From the Pastor's desk....

Did you see him? At mass last weekend I mentioned to look for “who is receiving ashes on their head” during the Super Bowl commercial. Well, it was a beautiful commercial during the big game—and the man receiving ashes was the actor who plays Jesus on the television series. Powerful. I hope you were able to see that, along with the actor, Mark Wahlberg, who does the speaking. He leaves us at the end of a commercial with some good words—“stay prayed up this Lent”. To stay prayed up means that one is keeping up with their prayers. I hope that as we begin this holy time you will “stay prayed up” these 40 days.

What would you like to do for Lent? What will you do to make Lent different from the rest of the year? Lent is a special time for us to think about our relationship with Jesus. We journey through Lent, to the Triduum, to Easter, to Pentecost. May all these holy days, from now until Pentecost, go well for you. May they be good, healthy, and holy.

Peace.....Fr. Jeff

40 CANS FOR LENT

As we continue our Lenten journey of sacrifice and giving, we ask you to consider donating to the SVDP food pantry at Christ the King. We have many clients who can use a variety of items. Please drop them off at Masses anytime, weekday or weekend, in the bins by the elevator. You can donate any items you wish, but these are a few popular items the pantry is asking for if you need help deciding. All items are welcome though:

Pasta sauce, barbecue sauce, salsa, cooking oil, condiments, macaroni and cheese, chicken noodle soup, pancake mix and syrup, non-sweetened cereals, white 13 gallon trash bags, zip-lock bags (storage or sandwich), dish soap, laundry detergent, paper towels, and toilet paper.

We could also use brown grocery bags.

Thank you for your generosity and may God bless you on your Lenten journey.
