Third Sunday of Easter

APRIL 14, 2024

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19; 1 John 2:1-5a;
Luke 24:35-48

Two key words are found in each of today's three Scripture readings: sin and forgiveness. The last sentence of the first reading is: "Reform your lives...that your sins may be wiped away." The second reading tells us that Jesus is "an offering for our sins and for those of the whole world." The last sentence of the Gospel is: "In his (Jesus') name penance for the remission of sins is to be preached to all the nations...."

Sin is real. It is not merely a social maladjustment. It is not merely dysfunction. Sin is a willful offense against God. Usually we offend God by offending other people; we rarely attack God directly. When we offend one of God's children, we slap God in the face; we offend him. Jesus said that what we do to others, we do to him; and what we neglect to do to others, we neglect to do to him.

We can never "make up for" sin. We can apologize to others and make it right with them, but we cannot make up for our offense against God. But just as there is sin, so also there is forgiveness. Our sins can only be forgiven because of the saving suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ! He gave himself in order that we might be forgiven.

If we are grateful for his gift of salvation, we must turn away from sin. We must do all in our power to avoid sin. We must strive to "make it right" with those whom we have offended. There is no forgiveness without a genuine plan to avoid sin for the future.

Let us be grateful for the salvation which Jesus has brought to us. Let us be willing to humble ourselves to face our sins honestly. Let us be confident that we can have forgiveness because of the Lord's mercy – if only we seek to change our ways.

3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

This weekend's Gospel seems like a repeat. It kind of is, but it's from Luke's perspective. The encounter with the risen Christ, bringing us his peace. It's an end to the Emmaus story and a recounting of Jesus explaining the scriptures more to the apostles and all their fulfillment. In the Acts of the Apostles this weekend, I think the important thing is not only the proclamation of the gospel, but the calling to conversion. Once we've encountered the risen Christ, we need to bring about a conversion of heart to make his our own. We continue to be called to be witnesses to all these things Christ has done.

Starting this weekend at the 11 o'clock mass, the precious blood will be offered. We don't need any more communion ministers, but the two that stand along the pew will stand along the corner of the sanctuary to distribute the precious blood.

Also at all of the masses from now on the extraordinary ministers of holy communion won't stand behind the altar they will stand on the presiders chair side of the altar. This makes it easier to see if we have enough communion ministers without always having to turn around. When you're done distributing communion, you'll return to that location until the ciborium is placed back in the tabernacle, then you may be seated. This will also come out in a letter to the Eucharistic ministers soon.

Also, parish council has requested that I remind everyone that as the warmer months approach to make sure we remember the solemnity of what we are attending in consideration of our Mass attire. We should look like we are going to an important dinner with the king of the universe not dressed for a party or the pool. Most especially if you are reading or ushering or being an Extraordinary minister of Holy Communion. Please dress appropriately for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass especially if you have a specific role of any sort in the liturgy. More info will be going out to all ministers of any sort for Mass soon. We are keeping with the dress code and policy of dress of my predecessors, Fr. Don and Fr. Bob, in what they put out. Parish council members are asking you to please be cognizant of the reverence Mass should entail.

Please pray for our confirmation candidates as they prepare for their confirmation and first communion April 20 at the Cathedral in Springfield. How very exciting of a moment in these students lives.

Lastly, this weekend on Friday evening, April 12, we had 4 men ordained to the diaconate. We ordained 3 transitional deacons and 1 permanent deacon. How very exciting for our Diocese! Please pray for them as they begin their ministry! May God bless them.

What is a card party? What do you do at a card party?

The answer—Card parties are the main fundraiser for the Ladies of St. Francis. The money raised is used to support our parish and community. Some of the items we have supported recently include the new HVAC system, vestments for the priests, cleaning/polishing of the candelabras, purchase of supplies for the parish center and requested special projects, to name a few. The parties are held on the first Thursday in March, April, May, and September, October, and November in the Parish Center. Parishioners and non-parishioners may attend. A $10 cost per person includes a lunch and the chance for a door prize. There is a 50/50 and other raffles you can enter. Guests play cards, board games, dominoes, or whatever they wish.

We serve an estimated 160 to 170 people at each card party. This past March we served 180. We try to call each family during the year to ask for a $10 donation if you are not attending the party. This donation offsets the cost of expenses (mostly food). If you would like to donate, for one card party or each party, just place your donation in the collection basket. Mark it "card party," and put your name and telephone number on the envelope. You will be entered into a separate drawing for a $25 gift card to the Gene Grawe Fund.

Volunteers Needed

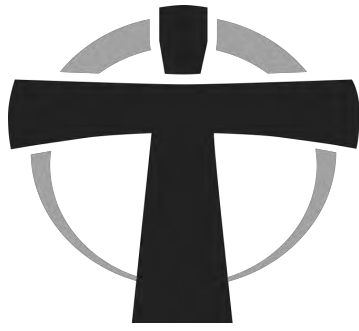

Date: Saturday, June 8, 2024, 5 p.m.-Midnight.

The committee thanks all those who will be working and/or donating to the picnic to make it a success.

Religious Artwork in Classrooms: One of our goals is increasing the presence of our Catholic faith in our school.
One current goal is placing religious artwork in every classroom of our school building. We are seeking 8x10 or 11X16 pictures of religious art in different styles of art that are ready to hang. No glass please for safety reasons. The pictures may be new or gently used. We have some examples of artwork on our Amazon.com wish list, but it is not required to be purchased from there. Mrs. Radel hopes to accomplish this goal by the end of next school year.
