of Easter*

APRIL 21 2024

Acts 4:8-12; 1 John 3:1-2;
John 10:11-18

Today is often called “Good Shepherd Sunday.” In each of the three cycles of Scripture readings, we find the theme of sheep or shepherd or sheepfold. The shepherd in the Holy Land was expected to be devoted entirely to the sheep under his care. If he allowed a sheep or a lamb to be lost or to be mangled by a wild animal, he had to prove that he had struggled against the animal and that he had expended great effort in search of the stray.

Sheep were usually not raised for meat, although the sacrifices of the Temple were of sheep – probably because sheep were considered so valuable. The sheep were raised mostly for milk and for wool. The shepherd got to know his sheep quite well, and they knew him. Just as our pet dogs respond only to their master’s voice, so also the sheep would respond only to the shepherd’s voice (a whistle or a yodel). His sheep would follow him alone.

The image of a shepherd came to be used for the kings of Israel; it also came to be used for the priests and other leaders of the people. But the Lord was really the only true or Good Shepherd. When Jesus calls himself the Good Shepherd, he is thereby claiming equality with God the Father. Jesus, as Good Shepherd, is so devoted to his sheep that he lays down his life for us, his sheep.

Our first reading is Peter’s explanation of the cure of a lame man. Lameness was a sign of sin; a lame person could not “walk” the ways of God! Peter explains that the lame man has been healed by the risen Lord Jesus Christ. But all must be healed of their spiritual lameness – their sins – through the same Jesus Christ.

The second reading tells us that we are God’s children now; we share his life; this life will be completed in our own resurrection when we shall be like the glorified and risen Christ. Meanwhile, we must live his life of love while on earth.

In the Gospel, Jesus proclaims himself as the “good” or “authentic” shepherd. He not only feeds, shelters, protects, and searches out his sheep; he even gives his life for his sheep.

Fourth Sunday of Easter, April 21, 2024

Dear Parishioners,

The Church continues its celebration of the mystery of Easter, celebrating this week the 4th Sunday. In our first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, we find Peter, “filled with the Holy Spirit” preaching a truth that He understood and lived. This truth is that there “is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved.” This is the Jesus who healed the cripple, this is Jesus Christ the Nazorean who was crucified, and this is the Jesus whom God raised from the dead. This fundamental truth remains a part of the faith that we preach today, the faith that we celebrate today; and the faith by which even today you and I are saved. Yes, in our responsorial psalm this Jesus was rejected by many but as is the truth, He now has become the very cornerstone of our lives.

If Jesus Christ is the cornerstone of our Church and of our lives, then John’s reading reflects what this means for all of us. In that reading, John states quite boldly that “we are children of God.” That means we are to live as those children of God with Jesus as that cornerstone that connects us with Him and with each other. In every building there is a cornerstone, that part of the building that connects the architectural design together. It is the strength of the building, the very part from which the building takes shape, and the very part in which it is connected with all the other parts. Therefore Jesus is the cornerstone of our lives, gracing us with the opportunity to be children of God and brothers and sisters with each other. May each of us find our roots and strength in that cornerstone who is Jesus Christ our Savior.

For the first time in my life, I visited St. Meinrad Seminary, in St. Meinrad, Indiana. I spent a few days in a mini-retreat, celebrating Mass with the seminarians as well as praying with them. After such an experience I came away rather jealous because I saw firsthand how prepared these young men were as they journeyed to the priesthood. Thinking about my own preparation, I realized how shortchanged I was in my training. But thanks be to God these young men will be ready to serve God and the Church through the formation that they are receiving at St. Meinrad Seminary. I ask you to keep them all in your prayers. Our Deacon Jayke White will be ordained to the priesthood on Saturday, May 25, at the Cathedral in Springfield.

Just a reminder that I will be meeting with the parents of our students at St. Peter School on either Tuesday or Wednesday of this week, April 23-24, from 6:00-6:30 in the Church concerning the Family School Agreement. We had our first meeting last Wednesday and these next two optional meetings are made available for anyone who had missed the first. Please make it a point to be present as it is prerequisite for registration for our next school year.

Our capital campaign, “Upon this Rock” is continuing as we ask our parishioners to generously respond to this campaign to expand our campus. I continue to be amazed at our parish family as they reflect the stewardship that they have embraced in their lives. With a thankful heart and prayer full of gratitude, I just want to say thank you to all of you who have participated.

Campaign Update

I want to provide a campaign update and let you know about a big weekend ahead. After several months of hard work and sacrifice by our community, I'm happy to report that our campaign total sits at $5.1 million. We owe a huge debt of gratitude to the many volunteers and donors who have stepped up with extreme generosity.

As our community begins to wind down this important effort, we'd like to ramp up the level of participation, especially because we have an opportunity with the $1 Million Challenge Participation Match, in which we can earn $300,000 toward the campaign total when we reach certain levels of participation.

We REACHED our Celebration Goal! Thank you to all who have supported the campaign thus far!!

Commitment Weekend

If you haven't had the chance to join your fellow parishioners in supporting our campaign, it's not too late. Next weekend, April 27-28, during all Masses, we will celebrate Commitment Weekend. This event allows us to honor the many families who have helped our parish reach this point in the campaign, while offering everyone a final chance to invest in the future of St. Peter. Please prayerfully consider supporting this critical effort. No gift is too small! In order to build the cafeteria, renovate the current cafeteria space into a parish center, and build additional, needed classrooms, we need your help. Join us for Commitment Weekend on April 27-28!

SCHOOL MENU

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Home mission dioceses have small or widely dispersed Catholic populations, large or rugged areas of land that make it difficult to minister to the needs of the people, or economic challenges caused by poverty, unemployment, or natural disasters.

In the Diocese of Amarillo, the diocesan criminal justice ministry answers Christ's call to visit and serve prisoners and patients confined to hospitals. Since 2004, this ministry has expanded to bring the Eucharist, Sacred Scripture, and prayer to inmates of the seven prisons and two large hospitals in the diocese. This ministry of mercy includes retreats during which inmates can encounter the love of Jesus, heal from past failures and wounds, and develop new hope for the future. Many inmates have experienced spiritual conversions that have inspired them to join formation programs and enter the Catholic Church.

The criminal justice ministry is one of many innovative outreach efforts made by dioceses supported by Catholic Home Missions. Your participation in the annual Catholic Home Missions Appeal supports dioceses throughout the United States and its territories that need financial help to sustain core pastoral services and missions of mercy to those they serve. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the appeal this year. To learn more about the appeal and those who benefit from it, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Thank you for strengthening the Church at home.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
