Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

FROM THE RECTOR

The liturgical celebration of Our Lord's triumphal entrance into Jerusalem along with the first proclamation of the Lord's Passion are set before our eyes today with great simplicity making the experience of them even more profound. The sacred liturgy begins with the blessing of palms and a procession which call to the mind the Lord's joyful entrance into Jerusalem. Our ritual participation draws us into the events that took place two thousand years ago when our Savior entered His city in order to redeem His people. Holy Mass follows! Now we the faithful must confront the sorrow of the Redeemer's Passion and the part our sins have played in the Lord's suffering. Entrance into today's mysteries brings us one step closer to the holiest of days when we celebrate the triumph of life over death and the victory of mercy and sacrifice over selfishness and sin. All of our preparations during this Lenten pilgrimage were undertaken to aid us in not turning away from the horror of the Cross; rather, we have prayed, fasted, and sacrificed in order to rejoice in the victory the Cross brings to each of us. Life entails suffering and even now we are beset with the burdens of sin and sacrifice that overwhelm us. The life of faith calls us to confess that Christ conquers sin, suffering and death upon the Cross once for all. We adore thee O Christ and we bless thee, because by thy holy Cross you have redeemed the world!

THE NAMED DAYS OF HOLY WEEK

Most Catholics are familiar with titles for days in Holy Week such as "Palm Sunday" and "Good Friday." But actually, coming from the English Catholic tradition, each day of Holy Week has a special nickname. See the short explanation here:

- Palm Sunday: The day of Our Lord's triumphal entry into Jerusalem celebrated with palm branches.
- Fig Monday: Traditionally the gospel reading for this day was the passage where Our Lord curses the fig tree that does not bear fruit.
- Temple Tuesday: Traditionally the gospel reading for this day was the passage where Our Lord cleanses the temple.
- Spy Wednesday: Because this is the day when Judas (the spy) performed his wicked dealing with the pharisees.
- Maundy Thursday: The day on which we have the custom of the mandatum (the washing of the feet).
- Good Friday: The day of our redemption.
- Holy Saturday: The beginning of the Paschal celebration.

In other languages such as Italian, all of the days of Holy Week simply have the title "Holy" like our Holy Saturday. It is only in English that we find this memorable diversity of nicknames. Here at the Oratory, we thought it a nomenclature worth reviving.
