Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FEBRUARY 11, 2024

Leviticus 13:1-2,44-46;

1 Corinthians 10:31-11:1; Mark 1:40-45

Biblical leprosy was not usually Hansen's Disease. The term leprosy was applied to any highly contagious and awful looking skin disease, such as ringworm, scabies, impetigo, and so on. From experience, people knew that these diseases were contagious. Therefore they isolated a person until he was cured.

The isolation may seem very cruel to us, but we must remember that they did not know how to cure these diseases, and they didn't want anyone to be infected. There was a very elaborate ritual for declaring a "leper" cleansed; this may be found in Leviticus 14.

The Gospel tells of Jesus' cure of a leper. He stretched out his hand and touched him! This was forbidden by the Torah for obvious reasons. But Jesus has such compassion that he not only uses words to cure; he touches the afflicted man.

In Mark's Gospel, Jesus does not want people to get the wrong idea of his messiahship; therefore he tells those he has cured to "keep it quiet." Unfortunately the cleansed leper shouts it to the roof tops. People press and crowd Jesus; he can scarcely move about freely.

The Church sees "sin" as the spiritual leprosy. Only Jesus can cure us. And he can cure us only if we want to be cleansed. Nowadays, too many people deny their leprosy. They act as if there is no sin; they deny that the Church has a right to teach on what is sin. If we would be cured, we must first admit our problem; then humbly approach the Lord.

The second reading urges us to offer everything for the greater honor and glory of God. We can give God glory at work, at play, at prayer, and in whatever we do. Let us always offer everything we are, have, say, and do for God's glory.

6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This weekend our readings not only focus on healing of leprosy, tells us of bringing one effectively back to life, but also Jesus taking their place in their death. Leprosy, or any skin ailments, meant you were not only excluded from the temple worship, but society as a whole. Jesus heals the man, effectively bringing him back from dead of being as an outcast of worship and society. This is an act of God alone who can heal leprosy and bring back from the dead. Jesus is a good Jew and tells the man to take himself to the priests to be declared clean so he may return to the community and right to worship. The man does not do this because, effectively, Mark is telling us this man has already brought himself to a priest, the great high priest Jesus Christ. Because of this healing and this man telling everyone, the man who couldn't be a part of the community because of his leprosy may once again return to the community, but Jesus must leave the community and hide in the deserted places because of the amount of people that come to him. He trades places with the leper. If Jesus can heal leprosy, then what else can He do, because this means He is God or has divine power. The leper didn't just wait for Jesus to come to Him but ran to find Jesus even against all odds and breaking all norms to get to Him. What are you waiting for? Run to him! Be healed! Be raised! Be made new!

This week we begin Lent, Mass times and Ash times are as they have been since I have been here. Remember this isn't a holy day of obligation, so mass isn't necessary, and honestly neither are ashes, but that's why ash services are allowed. Mass at 6:30, 8:35, and 5:30. Ash Services are 12:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. Please remember if you are coming to get your ashes, you should also be fasting and abstaining from meat this Wednesday. You should be fasting from something this Lent, make it achievable, achievable doesn't mean easy, but does mean don't pick something impossible (i.e. I won't eat this Lent). BUT also, you should be giving alms this Lent, whether that be the rice bowls, or maybe try giving more than normal in the weekend collection, or give to Catholic Charities, or to some other good Catholic institution or charity. BUT you should also be doing something more in prayer. Add a few passages or stories from scripture reading into your day, maybe start the podcast bible or catechism in a year, read a paragraph from a spiritual book every day, add the rosary or chaplet of divine mercy every day, or learn morning prayer or evening prayer or night prayer from the Liturgy of the Hours and pray one or all of these during Lent. We have a multitude of prayerful experiences, do them. Maybe as part of your Lenten practices you will do something extra or kind for someone every day. Don't just give up soda or candy or liquor, although these are good things to give up, what I am saying is don't stop there. Give up something, Give something, and Give more time in conversation with God. Lent isn't a taking away, but a giving more of oneself to the Lord.

Happy Scout Sunday! As an Eagle Scout and still involved as a scouter, I could not urge you more to put your children in the scouting program. BSA changed my life for the better and made me better prepared for life, for priesthood, and to be your pastor. Everyone puts sports first, but I am telling you the experiences and discipline and growth in self-awareness and knowledge they will have in scouting will overshadow any other program you could give your child, especially with the amazing program we have here at St. Francis.

Lastly, I will be on the Women's Cursillo #366 this Thursday to Sunday. Please pray for the candidates, the team, and me, as we enter into this retreat weekend to deepen our relationship with the Lord.

Rev. Steven A. Hannon

Are you a dedicated and experienced professional with a passion for serving your community?

Our parish is seeking a talented Business Manager to play a crucial role in supporting our mission and ensuring the efficient administration of our parish operations.

Position Overview: The Parish Business Manager will oversee the financial management, human resources, and day-to-day business operations of the parish.

Desired qualifications include: Proven experience in Business Administration, Finance, or a related field; strong interpersonal and communication skills and a commitment to the parish's mission; experience with QuickBooks, Excel, HR, and payroll preferred.

Sue Holbrook, sholbrook@stfrancisolanus.com or to:
Parish Office, 1721 College Ave., Quincy, IL., 62301.

Join us for a Lenten Parish Mission

Awake My Soul!

March 3, 4 and 5 at 7:00 each evening.

Our speaker will be Dr. Karen Shadle, Director of the Office of Worship for the Archdiocese of Louisville.

The liturgies of Lent and Holy Week call us to look and listen; to be still and behold.

Through a series of three talks incorporating scripture, music and prayer, this mission will challenge us to be more receptive to the Church's great beauty, to re-awaken our imagination, and ultimately to make ourselves more available to encounters with Jesus in the sacraments and in our lives.

Day 1: The Lost Art of Beholding

Day 2: Beauty that Saves

Day 3: The Church's Treasure Chest

We hope to see you there!
