Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

MAY 26, 2024

Deuteronomy 4:32-34,39-40; Romans 8:14-17;
Matthew 28:16-20

Our Scripture readings today were probably selected in order to show how our God differs from the “gods” of other religions. The readings also show how the Mystery of the Trinity responds to these wonderful attributes of God.

The gods and goddesses of other religions are capricious; you never know quite how they will act. They have to be placated or they will turn against you. You have to merit their favor. They almost act as if you are in competition with them, for they don’t want you to share their eternal life.

How very different is our God! God speaks to us a saving message: He loves us even when we fail him. He calls us to share eternal life. He is not a “local” god, but is Lord of all creation. Our God is close to us – so close that we could even call him “Dad” (for that is what the Aramaic word “Abba” means!) In and through Jesus, the Son of God, we become heirs of heaven. God lives in our hearts by his Holy Spirit.

Even though we believe in the warmth and nearness of God, he may still seem far off to us. No one has seen the Father, but Jesus says that if we have seen him, we have seen the Father!

Now we know the Father in the person of Jesus. But for us who live 2,000 years after Jesus lived, it is even hard to know the Son. For this reason, the Lord has sent the Holy Spirit into our hearts to make us one in the Son.

Jesus is our Mediator, our Intercessor, and our “Advocate” (“Paraclete”) at the right hand of the Father. The Holy Spirit is our “Advocate” (“Paraclete”), our Guide and our Comforter here on earth. Our entire faith life should be “Trinitarian.” Let us give glory to the Father through the Son in the Holy Spirit with the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints!

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

We are called to follow the commandments today and sent forth proclaiming the gospel. We are called to make disciples of all nations and baptize all peoples. You, the church, are called to do just this. Tell others of what Christ has done for you and that He desires to do the same for them! Invite them to come to know Jesus and be baptized. This is Trinity Sunday. The weekend we are grateful for the relationality of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit because it means we too can enter into that relationship! What a privilege.

I want to thank the parish council for throwing a wonderful event to celebrate my tenth anniversary in the priesthood. I want to thank all those who made that event a joy, including our Holy Name men for cooking such great chicken! Thank you to all those that came! My family just loved meeting you all and are still talking about the experience. Thank you also to those that brought cards and gifts. Your kind messages really were so encouraging. I did this event to encourage more vocations, but honestly it was so encouraging to me of my vocation. It was an unexpected boost that I didn't realize I needed. Thank you to you all for your kind words.

School is out! Thank you to our principal, faculty, and staff for their wonderful work. Enjoy a well deserved rest.

Lastly please pray for all our guys being ordained priests this weekend at the Cathedral, including our very own Fr. Bruce Scott. Pray for them as they begin their priesthood and nervously celebrate their masses of thanksgiving. What a joy it will be to see these guys I've known since the beginning of their consideration of priesthood for some of them and as I've gotten to walk with them. I am so excited to see these new priests start their ministry and touch so many lives. Pray for them!

St. Francis Capital Campaign

It is never too late to make your pledge!

Please prayerfully consider an amount your household could contribute to our campaign for necessary upgrades to our church and campus. You may bring your pledge envelope to the parish office, mail it in, or drop it in the collection basket. Our sincerest gratitude to those who have already made their gift.

Rest in Peace

Can you help pray for our new priest?

We are looking for seven women who are willing to take one day a week, for one hour and pray for our new priest, Fr. Bruce Scott. If you are not familiar with the Seven Sisters of the Apostolate ministry, one woman each day of the week prays for a priest for one hour. The day is assigned, but the time and place for the hour is up to you—wherever you find to be most prayerful for that day. We currently have 28 women participating: 7 for Fr. Arisman, 7 for Fr. Rafal; 7 for Fr. James Wheeler and 7 for Fr. David Beagles. If you are interested or just want to know more about this ministry, please call or text Pat Holbrook at 217-257-2570.

Changes in Online Giving

St. Francis Solanus is in the beginning stages of a diocese-wide change in software. With this update we will transition from Our Sunday Visitor (OSV) as an online giving option to Parish Staq/Push Pay. As of this June 15, St. Francis will no longer use OSV. If you have an account with OSV, please log in to your account to stop this process and begin using Push Pay before June 15. Both websites are available through our giving page at stfrancissolanus.com. Please call the parish office or email church@stfrancissolanus.com with questions. Thank you for your continued support of St. Francis!

The Parish Office will be closed Monday, May 27 in observance of Memorial Day.

There will be no 6:30 a.m. Mass that day.

A Memorial Day Mass will be held at Calvary Cemetery on May 27 at 9 a.m. Please bring a lawn chair. If it rains, the Mass will be held at St. Anthony's in Quincy.

Congratulations!
