Sixth Sunday of Easter

MAY 5, 2024

Acts 10:25-26,34-35,44-48; 1 John 4:7-10;
John 15:9-17

All the great religions of the world have some form of the Golden Rule (“Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.”) But the moral code of Christianity goes infinitely beyond this.

Jesus commands us to treat others as he treats us! In today’s Gospel he says, “Love one another as I have loved you!” We should not ask whether others deserve our forgiveness or understanding or mercy; we must simply offer them the love which Christ offers us. Jesus calls us his friends, not his servants; if we are his friends, then we must be friends of all who belong to him.

The second reading expands on this theme: “Love one another, because love is of God ... God first loved us and sent his Son as an offering for our sins.” Love means that we place another’s needs above our own. It means that we sacrifice unselfishly. Love is a desire to do good to, to honor and respect, to build up another person.

The Christian motive for this is “because God has first loved us... because Christ gave his life for us.” Christian love enables us to overcome our natural inclinations and prejudices.

The first reading describes the conversion of the first Gentiles (non-Jews); this was very hard for the apostles (steeped in Jewish tradition) to accept. But Peter proclaims that God shows no partiality – and we can’t either!

Human nature cannot live up to the high moral calling of Christians; we can only love as Christ loves with the help of his grace. Let us daily work to become more like Jesus.

Sixth Sunday of Easter, May 5, 2024

Dear Parishioners,

What a joy! The month of May has arrived. It is a month of exams; it is a month of graduations; it is a month of baseball and other sporting activities; and it is a month that we anticipate school closings and summer vacations. But in the meantime, let's just enjoy this time that God has given to us this May, 2024.

One of the qualities that God desires that we have is one of joy. In our gospel, Jesus tells us "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete." After reading such a statement, we might wonder how do we get that "joy?" He tells us in that same gospel, we will receive that joy when we remain in His love, always keeping His commandments. We receive that joy when we love one another as Jesus loves us. We open ourselves up to that joy when we remain friends with Jesus, doing what He commands us as friends. In other words, the joy that God desires for us comes from the realization that God has chosen us and appointed us "to go and bear fruit." In other words, our lives must reflect that we are right with God and when we do, we discover His joy for all of us. Let's open ourselves to God's grace and always strive to be right with Him and our joy will be complete.

This Thursday, May 9, Quincy Notre Dame High School will be celebrating their Baccalaureate Mass for their seniors at Blessed Sacrament Church at 7:00 p.m. Please pray for our young people as they begin a new phase in their lives, having been well prepared to continue the journey, as being chosen by God to go forth and to bear fruit. May God fill them with His joy as we congratulate them.

For those who were not present last weekend, Fr. Zach Samples announced to the parish that he will be leaving us to begin a new assignment as parochial vicar of St. Agnes Church, Springfield, Chaplain of Sacred Heart Griffin High School, Springfield, and as Associate Vocation Director for the Springfield Deanery. We wish him the best and thank him for his two years of service to our parish. Also, in the announcements from the Bishop, you will find that I have concluded my appointment as Dean of the Quincy Deanery while retaining my duties as pastor of St. Peter and Chaplain at QND. After many years as Dean, I asked that I be relieved and let a new face fulfill this role. In place of Fr. Zach, Fr. Paul L. Lesupti is appointed parochial vicar of St. Peter Parish, and Associate Chaplain of Quincy Notre Dame. He has been serving the Cathedral in Springfield as a parochial vicar since his ordination two years ago with Fr. Zach. Please welcome him with open minds and hearts as he begins his service with us on the 1st day of July, 2024.

As of last weekend, we are beginning to wrap up the active fund-raising phase of the Upon this Rock campaign. I want to thank all of our parishioners and school families for their support. We had our Commitment weekend last weekend and some of parishioners responded with pledges and/or donations. We are still hovering around the 25% participation rate of parishioners participating. If some of you have not filled out your pledge cards, please do so. There is still time and a matching pledge awaits us if 500 families would only respond. Thank you!

Continuing on my theme for this campaign, we have raised $6,219,173 towards our total goal. As I said, there is what I call a participating challenge by a donor who has pledged another $150,000 if we have 500 parishioners participating in this campaign. As of last weekend, we have 440. Will you help us? We need 60 more parish families. And lastly, I ask for all of you to pray for this project. It will be a tremendous asset to our campus here at St. Peter Church, providing a secure cafeteria, a renovated parish center, and much needed classroom space.

As we look ahead, 8th grade graduation for St. Peter School will be Tuesday, May 14, at 6:00 p.m. in the Church. Our closing Mass for our PSR students is Wednesday, May 15, at 6:30 p.m.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: In his Easter sermon, a young parochial vicar was addressing a youth group. "People waste many thousands of dollars on ornate coffins, fancy mausoleums, and monuments to their dead bodies," he said. "Jesus was so unconcerned about death that He had to use a borrowed tomb."

A voice in the back of the room said, "Father, He only needed it for three days."

A Sunday school teacher asked her class to draw a picture of their favorite Bible story. She was puzzled by one drawing—it showed four people on an airplane! Teacher: "What Bible story is that?" Child: "It's the flight into Egypt. Teacher: "I see.. And that must be Mary, Joseph, and Baby Jesus...but whose the fourth?" Child: "Oh, that's Pontius, the Pilot."

May 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This May, our diocese will take up a collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC). Please prayerfully consider supporting the collection this year. Fifty percent of collected funds stay in the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois and the other 50 percent support communications projects in the United States and around the world.

Through Catholic Times, social media, podcasting, and other digital methods, our diocese is taking advantage of several communication outlets to spread the news of our diocese, teach the faith, and provide hope and encouragement to people no matter where they are in their faith life.

Followers on the diocesan social media channels continue to grow. Our channels have far more followers than most dioceses our size, and several that are two to three times as big as our diocese. For example, our Facebook page has neared 11,000 followers (we had about 3,000 followers five years ago).

In 2020, our YouTube channel had under 500 subscribers. Today, it is approaching 5,000 subscribers. This shows that the content our Curia team is producing is engaging, inspirational, and educational, and people want to consume it because it is helping them.

For example, a search on YouTube for "How to go to Confession," has a video from our diocese in the top five for answering that question, with more than 145,000 views. Dive Deep, the official podcast of the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois, has listeners all over the world, and recently was endorsed by EWTN which placed Dive Deep on their podcast central webpage. God is Alive, a documentary produced by our Communications team, was featured in several national media outlets this past year.

With your generosity, we can continue creating engaging content and bringing people closer to our faith or even back to our faith.

Parishioners can donate online at parishgiving.dio.org/secondcollections or use their second collection envelope. You can also mail your donation to your parish office. For more information about the collection and the projects it supports, visit www.usccb.org/ccc. Thank you. Sincerely yours in Christ,
