Pastor's Letter

March 10, 2024—4th Sunday of Lent

Dear Church Family

Included in the readings for today is one of the most beautiful of the psalms, Psalm 137:

By the streams of Babylon
we sat and wept
when we remembered Zion.
On the aspens of that land
we hung up our harps.
For there our captors asked of us
the lyrics of our songs,
And our despoilers urged us to be joyous:
“Sing for us the songs of Zion!”
How could we sing a song of the LORD
in a foreign land?
If I forget you, Jerusalem,
may my right hand be forgotten!
May my tongue cleave to my palate
if I remember you not,
If I place not Jerusalem ahead of my joy.

This psalm so touchingly conveys the longing of the heart for home. And home is not just a physical locality. In our first reading for today we read in 2 Chronicles how Israel came to be separated from the land promised to them by God because they had separated themselves from God by their sinfulness. The worst part of their homesickness is this alienation from God and the knowledge that they have no one to blame for it but themselves.

God wants nothing more than to be close to us and share himself with us. But we don't always let God come close. Sometimes we prefer to distance ourselves from him by doing things that may give us pleasure for a short time, but ultimately leave us empty, dissatisfied, and damaged. Then we become ashamed, and we try to run from God. As our Gospel reading says, “And this is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light, because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed.” The farther we sink into sin, the more we try to hide in the darkness and the deeper into sin we fall.

But however bad our sins may be, God never gives up on us. “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.” God always leaves the light of his love burning for us so that we can find our way back to him. That light is Christ himself who came into the world to seek us out and to bring us home. May God help us to trust his love, leave behind our guilt, and come into the light. Then we will be able to joyfully sing the songs of Zion in the New Jerusalem that is to come.

Blessings,
Fr. Scott

Quincy Deanery DCCW

For All Women: The flyer and sign-up sheet for the next Quincy Deanery DCCW for our Spring gathering Wednesday, April 3, 2024, in Pittsfield can be found in your church lobby.

Our theme for this gathering is Confession: Mercy, Justice, and Forgiveness. We learn, pray, and gather new information and ideas to take back to our parishes and families and in the process make new friends and further our Faith. Bring along a friend to spend the day with us in Historic Pittsfield. The sign-up sheet gives our host church an idea on how many to plan for lunch.

Our Lady of Good Counsel is our Spiritual Director and has led us in all our gatherings. Please come and find out what Our Lady is calling you to. Please call 217-653-6716 with any questions you might have. Claudia Coggeshall-President of Quincy DCCW

Women's Cursillo Weekend

There will be a women's Cursillo weekend on April 11 - 14 at the Quincy University Retreat center. It is an opportunity to renew and refresh your faith and to broaden your appreciation of our church. The weekend begins on Thursday evening and continues with fellowship, good food, singing, worship, prayer and meditation through Sunday afternoon. There are registration forms in the back of church or you may contact Connie Bealor for more information. 217-440-6886.

St. Edward Adoration

Adoration follows the 8 a.m., First Friday Mass every month and goes until 12:30 p.m.

Please call Margie Kendrick to sign up 217-936-2365. We would like at least 2 people each hour.

PSR News!

St. Joseph Children's Masses

Please look at the March PSR Newsletter for your child's ministry role in our upcoming PSR Children's Masses! If you are unable to attend your PSR Parish Mass, please let Emily know ASAP so we are able to find coverage for your child's assigned role.

St. Joseph's PSR Children's Mass will be on Sunday, March 17 at 9:00 a.m. Mass.

Special Guest

The past couple of weeks we have had Fr. Scott and Fr. James Wheeler attend our PSR classes to give our students 3-8 the sacrament of Reconciliation! We still have our fourth graders from St. Brigid to go, but don't worry, we won't forget them! A BIG THANK YOU TO FR. SCOTT AND FR. JAMES for donating their time to this beautiful Sacrament!

2nd Graders

All of our second graders will be receiving the Sacrament of their First Reconciliation on Tuesday, March 19 at St. Joseph's Church at 6 p.m. Please see the March PSR Newsletter and parent letter that is attached for more information! Check out Emily's video on Facebook for a short tour/tutorial on the Sacrament at St. Joseph's Church – this might help your child with nerves, especially if he/she has never been to St. Joseph's Church before!

3rd Graders

The next Sponsor/Candidate meeting will be on Tuesday, April 2 from 6-7 p.m. at St. Joseph's Hall for all three Parish PSR third graders. IF your child's sponsor is unable to attend, please send a parent/guardian in his/her place! Confirmation and First Communion will take place at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Springfield on Saturday, May 4.

4th Graders at St. Edward

Our fourth grade class from St. Edward had a guest teacher a couple weeks ago – Father Scott! The students enjoyed learning about vestments, the meaning of what Fr. Scott (and all priests) wear for Mass & how it dates back to Roman times, the liturgical year, and what each color means. THANK YOU FR. SCOTT!!

Virtue of the Month—FORTITUDE

At times, we may all experience timidity, which are moments where we avoid doing what is right because we are afraid. On the other hand, there may be times that we do not feel scared and act foolishly by doing things that are unnecessary, dangerous, and not very smart. The virtue of fortitude helps us overcome being timid and foolish. Acts of fortitude will require overcoming some obstacle or difficulty. Many times making sacrifices are necessary to do what God wants you to do. You may have to sacrifice your time, effort, comfort, or popularity to do God's will. Using patience and perseverance will help you master the virtue of fortitude. Remember to pray to the Holy Spirit for fortitude when facing a difficult situation/decision!

Lenten Obligation

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.
