APRIL 28, 2024

Acts 9:26-31; 1 John 3:18-24;
John 15:1-8

The Church should be a community of faith and love. The community should make use of all the talents and abilities of its members. But often converts find it otherwise.

Converts may have great abilities which are never used. They can easily become discouraged because they can't seem to "break in" to the community. Perhaps today's Mass might be a lesson in maturity for us all.

St. Paul was highly educated; he was zealous; he had tremendous abilities. Yet, after his conversion, the Church was suspicious of him. The community wondered if he really was converted, or was he a spy?

The apostles sent him off to Tarsus where he remained in seclusion for more than ten years! What a waste of talent. But all that time, Paul was building up the Church by his prayer and virtue, even though he could not build it up by his external witness.

The second reading tells us to love in deed and not merely in word. We often talk a good game of community and stewardship. But our faith is shown by what we do. If our talents are not used immediately, let us still please God in every way we can. We know that we are keeping his commandments by our peace of soul.

Jesus is the vine; we are his branches. All grace and virtue comes from him. Regardless of any other "branch" on the Christ vine, let us remain united with him. Let us seek to reflect his glory in all we do. He promises that whatever we ask in his name, he will do. Let us place our gifts and talents at his service.

Fifth Sunday of Easter, April 28, 2024

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate the 5th Sunday of our Easter season. Besides drawing this season to a close in a couple of weeks, we are also bringing to a close our month of April. Not sure where the time went, but this month sure has gone by with much speed. Can't believe it's almost May which means that school is winding down, graduations will be celebrated, and summer months will be planned. All I can say is Wow!

In our gospel for this weekend, we are challenged to be so connected with Jesus, that we are branches attached to Him, as the vine. "Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me." If we want to bear any kind of fruit with our lives, we need to remain united with Jesus. And the best means of doing that is to celebrate the Eucharist each and every Saturday/Sunday. He feeds us, He nourishes us, and "whoever remains in Him and He in us will bear much fruit."

This weekend the diocese will be announcing any personnel changes in our parishes. This can often be a difficult time as change is not always understood. And so as we await any announcement, let's pray that God will provide for the needs of all parishes in our diocese, and that He will strengthen and affirm our newly ordained and others as they begin any new assignments.

As we look ahead, I want to highlight that the Baccalaureate Mass for our seniors at Quincy Notre Dame will be on Thursday, May 9, at 7:00 p.m. at Blessed Sacrament Church.

This next Wednesday, May 1, we begin the month of May. This month has been traditionally dedicated to Mary. As we honor her this month, our students at St. Peter School will continue a tradition that is called, a "May Crowning" experience. During this ceremony which begins at 9:00 a.m., our students will be placing a crown upon a statue of Mary as we dedicate this month to her. Mary, mother of God, pray for us.

This weekend marks the start of the official wrap up of the Upon this Rock capital campaign. This campaign challenged us to raise money to build a new cafeteria for our grade school, renovating the old cafeteria into a new parish center for the community, and to build some much needed classroom space. Over the past few months, our dedicated volunteers and generous supporters have secured more that $6.2 million toward our goals. I would like to express my personal thanks for every one who has worked so hard and given so generously. As I said at the kickoff weekend, my hope and goal was to see a greater degree of participation in this capital campaign than we've seen before here at St. Peter. In fact, my invitation went out to 100% of you and I'm hoping for 100% response. We've received 350 pledges. That's good. But we are a parish of over 1300 families! This means that we've received a gift from 23% of our registered households. As your pastor, I want to call us on to a greater involvement in building the future of our parish community. Let's move that % to at least 50. What a goal!

WELCOME TO COMMITMENT WEEKEND!

The formal push for our Upon this Rock Capital Campaign is winding down and I am grateful for the continued generosity of the St. Peter community. We kicked off our effort several months ago and since then we've seen the fundraising totals gradually climb. As of April 23, we have received $6.2 million in total commitments from 350 families! Each gift, each pledge, each display of sacrifice is an inspiration and blessing to our parish. Due to the overwhelming display of stewardship, we are getting closer and closer to building our cafeteria and classrooms, and renovating for our parish center.

We now join together to celebrate Commitment Weekend. It is important to honor the families who have given so generously to this campaign. If you have made a pledge or gift, thank you! Supporting our campaign isn't an expectation – it's an invitation to invest in the future of our parish.

Each of you will receive a commitment envelope during Mass this weekend. I ask everyone to complete the envelope. Before doing so, please reflect on how you can help secure a brighter future for St. Peter. Please know that your donation, no matter the size, will have a positive impact on the entire parish community. We celebrate each and every gift.

»» If you have yet to join our cause and will not be at Mass this weekend, I invite you to make your commitment today by going to cospq.org/capital-campaign or by scanning the QR code below.

THANK YOU for your investment in St. Peter, its mission and its ministries. Your support is a blessing to everyone we serve and is an example of what we can achieve when we come together as a community in Christ.

Gratefully,

Monsignor Leo Enlow

This weekend is our Commitment weekend. As I said on so many occasions, we are a stewardship parish. Because God has blessed each of us in so many ways, our participation in this campaign is a reflection of our thankfulness to God for blessings and gifts received. Further, it also reflects our support of each other as we respond to the needs of this parish family for the future. If you haven't made a gift and/or pledge, we would ask that you please be a part of this important chapter in our parish history. We cannot do this without you, each of you. Everyone, including those who have pledged, will be asked to fill out a pledge form this weekend and then deposit it in a collection taken up by the ushers. Even though I have made my personal pledge, I, like you will do the same this weekend, filling out the pledge form. Again, I want to personally thank each and everyone of you for your participation in this special stewardship challenge. I am so thankful for this parish family—you are a gift to me.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A man joined the monastery. The order he joined could not speak for seven years. Then they could only say two words. The first seven years passed and they went into a small room. His two words were "too cold." The next seven years past and they took him back into the small room and his two words were "bad food." The next seven years passed they took him back into the small room and his two words were "I quit."

To which the authority figures stated, "Good. All you have done is complain."
