Solemnity of The Ascension

MAY 12, 2024

Acts 1:1-11; Ephesians 1:17-23;
or Ephesians 4:1-13 or Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-13;
Mark 16:15-20

Heaven is not “up;” hell is not “down;” earth is not in the middle. Often, however, we visualize a “three-storeyed” universe. In many ways this is a problem: If we imagine Jesus going “up,” we may think of him as far from us, as billions of light years away. It’s hard to imagine him as close to us with such an idea.

The ascension of Jesus is not his being “taken away” from us. Rather, the ascension means that he enters the dimension of the Father’s glory. His sacrifice is accepted by the Father, who takes him to “his right hand.” At the “right hand” of the Father, Jesus is our Mediator, our Intercessor with the Father. We can have perfect confidence in the love of the Father, for Jesus is “at his right hand.”

At the same time, Jesus has not departed from us. He has entered the Father’s glory in order to be closer to us than he was in his visible, physical body. He is right here with us. We can, therefore, have confidence in our prayers which are heard by the Father “through Jesus Christ our Lord.” We can have confidence that Jesus, who is with us, knows us, cares for us, loves us, and will see us through every crisis.

Our first reading describes the ascension. Jesus is taken into the cloud of the Father’s glory. It is the same cloud we saw in the Exodus, in the dedication of the temple at Jerusalem, and in the Transfiguration. While the apostles gaze at the scene, angels tell them and us to get busy. We must not rest until we proclaim the “Good News” to every creature.

The second reading reminds us that we are truly the Body of Christ. If Christ is in heaven, then we, too, have “one foot in heaven.” He prepares a place for us. Meanwhile, here on earth, we must strive with all our heart and soul to preserve the unity of the Church, Christ’s body, and to live as members of Christ. Use every gift and talent for this purpose.

The Gospel is Mark’s brief description of the ascension. Jesus sends us, his followers, forth to proclaim “Good News.” The “signs” which accompany the proclamation are symbolic. We won’t handle snakes or drink poison. But we should never fear anything that this world dishes out to us: The Lord is with us. He empowers us to overcome all evil.

Seventh Sunday of Easter, May 12, 2024

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend the Catholic Churches of Illinois along with many other dioceses throughout the United States celebrate the Solemnity of the Ascension of Our Lord into heaven. When I was growing up, a long time ago, we celebrated the Ascension as Ascension Thursday, 40 days after Easter. The reason for the 40 days is found in our first reading from the Acts of the Apostles. In that reading, we hear the following: “He presented Himself alive to them by many proofs after He had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God.” Then this particular reading continues: “When He had said this, as they were looking on, He was lifted up, and a cloud took Him from their sight.” It is with that understanding that the Church for many years celebrated the Ascension, 40 days after Easter. It was also one of the six holydays of obligation. But unfortunately, because of the busyness of people, they would not remember this Holyday. And so people didn’t attend Mass as expected. In the spirit of making this Feast the Solemnity that it is, many of the Churches in the United States moved this Solemnity to the final Sunday of Easter, thus replacing the 7th Sunday of Easter with now the Ascension of Jesus into heaven. I think that this was a very fitting move in order to have a greater participation in this Solemnity that completes the Paschal Mystery.

As many of you might read in our diocesan newspaper, the Catholic Times, I have concluded my appointment as Dean of the Quincy Deanery while retaining my duties as pastor of St. Peter Church and Chaplain at Quincy Notre Dame High School. I also, according to Canon Law, submitted my letter of resignation as pastor of St. Peter Church. Whether a pastor or even a Bishop, when one turns 75 years of age, one is expected to submit their letter of resignation. For a bishop, it means a letter to the Pope; for a pastor, it means a letter to the Bishop. And so I fulfilled the particular law with the expectation that it will be a year to year discussion with the Bishop.

FYI: St. Peter School will celebrate their graduation/promotion of our 8th grade students on Tuesday, May 14, at 6:00 p.m. in the Church. As we honor these young people at a graduation Mass, our prayers are with them as they begin their high school years. We only hope and pray that what we have taught, and how they were formed, will live out through their years of learning that await them. We congratulate them and pray for them.

Also, we will be closing our PSR program with a Mass this Wednesday, May 15, at 6:30 p.m. Even though we conclude their classes, I reassure them that there is no vacation from their living out their faith, especially celebrating the Eucharist each weekend.

Finally, our last day of school here at St. Peter School will be on Friday, May 24, Since the Eucharist is the center of our lives as Catholics, we will have a Mass at 8:30 on that Friday followed by a school picnic.

As a reminder, don’t forget about the ordination to the priesthood of Deacon Jayke White on Saturday, May 25, at 10:00 in the Cathedral in Springfield. There will be No Mass nor confessions on that Saturday.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE:

A lifeguard told a mother to make her young son stop urinating in the pool. “Everyone knows.” the mother lectured him, “that from time to time, young children will do that.”

“Oh really?” said the lifeguard, “from the diving board?”

Things that mom would never say:

1. “Yeah, I used to skip school a lot, too.”
2. “Go ahead and keep that stray dog, honey. I’ll be glad to feed and walk him every day.”
3. “Let me smell that shirt—yeah, it’s good for another week.”
4. “Just leave all the lights on...It makes the house look more cheery.”
5. “Well, if Timmy’s mom says its okay, that’s good enough for me.”
6. “The curfew is just a general time to shoot for. It’s not like I’m running a prison around here.”
7. “I don’t have a tissue with me... just use your sleeve.”

On behalf of so many of us who heard these words or NOT, I want to wish all of our Mother’s a very special and Happy Mother’s Day. With love,

Dear Friends in Christ,

Each year on the feast of Pentecost we rejoice that the gifts of the Holy Spirit are given to the Church in every age. As we celebrate this feast, I ask you to consider a generous response in the Retired Diocesan Priests Collection to meet the immediate retirement and health care needs of our priests.

Please pray for our priests who serve so generously in various apostolates throughout our diocese. Please thank God for all that we have received from our priests who are now retired, many of whom continue to offer generous service in every way that they are able throughout our diocese.

If you are unable to make an in-church contribution, please make your donation online at parishgiving.dio.org/second collections. You can also mail your donation to your parish office.

Thank you in advance for your support this year. May the Holy Spirit give us every gift we need to build up the Body of Christ in our time and place.

With every best wish and prayers, I remain Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki, Bishop of Springfield in Illinois
