Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FEBRUARY 4, 2024

Job 7:1-4,6-7; 1 Corinthians 9:16-19,22-23;
Mark 1:29-39

From time to time, we need time outs! A spiritual retreat is a good time out for all of us. It is a time when we rest from our ordinary work and routine, a time to get away in silence in order to realize our purpose in life.

Too often, our lives can be the same-old same-old. Even the work we enjoy can become drudgery. We can end up just “existing” rather than “living.”

In the first reading, Job laments that our lives are drudgery. The nights drag on; the day brings no relief. Job, of course, knew nothing of the Paschal Mystery. He knew nothing of offering his agony in union with Christ for the salvation of the world. He knew nothing of eternal happiness which awaits the good and faithful servant.

Even Jesus, in today’s Gospel, experiences the drudgery of life. In Mark’s Gospel, as we have often noted, Jesus always seems to be pushed, shoved, hemmed in, pressed upon, and crowded. He wants to get away, but they track him down. They almost hound him, even when he is trying to pray. His vocation is to proclaim good news to all the neighboring villages, but they won’t let him go.

The second reading is Paul’s apologia: He is “compelled” to preach the Gospel. If he does not, he is ruined. But in preaching the Gospel, he experienced misunderstanding and opposition. People questioned his motives. Yet he tries to become all things to all people in order to save all.

Most of us do not have a full time vocation of preaching. On the other hand, we are all called to perfection. We are called, according to our state in life, to spread “good news.” We need some time outs and some space to realize this is so. We need to realize that even our ordinary work is of precious value when offered in union with Christ.

Let us try for a spiritual retreat. At least, let us set aside a few moments of quiet time each day to “be still and know that God is God.”

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time, February 4, 2024

Dear Parishioners,

After an interesting month of January regarding the weather that we endured, we turn the page on that month and begin a new one. The good part of beginning this new month is that we are closer to Spring. And at this stage of the game with sickness that has afflicted many of us, the gloominess of the weather patterns, Spring can not come soon enough. So let us all live in anticipation of the thought of warmer weather and the sun shining brightly.

This weekend we celebrate the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Our gospel finds Jesus facing a continual barrage of people seeking His time and His space. What He desired was a quiet place to pray, a time of solitude to be at one with His Father. Yet, people were continually around Him always looking for something, be it a healing, His words of wisdom, or His own desire to preach the gospel. And that Jesus would do. His life was truly lived for others. Prayer was important to Him but so were the people to whom He was sent to preach and teach. This is our Messiah, this is our Savior. And the beautiful part is that He has time for each of us. We need to take the time to be with Him in prayer.

This weekend we kick-off our capital campaign entitled “Upon this Rock.” Does the title of our campaign sound familiar to you? It should since anyone who knows much about St. Peter realizes that God chose Peter, named him the Rock, and then would build His Church upon him. What a beautiful imagery of what we are trying to do in this capital campaign. I don’t know about you, but in undertaking this campaign, I was very much in need of a rock upon which I could depend to help this campaign be successful. And our patron saint is that very rock that will assist us in succeeding in all our endeavors. And so I place my confidence and trust in this rock of our faith as we do our best to continue to grow St. Peter Parish and School in this capital campaign.

As I look at our history, I am just amazed that our forefathers knew and understood the importance of a Church was for any community of believers. Soon after the importance of this place of worship would come a place of education where the faith was nurtured, challenged, and helped to grow. And so our St. Peter School would go hand in hand with the growth of our Church, as school was seen fulfilling the mission of our Church. It’s amazing that the St. Peter School that we have today was at one time both the Church on one level and the school on another level. Worship and education, praise and knowledge, all essential elements of a parish Church and School. And we continue to operate this same vision today. Ever since I have been pastor of St. Peter, we have tried to grow our parish and our school. This campaign continues that same growth as we finally commit ourselves to a self-contained school with a cafeteria attached, thus securing our buildings a little more. With this commitment, it then frees our current cafeteria to become a new parish center for the parish, allowing more space for meetings and other gatherings. This vision of a cafeteria and parish center has been the center of conversation for the many years that I have been pastor, hearing it quite often from parishioners. I am hoping and praying that the words that I have been hearing now become concrete in this new capital campaign.

Week of February 4, 2024

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

AGING OVERNIGHT

Kindergarten celebrated 100 day by dressing as if they were 100 years old! Throughout the day they participated in various activities. Each year the kindergarten students look forward to this special recognition of the 100th day of School.

IT'S PRESCHOOL REGISTRATION TIME

We are excited that it is time to begin registering students for our preschool classes for the 2024-2025 school year. St. Peter School is happy to offer a faith-based program specifically designed to help meet the spiritual, social, emotional, physical, and intellectual needs of the preschool age child. We strive to provide an atmosphere of love, concern, support, and acceptance while developing a positive self-concept. We want to instill in the child an attitude that learning is fun. A firsthand approach to a wide range of activities encourages the preschool child to explore, create, experiment, and learn the skills and concepts appropriate to their development level.

But I have to be honest with you. I am very anxious about this project and if I am totally honest I am a bit fearful of undertaking it. But as I said, this campaign was the result of what parishioners have told me about a need in both our school and our parish. We have been great stewards of our treasures, and have reflected our thankfulness to God for His gifts with the generous support to our parish and school. I only hope that you will continue to be those stewards for we are undertaking some capital improvements which will continue to advance St. Peter Parish and School. May the rock whose name we reflect be with us to guide and direct us in our efforts.

After our Mass today, I invite you to the cafeteria of our school, downstairs of our Church, to view some architectural renderings which will give you a model of what our capital improvements are. There will be people downstairs to answer any questions. So please join us for snacks after the 5:00 p.m. Mass and coffee and donuts after the Masses on Sunday.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE:

A husband and wife were having a heated argument. This is how the conversation went:

Husband: "When I get mad at you, you never fight back. How do you control your anger?"

Wife: "I clean the toilet."

Husband: "How does that help?"

Wife: "I use your toothbrush."

Project Rachel

Help for women and men to heal from the pain of abortion. For assistance call 1-877-RACHEL-5.

Reporting Allegations of Child Sexual Abuse

To report allegations of sexual abuse of a minor by clergy or other church personnel -- even if it is in the past -- individuals are encouraged to call the Diocese's Child Abuse Reporting and Investigation number at (217) 321-1155. Individuals may also contact Illinois Department of Children and Family Services Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.25.ABUSE.

Addiction Issues?

Is someone you love struggling with addiction issues? Please consider joining us to discuss how the church can be a resource for those who are affected by addiction. We will be exploring the issue through reading a short book "The Road to Hope" by Keaton Douglas. This book examines how the i-THIRST initiative, a comprehensive, faith-based approach to education, is transforming the way the Catholic Church understands and responds to persons struggling with addiction. For more information, contact Carol Frericks 217-316-6711.

40 Days for Life

The 40 Days for Life Campaign begins on Ash Wednesday, February 14. 40 Days for Life is a national peaceful prayer outreach. We are asked to increase our prays and abstaining/fasting to seek an end to abortion. And to keep the abortion industry's centers, mobile units and drugs from coming into Quincy and the surrounding Adams County.

Many Thanks!

Thanks to you the Giving Wreath was a great success! The 850+ gifts to 8 different organizations produced much gratitude and smiles. Cornerstone is one of those organizations. They have shared some of the heartwarming experiences that came from your generosity...

We would like to thank the St. Peter Social Concerns Committee for the generous donations we were able to provide for our families at Christmas time.

One family who has no ties to the area and is just learning about community resources was overwhelmed by your generosity and stated, "I'm so happy that my baby has toys for Christmas."

A young family was so excited and surprised to receive gifts for Christmas and stated, "I can't believe that people who don't even know us are willing to give us gifts."

Another family had unexpected expenses when December arrived, and both parents work but were unable to purchase items for Christmas. Although they said, "it doesn't matter, they're young anyway, they won't know" we were able to provide them with gifts for their children as well as a gift card for the parents to get a good Christmas dinner.

A single mom who is awarded child support but does not receive it cried when we delivered her gifts to her and her two young children. She was overwhelmed by your generosity. (even if a parent is awarded child support but doesn't receive it, the amount will often push them over the limit for assistance, which is the case with her).

There are many, many, more stories like these. And we just wanted to share a few with you.

All these parents work, as do many others who are enrolled in our program, but barely make enough to survive. So, it was wonderful to share your generosity with them and provide hope and support during the holiday season.

St. Peter Social Concerns is very vital to our program with your assistance at Christmas and your ongoing support with the Covered Bottoms Diaper Bank.

And we just wanted to thank you for all you do for those in the community!!!

Raquel, Kate, Jennifer, First Steps Team!!

Please know that your sacrifice in giving to others makes our community a better place!

May God Bless you 100-fold!

Sincerely,

Your Social Concerns Committee
