in Him? Hoping our offering this new year is our time, talents, and treasures through which we truly do proclaim that Jesus is the number one priority in our lives.

In the universal Church, the Solemnity of the Epiphany was always celebrated on the 12th day after Christmas, January 6, thus having the 12 days of Christmas after and not before Christmas. And when celebrated on January 6, this Solemnity of the Epiphany is a Holy Day of Obligation. But the Catholic Church in the United States transferred this Solemnity to the second Sunday following Christmas. Thus for us and the universal Church it is still a Holy Day. And a point of trivia, according to Venerable Bede (672-735) the Magi represented the three continents of Europe, Asia, and Africa, and the figurines depicted this in the colors of the Magi, being white, yellow, and black. And according to this same Bede their names were Melchior, Gaspar, and Balthasar. Whether there were three, two or more, the theme of our Mass is that this newborn King came for the entire humankind, bringing salvation, reconciliation and redemption to all of us. May each of us, like the Magi, give praise and glory to Him now and forever.

I also want to acknowledge the Duker & Haugh Funeral Home for their gift of our new parish calendars. Each year Ann Haugh and Jared Haugh donate these calendars for our use. If you haven't picked one up yet, we still have some in the narthex. And so on behalf of our parish family, I want to extend my thanks to these people for providing these calendars. If and when you see this family, please thank them for this gift each year.

If you are looking for breakfast plans for this Sunday, January 7, I suggest that you consider the QND Pancake and Sausage breakfast in the cafeteria of QND from 8:30-12:30 p.m. The cost is $9 for adults and $5 for children. All proceeds benefit the Catholic Heart Workcamp trip this summer. Bring your appetite and help support our young people in this ministry to help the poor.

Holy Moments Group

We are looking into starting a weekly informal discussion group based on the book "Holy Moments" by Matthew Kelly. The group would read a few pages from the book and then discuss how God has helped us to recognize and utilize these moments for the good of others. We are looking at meeting on Thursday evenings, around 6:30 p.m. If you are interested, please call Denny Meyer at 217-926-4829.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

As we look ahead I ask you to mark your calendars for Sunday, January 28, as we will be sponsoring our own Pancake and Sausage Breakfast from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in our Grade School Gym. This is a very popular breakfast as it is cooked by Chris Cakes from St. Louis who often challenge customers to catch their own pancakes. It's just a great time for all and I ask you to reserve this date on your calendars.

Also, just to let you know that St. Peter Church was asked by Horizon's Soup Kitchen for a donation to replace their current roof. Horizon's Soup Kitchen has been a fundamental part of our ministry here at St. Peter's for many years. Our parishioners have been helping to serve lunch on the first, third and fifth Mondays of each month. This kitchen serves food for the many people in our community who are in need. Since they are part of our ministry, we decided to make this request a part of our stewardship for this year, contributing our treasures to help our community of Quincy. In response to their request, we gave $15,000.00 to assist them in replacing their roof and thus continue to feed the poor in our community.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE:, Upon going away to college, a young son received a hand mixer from his mother because of his fondness for mashed potatoes. Later that semester, she asked him how the mixer was working for him. "Not very good," the son told his mother, "the potatoes keep flying all over the kitchen." After a perplexed pause, his mother asked, "Did you cook the potatoes first?" to which the son responded, "you have to cook the potatoes first?"

My dear Friends in Christ,

Catholic Times has always been a key communication tool for our diocese. Whether it is important announcements, teaching the faith, or inspirational stories, the magazine provides tremendous value to readers. That was apparent this past year with a special edition highlighting the rich history of our diocese when we celebrated the 100th anniversary of the transfer of the See city from Alton to Springfield and a special edition that captured the historical Eucharistic Congress in Springfield.

We were also given this powerful story this past year from one of our parishes. In one of their bible studies, the topic of Confession came up. Two women mentioned that they had went to Confession after many decades because of the encouragement found in 2021 special edition of Catholic Times that focused solely on the sacrament. They both said they had saved their copy because it was so good, helpful, and encouraging!

For another consecutive year, Catholic Times received a national award from the Catholic Media Association's national awards program. Also new this past year, Catholic Times launched a new website, dio.org/catholictimes that features podcasts, videos, articles, my column, and a better search tool.

Catholic Times remains dedicated to helping Catholics better understand the Catholic faith through their Hey, Father! series, addressing complex issues in bioethics, and explaining the significance of sacraments. Feature reporting stands as a cornerstone of the magazine, spotlighting narratives of individuals, parishes, and schools actively contributing to the growth of the Kingdom of God within our diocese. The magazine's steadfast commitment to local coverage ensures that each edition brings forth stories relevant to readers' lives, showcasing contributions from familiar faces, including both laity and clergy.

My column, "Lex Cordis Caritas," is one of the best ways I can speak about the issues we face as Catholics and update readers on important decisions I make that impact the faithful.

It is all these reasons why I believe Catholic Times should be available to every household in our diocese, either digitally or by mail. During the weekend of January 6/7, 2024, please encourage your parishioners to respond gratefully in support of this communication tool so we can ensure Catholic Times remains an inexpensive source of Catholic information, education, and inspiration.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Thomas John Paprocki
