Fifth Sunday of Easter

APRIL 28, 2024

Acts 9:26-31; 1 John 3:18-24;
John 15:1-8

The Church should be a community of faith and love. The community should make use of all the talents and abilities of its members. But often converts find it otherwise.

Converts may have great abilities which are never used. They can easily become discouraged because they can't seem to "break in" to the community. Perhaps today's Mass might be a lesson in maturity for us all.

St. Paul was highly educated; he was zealous; he had tremendous abilities. Yet, after his conversion, the Church was suspicious of him. The community wondered if he really was converted, or was he a spy?

The apostles sent him off to Tarsus where he remained in seclusion for more than ten years! What a waste of talent. But all that time, Paul was building up the Church by his prayer and virtue, even though he could not build it up by his external witness.

The second reading tells us to love in deed and not merely in word. We often talk a good game of community and stewardship. But our faith is shown by what we do. If our talents are not used immediately, let us still please God in every way we can. We know that we are keeping his commandments by our peace of soul.

Jesus is the vine; we are his branches. All grace and virtue comes from him. Regardless of any other "branch" on the Christ vine, let us remain united with him. Let us seek to reflect his glory in all we do. He promises that whatever we ask in his name, he will do. Let us place our gifts and talents at his service.

5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

MY NEW JOURNEY

Time flies. It's been almost three years since I came to this parish. God blessed me in so many ways sending me here. I am always grateful to God for all these opportunities. I have met you and talked to you and shared my faith with you. I am especially grateful to Father Arisman. He is a wonderful man who taught me many things and prepared me in the best way he can for me to be a pastor one day. He is also my good friend. Not everyone can be your boss and at the same time be friendly and nice to you. Fr. Arisman can be both.

Now it's time for me to leave this parish. Bishop Paprocki has appointed me the pastor of Our Lady of the Holy Spirit parish in Mount Zion, Ill. and St. Isidore parish in Bethany, Ill. This will take place on July 1. I'm looking forward to this new journey even though I know it's going to be a sad experience to leave this parish knowing how much people love me here and appreciate my ministry to them. I'm going to miss the school and encounters with the children. I always have fun with the children and enjoy visiting their classrooms.

Jesus speaks today about bearing good fruit. To bear the fruit intended by God, we must strive to be constantly united to Christ. Jesus compares himself to a vine and us to branches. He says, "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and every one that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit." Just as the value of a branch, its vitality and fruitfulness depend on its union with the vine, so the value of our life depends on our union with Christ. What exactly does this mean? Well, this means that each of us is a branch planted by Christ in the vineyard called "Church." Each of us is to bear the fruit that God designated for us when he chose us and gave us a special calling. God loves us and cares for us. We are all part of the Church. We are responsible for each other. God intended to give us a Church so we can worship Him and bring to Him our prayers and intentions. God is great! We need to work on ourselves and grow in holiness. Let us keep praying for each other, so we can achieve our common goal, which is heaven.

At the end I would like to say thank you for all the birthday cards you sent me. Thank you especially for the gifts of money, which I can use for my trip to Poland as I leave on May 4. I have 28 people going with me. It's going to be a great trip.

I really appreciate every gesture of kindness to me. You are wonderful people and I'm happy to be a part of this great community. What I cannot say in words I will include in my prayers for you. Let God bless your good hearts and give you good health and peace in your hearts.

Reverend Rafal Pyrchla

Today is Commitment Sunday for the St. Francis Solanus Capital Campaign.

You should have received a packet in the mail explaining more about the campaign and our plans. If you haven't received your packet, please let the parish office know and we'll send one out to you. The packet explains more about our campaign, in which we are looking to raise $1.6 million for repairs and updates to the current parish campus. This includes repairing our Clock Tower, updating various systems in our church, parish center and rectory, providing more green spaces for our Catholic School children and replenishing our parish savings account. This weekend, pledge cards are available at this Mass. If you have not had an opportunity to turn in your pledge, please do so by mailing it to the office, dropping it off at the office or dropping it in the offertory basket. Thank you!

Pictured are the newest members of the Catholic faith with their sponsors and godparents who were initiated at the Easter Vigil Mass March 30 at St. Francis.
