Fifth Sunday of Lent

MARCH 17, 2024

Jeremiah 31:31-34; Hebrews 5:7-9;
John 12:20-33

[There are alternate Biblical texts that may be used for the first and second readings.]

Sixteen centuries ago, there was no special Mass on this Sunday in Rome. All Rome gathered in St. Peter's Basilica on Saturday evening for an all night vigil. At the conclusion of the Vigil, the pope ordained priests, and all celebrated the Eucharist.

This is the background for today's readings. The unifying theme is "priesthood" – not just the ministerial priesthood, but your priesthood by your baptism and confirmation.

The entire Gospel of John is summarized in the prologue: "He came unto his own, and his own received him not...but to as many as received him, he gave the power of becoming children of God."

The first half of John's Gospel is called the "Book of Signs." By seven signs, Jesus replaces the forms and institutions of Judaism with something new and better. (For example, manna is to be replaced by the Eucharist; the Torah is to be replaced by the living water of the Spirit in baptism.) Unfortunately, "his own" did not accept him.

Today's Gospel selection is the climax of the Gospel: "His own" did not receive him, but Gentiles (Greeks) came to him: "To as many as received him, he gave the power to become children of God!" Jesus proclaims that now he is glorified! His priesthood extends to the world.

And what is the essence of that priesthood? It is his self-giving: "Whoever loves his life loses it; whoever hates his life in this world preserves it for life eternal." Our share in Christ's priesthood is to "lose ourselves" in him in the service of others.

The second reading proclaims that Christ was heard because of his obedience. We, too, share in his priesthood when we joyfully accept our crosses.

The first reading, from Jeremiah, proclaims that the new covenant will be written on hearts and not on stone. We are the living stones of the temple of God. Through baptism and confirmation we are called to bring this world to God, and to bring God to the world.

Today we celebrate the third and final Scrutiny.

Fifth Sunday of Lent, March 17, 2024

Dear Parishioners,

Today the Church celebrates the Fifth Sunday in our season of Lent. During the 9:30 a.m. Mass, we will celebrate the Fifth and last scrutiny for our Elect (unbaptized). It is also during this Mass that we will have the readings from cycle A instead of B, with emphasis upon the resurrection. We find in our first reading in this cycle, words of the prophet Ezekiel, who quotes God as saying, "O my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them." Is this not our hope? Is this not what Jesus promises for those who are faithful? What a reassuring reading for all of us who have this hope in the resurrection. Finally, in this same cycle, we have our gospel which is the story of the death and burial of Lazarus. It's a beautiful reading which takes the words of the prophet Ezekiel and translates them into Jesus who truly does open up the grave of Lazarus and restores him to life. These readings help us prepare the prayers for our scrutiny today which challenge our Elect to realize that through their baptisms, the thought of death is now only a door that leads to eternal life. Jesus has conquered sin, thereby conquering death, and we now live in the hope that we can share in the life and glory of Christ.

For those of us who will be hearing the Cycle B readings, we are introduced to what is called the Paschal Mystery, namely, Jesus' suffering, death, and resurrection. This is the fundamental mystery of our faith. John introduces this mystery with the image of a grain of wheat. He tells us that "unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit." Like the cycle A readings, this image used by Jesus proclaims that death is not the end but a door that opens us to a far greater reality, namely, life with our God in heaven. This is the most glorious fruit gifted to us. We need not fear death, for Jesus Christ has conquered it and given us the hope for a risen life with Him forever. And how is this available to us? Jesus tells us in that same reading, "whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be." May all of us through our renewal of our baptismal promises, promise to serve the Lord in every aspect of our lives.

Next weekend, the Church will celebrate Palm Sunday and the beginning of Holy Week. For those who have not yet had the opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation, there is still time before Easter. There will be a city wide Penance Service next Sunday, March 24, at 2:00 p.m. at Blessed Sacrament Church. There will be a number of priests present for individual confessions. So I challenge you to set this time aside and not wait until the last minute. We will have special designated times on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday morning and these will be in our bulletins for next week.

In this year of the Eucharistic renewal, we are giving our parishioners an opportunity for prayer before the Blessed Sacrament this Sunday from 6:00-7:00 p.m. As you know during the season of Lent, the Church calls for us to pray and there is no greater prayer than in front of the Blessed Sacrament present on our altar. So come as a family and pray as a family before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. It will truly be time well spend. For further details, please read the bulletin.

For those of you who are of Irish descent, I wish all of you a very Happy St. Patrick's Day. I remind all of you whether Irish, German, or whatever, to join the parishioners of St. Rose Church for their annual Irish dinner this Sunday with a drive through dinner served from 11:00-6:00 p.m. or if you'd like to drive a little further, to join the parishioners of St. Patrick Church, St. Patrick, Missouri for their Irish Day at the Shrine of St. Patrick.

Spring break for our students begins next Monday, March 25 and extends all week. With no school that week, it gives our young people no excuse to attend the Triduum celebrations, namely, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday Vigil. Speaking of the Triduum, our Holy Thursday celebration will begin at 7:00 p.m. followed by adoration until 11:00 p.m. I will publish some times next week so that the hours are covered by parishioners. Our Good Friday celebration will also begin at 7:00 p.m. Then on Holy Saturday, the Easter Vigil will begin at 8:00 p.m. Our Easter Masses will be 8:00, 9:30, and 11:00 a.m.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: An Irishman by the name of O'Malley proposed to his girlfriend on St. Patrick's Day. He gave her a ring with a synthetic diamond. The excited young lass showed it to her father, a jeweler. He took one look at it and saw it wasn't real. The young lass, on learning it wasn't real, returned to her future husband and protested vehemently about his cheapness. "It was in honor of St. Patrick's Day," he smiled. "I gave you a sham rock."

Lent, 2024

Dear Friends in Christ, During Lent, we're invited to deepen our relationship and unite our hearts more fully with God and with one another.
 We can do this in an intentional way through the Catholic tradition of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. CRS Rice Bowl — Catholic Relief Services' Lenten faith-in-action program—invites us to encounter God and our global family by practicing these Lenten pillars and by reflecting on how the Eucharist—the Bread of Life—compels us to share bread for life with all members of our human family.
 Through stories, videos and lesson plans, your community will learn about our Gospel call to care for our common home so we can respond to global issues such as hunger and malnutrition and push back on climate change.
 CRS Rice Bowl provides resources to bring Lenten spirituality to life for families, parishes and school communities while continuing to connect Catholics in our diocese with our global human family. I encourage you to order a CRS Rice Bowl poster to display in your communal space and enough Rice Bowls with Lenten calendars for each family in your community. These free materials are available in English and Spanish. You may also visit crsricebowl.org or crsplatodearroz.org to find additional resources, including:

- . Devotions, like the Stations of the Cross, and prayers.
- . Lesson plans, videos and activity sheets for Catholic school teachers and religious educators.
- . Ideas for community gatherings and simple Lenten meal events.

Thank you for inviting families in your faith community to join us for an enriching Lenten journey through CRS Rice Bowl. Together, we can respond to Christ's call to help people in need and ensure everyone reaches his or her God-given potential.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,
 Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
