Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ

JUNE 2, 2024

Exodus 24:3-8; Hebrews 9:11-15;

Mark 14:12-16,22-26

The “Mystery” of the Eucharist can be considered in many ways. We could consider the “Real Presence,” the risen Christ is present under the appearances of bread and wine; after the consecration of Mass, nothing remains of the bread and wine except “accidental appearances;” the reality is Jesus Christ!

We could consider the Eucharist from the aspect of “Sacrifice.” Each and every Mass is a renewal or re-presentation of the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. He does not suffer or die, for he did that once and for all. But he renews the offering of himself to his Father in our behalf.

We could consider the Eucharist as “Sacrament.” Jesus Christ comes to us under appearances of bread and wine in order that we may share his life; he comes to enable us to rise above the natural and the human to the divine.

Today’s Mass, however, emphasizes the Eucharist as our “Covenant.” A covenant is an agreement between two unequal parties, freely entered into, binding perpetually, and sealed in blood. The Hebrews borrowed the covenant concept from their pagan neighbors in order to describe their unique relationship with God. Pagan covenants were between emperors and vassals or between kings and nobles; but the Hebrew covenant was between God and his people.

The first reading of Mass describes the covenant which Moses made with God on Mt. Sinai. God’s part of the agreement is to make his people a kingdom of priests, a holy nation, a people dearer to him than all others. Israel’s part of the agreement was to keep God’s law: “We will do everything that the Lord has told us.” The covenant was ratified by sacrifice.

At the Last Supper, Jesus begins the new covenant which he will complete in his sacrificial death. Jesus borrows the words of Moses when he changes bread and wine into his Body and Blood. He makes the Eucharist the means of our covenant renewal.

If our covenant renewal is genuine, we must proclaim – in every Mass – “We will do everything that the Lord has told us.” If we are faithful to our covenant, God will be faithful in making us a holy people, dearer to him than all others.

CORPUS CHRISTI

This weekend is Corpus Christi. I hope you participate in the Eucharist procession. And I hope you join us in July for the National Eucharistic Congress in Indy and the Procession coming right through Quincy! I want you to read the sequence for this feast day. It's beautiful.

1. Sing forth, O Zion, sweetly sing
The praises of thy Shepherd-King,
In hymns and canticles divine;
Dare all thou canst, thou hast no song
Worthy his praises to prolong,
So far surpassing powers like thine.

2. Today no theme of common praise
Forms the sweet burden of thy lays —
The living, life-dispensing food —
That food which at the sacred board
Unto the brethren twelve our Lord
His parting legacy bestowed.

3. Then be the anthem clear and strong,
Thy fullest note, thy sweetest song,
The very music of the breast:
For now shines forth the day sublime
That brings remembrance of the time
When Jesus first his table blessed.

4. Within our new King's banquet-hall
They meet to keep the festival
That closed the ancient paschal rite:
The old is by the new replaced;
The substance hath the shadow chased;
And rising day dispels the night.

5. Christ willed what he himself had done
Should be renewed while time should run
In memory of his parting hour:
Thus, tutored in his school divine
We consecrate the bread and wine
And lo — a Host of saving power.

6. This faith to Christian men is given —
Bread is made flesh by words from heaven:
Into his blood the wine is turned:
What thought baffles nature's powers
Of sense and sight? This faith of ours
Proves more than nature e'er discerned.

7. Concealed beneath the two-fold sign,
Meet symbols of the gifts divine,
There lie the mysteries adored:
The living body is our food;
Our drink the ever-precious blood;
In each, one undivided Lord.

8. Not he that eateth it divides
The sacred food, which whole abides
Unbroken still, nor knows decay;
Be one, or be a thousand fed,
They eat alike that living bread
Which, still received, ne'er wastes away.

9. The good, the guilty share therein,
With sure increase of grace or sin,
The ghostly life, or ghostly death:
Death to the guilty; to the good
Immortal life. See how one food
Man's joy or woe accomplisheth.

10. We break the Sacrament; but hold
And firm thy faith shall keep its hold;
Deem not the whole doth more enfold
Than in the fractured part resides:
Deem not that Christ doth broken lie;
'Tis but the sign that meets the eye;
The hidden deep reality
In all its fullness still abides.

11. *Behold the bread of angels, sent
For pilgrims in their banishment,
The bread for God's true children meant,
That may not unto dogs be given:
Oft in the olden types foreshowed;
In Isaac on the altar bowed,
And in the ancient paschal food,
And in the manna sent from heaven.

12. *Come then, good shepherd, bread divine,
Still show to us thy mercy sign;
Oh, feed us still, still keep us thine;
So may we see thy glories shine
In fields of immortality;

13. *O thou, the wisest, mightiest, best,
Our present food, our future rest,
Come, make us each thy chosen guest,
Co-heirs of thine, and comrades blest
With saints whose dwelling is with thee.

Growing in Faith Capital Campaign

It is never too late to make your pledge!

Thank you for your contribution to preserve and allow our magnificent church and school campus to grow for generations to come. We sincerely appreciate your support.

Pattie Paxton and Julie Erwin, campaign co-chairs.

Can you help pray for our new priest?

We are looking for seven women who are willing to take one day a week, for one hour and pray for our new priest, Fr. Bruce Scott. If you are not familiar with the Seven Sisters of the Apostolate ministry, one woman each day of the week prays for a priest for one hour. The day is assigned, but the time and place for the hour is up to you—wherever you find to be most prayerful for that day. We currently have 28 women participating: 7 for Fr. Arisman, 7 for Fr. Rafal, 7 for Fr. James Wheeler, and 7 for Fr. David Beagles. If you are interested or just want to know more about this ministry, please call or text Pat Holbrook at 217-257-2570.

Changes in Online Giving

St. Francis Solanus is in the beginning stages of a diocese-wide change in software. With this update we will transition from Our Sunday Visitor (OSV) as an online giving option to Parish Staq/Push Pay. As of this June 15 St. Francis will no longer use OSV. If you have an account with OSV, please log in to your account to stop this process and begin using Push Pay before June 15. Both websites are available through our giving page at stfrancissolanus.com. Please call the parish office or email church@stfrancissolanus.com with questions. Thank you for your continued support of St. Francis!

The Parish Picnic is next weekend! We are still looking for some volunteers, so if you are available please sign up at stfrancissolanus.com/picnic. The picnic committee and many others have been working for months to make this picnic a fun and successful evening. Please make sure you have turned in your raffle chances, and a basket and/or silent auction item if you are interested.

If you are willing and able please join us for the picnic teardown on Sunday morning, beginning at 8 o'clock. We look forward to seeing all our parishioners, and don't forget to invite your friends and family! Please pick up a parish picnic yard sign from the back of church and return it to church after the picnic.

Please pray for great weather and no rain!
